Comedy at Terrebonne—
The dramatic talent at Terrebonne will put on the comedy "A Modern Ananias," Wednesday night, Feb. 26 for the benefit of the Ladies' Pioneer Club. There is a lot of good dramatic talent at Terrebonne, and a big house no doubt will greet the players in the above production.

Want Receiver Appointed—Metellus Oregonian: The report of the J. H. Haner Abstract Co. contains an item of complaint by C. A.
Cline against J. A. Norwood, calling for a dissolution of the partnership of Norwood & Cline, general merchants at Culver, and the appointment of a receiver. This is the third Culver store to have trouble. Two former stores went defunct.

Stores that do not advertise cannot expect to get their share of the business, for the buying people will not know they are in business, or have anything to offer for sale.

Gone to Omaha—
A. M. Overturf of Sisters, who has been ranching in that section for several years, left Tuesday for Omaha, where he will remain for a while.
His brother, who was on the ranch for some time, is running a barber shop in Omaha.

Are Putting in Poles—
The Deschutes Power Co. is putting in a number of new poles in the city to handle their electric light and power. As soon as the pole line is completed the light service will be materially improved.

Warehouse Advertising—
The Redmond Union Warehouse Co. has adopted a novel scheme for advertising the potatoes sent from this section to outside points. Inside of each sack of potatoes they place a large card containing the following: "We Come From the Redmond Union Warehouse Co., Redmond, Oregon, the Home of the Big Mealy Potato." President L. E. Smith of the company, thinks this kind of advertising will result in some good in boosting the potatoes grown in this section.

Farmers' Union meeting first and third Saturday of each month. 3114

Will Have Electric Signs—A number of business firms in the city are figuring on getting electric signs if the city council will amend the present ordinance so that signs can be extended over the sidewalks.
At present no sign over 30 inches can extend over the walks. With the advent of electric signs on 6th street the business section of the city will be improved and better lighted.

Oregon Cafe Improved—
A number of decided improvements have recently been made at Oregon Cafe and now the place looks a hundred per cent better, and the proprietors have much additional room to take care of the wants of their patrons in.

Don't forget the sale of household goods at the home of Roy A. Bush on Saturday, March 1st. 3312

Gave Good Shows—
The vaudeville shows given at the Sparks Theater Monday and Tuesday night this week drew good audiences and were entertaining. Taken together with the "movies" the entertainment on the nights in question was all to the good.

mond, Oregon. 49tf

Gave Them Farewell Party—
A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bush of this city, gave them a farewell party at their residence on A street Tuesday evening.
The Bush family expect to leave Redmond about the first of the month, having disposed of all their property here.

I wish to announce that I will be in Redmond Wednesday of each week, and will accept pupils in plano. Beginners taken as well as the most advanced. The Leschitzky method used.
JAMES FELLMAN.
3312

Pleased With Schools—
Victor Shawe, supervisor of Crook county public schools, was in Redmond Tuesday and visited the school here. He stated he was agreeably surprised to find such an efficient and well conducted school, and was loud in his praise of the "fire drill" which was made for his inspection.

A Good Auctioneer—N. H. Elliott of Terrebonne, was in town Monday making arrangements for the Alex Brown auction sale which he will "cry" on the 27th.
Mr. Elliott is a first class auctioneer and always sells the goods put up by him, having had many years experience in this business. While in the city Mr. Elliott put in some good boosting for the show the people of Terrebonne are going to give on the night of Feb. 26th.

Raised Money for Church—Rev. F. Harvey of the Presbyterian church of this city, returned from Portland Saturday night. Mr.
Harvey had been to Portland to see if he could get assistance among the Presbyterian church people there in the way of money subscriptions to apply on the building debt of the Young Is Building—

Henry Young, an employee of the Oregon Trunk R. R., is having a 5-room bungalow built on his residence property on south 9th street. Swan Erickson & Son have the contract.

Elmer Has Good Job—

Elmer Erickson, formerly of this city but now in the employ of Sam Hill at Sam Hill, Wn., has gone to San Francisco to look at a $100,000 residence that Sam Hill is desirous of having duplicated on his Washington property. Mr. Hill wants Elmer to take charge of the construction of his $100,000 house, and he is sure capable of doing it.

Is Here Buying Horses—
Luke Coshov of Prineville, is in the city buying horses and mules for parties in California. He contemplates making an extended stay in Redmond.

More Thoroughbreds—

Albert Mohler last week received from McCoy, a town in the Willamette Valley, a thoroughbred registered Ayshire calf, which will be added to his fine herd of cattle on his ranch west of the city.

Returned Home—

M. A. Lynch, of the department store firm of Lynch & Roberts, returned home last Thursday night from his eastern trip and a visit to his old home at Washington, D. C. This was Mr. Lynch's first visit to his home in 10 years.

Stores that do not advertise cannot expect to get their share of the business, for the buying people will not know they are in business, or have anything to offer for sale.

United in Marriage—

On Sunday last at 1 p. m., Sterlie, son of Wm. Fryrear of Sisters, and Elita B. Gillette of Redmond, were united in marriage at the home of Walter Gillette, by Rev. F. Harvey.

Miss Mary Gillette attended the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, Gordon Davidson and Mr. Davis were present. The whole party were subsequently entertained at the wedding dinner, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fryrear left for their new home at Sisters.

Many Valentines Sent—

Last Friday, Valentine Day, the local postoffice was kept busy for a while handling the large number of all kinds of valentines sent out. The usual comics were much in evidence and there are some people in the city still sore over the ones they received.

Strangers Arriving—

During the past ten days or two weeks many strangers have arrived in the city from points in the east and from the coast. Most of these people are here for the purpose of looking the country in this section over with a view to investing. Others have come in, bought land and gone right on to their purchases and will make this section their future home.

Prof. James Fellman, a piano teacher recently of Spokane, Wn., is organizing a class in Redmond. Mr. Fellman is teaching in Bend, Redmond, Metellus and Madras. He intends to locate permanently in this section. 3312

Masonic Entertainment—

The entertainment given in Muma's hall last Friday evening by Redmond Lodge, A. F. & A. M. to Masons and Eastern Stars, was one of the enjoyable social events of the season. A lunch was served during the evening and musical and literary selections given by local talent.

Has Painting Contract—

Geo. Kohl of this city, has secured the contract to paint and decorate the new 3-story brick hotel recently built at Deschutes, the town built by the Central Oregon Irrigation Co., 12 miles south of this city. Mr. Kohl started in Monday on the work.

Large Crowd at Auction—

There were nearly 300 people at the Bastian auction sale at the C. R. McLallin place last Saturday. Lunch for 240 was prepared and soon disposed of when eating time came. The sale was a success—as was the free lunch.

Make Headquarters Here—

M. C. Collon of Waterloo, Ia., of the firm of Jackman & Collon, arrived here this week with some imported and domestic thoroughbred horses. The firm is in the stock business and will make Redmond their headquarters for the west. Mr. Collon bought the W. E. Young ranch near the city some three years ago, and this is his first visit to Redmond for some time. He notes many changes for the better in the city and surrounding country.

Services Next Sunday—
Rev. F. Harvey will preach at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday evening. Subject: "Pilate's Advice."

A CARLOAD OF
