BURNS IS TO VOTE ON BONDS

Movement Started for $100,000 Water and Sewerage Plants

Before the end of the present year a water and sewer system will likely be installed at Burns, and be in active operation. The city council has entered into a contract with C. H. Green, a consulting engineer of Spokane, to make plans and specifications, and prepare for a vote on the bonds necessary for the improvement.

Owing to the position of the city on an elevated point of rocky ground and its distance from any body of water suitable for use; with the elevation necessary to give a gravity service, and the natural obstacles in the way of a proper drainage system, there has been doubt about the ability of the city to finance such an improvement, but the council has succeeded in obtaining assurance that it can be done.

The water system will consist of a series of wells on the lower level of the town and stand pipes erected on the crest of the hill, to which the water will be pumped and from which it will have a good pressure all over the city. The sewerage will be disposed of in septic tanks on the low ground between the city and the Silvers river. The project is expected to cost about $100,000.

SCOTT PROCLAMATION HELD UP BY WEST

GOVERNOR, IN PIQUE, IGNORES REQUEST FOR MEMORIAL TO ANTARCTIC HEROES

Nothing that has occurred at this session of the Legislature, says a Salem dispatch of Feb. 14th to the Portland Evening Telegram, has shown the extreme smallness of Governor West's mental caliber so clearly as his taking advantage of a technicality to avoid issuing a proclamation in compliance with legislative dictum, calling on the people of Oregon to display a white flower today in memory of Captain Robert F. Scott and party, who perished in the Antarctic region last March.

A joint resolution directing the executive to issue such a proclamation was introduced in the Senate by Miller of Linn, Wednesday. By request of the author the committee report, which was favorable, was returned yesterday and under suspension of the rules adopted by the Senate and sent to the House at noon. Business of the House being badly congested the resolution was not reached until late in the afternoon, and then under suspension of the rules, a hasty report from a committee by request, it was adopted unanimously by that branch of the assembly as well.

Before the resolution could reach the Governor it would have been necessary for the resolution to be enrolled and signed by the President and Speaker, thus consuming valuable time. In order to save this time Senator Miller saw Governor West and notified him of the action taken by both Houses, requesting that he issue the proclamation forthwith.

"The Governor promised me to issue the proclamation at once and file it," said Senator Miller. "He also said he would notify the correspondents of the morning papers. In view of the brief time left for notifying the public, I was very much surprised not to see this proclamation published this morning."

Dr. Rodemeyer. After music and refreshments were served the Rev. F. Harvey, on behalf of the Ladies' Guild and friends, made the presentation of an elegant silver tray and set of silver spoons to Mr. and Mrs. Bush. The recipients were much surprised and said they could only faintly express the great pleasure they had experienced in living and working with the good people of Redmond.

CHARTER OF METOLUS IS A LENGTHY ONE

The complete charter of the City of Metolus was published in the last issue of the Metolus Oregonian. There are 299 sections in the charter, and it occupied 28 columns of the paper. It was a good "fat" take for the printer man.

COP WHO THREATENED 'BRIDGE' RAID JOBLESS

A Eugene dispatch of the 13th to a Portland paper says: Because of his recent statement to the local papers that he intended to arrest society matrons on a charge of gambling for giving prizes at card parties, Mike Thompson, night chief of police of Eugene, has been requested by the mayor to resign. Thompson handed in his star, and no one has been appointed in his place. Thompson's announcement, made a week ago, that he would begin a crusade upon society people, created a furore and the police commission at the last meeting of the city council recommended his dismissal for making such announcements without authority from the chief of police or the mayor.

While there was a clamor for his resignation on the part of those against whom the threats were made the Clean City League, under whose direction a moral campaign has been waged, passed resolutions upholding Thompson.

AFTER FALSE ADVERTISERS

Men Who Advertised "Closing Out" Sale are Prosecuted

At Baker a store keeper is being prosecuted under the state law by a private citizen for advertising a big "closing out" sale in the papers, and then continuing right along in business, though on a smaller scale. The Oregon false advertising law is very stringent and carries a fine of from $10 to $50 and imprisonment for violation of its provisions.

CLINE FALLS

A spelling match was held at the Cline Falls school house last Friday night. Mr. Abbey won the honors.

Angus Davies, Mr. Miller's son-in-law, who has been assisting with the tree pulling on the ranch, was struck with the sweep Friday morning and for a while it was thought he was seriously injured, but he soon recovered and is at work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Muller and children took dinner at the Caveat Emporium ranch Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean attended church services at Redmond Sunday morning.

Mrs. Julia Pratt spent the week's end with Mr. and Mrs. Mohler.

I. L. Harader and son while hauling wood Friday lost their woodsaw. Mr. Harader made a special trip Saturday to the Stry ranch and recovered the saw, which the Stry's had found.

Mr. Burns took his furs to Prineville Thursday, and was well satisfied with the price received. Now that the weather is warmer he expects to have good success trapping.

Miss Linnell was unexpectedly called to Mr. Sanford's, Monday, to act as housekeeper for two or three weeks, until Mrs. Sanford is able to resume her duties again.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies jr. are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Miller at present.

Messrs. Catlow, Harader, Hany and Jesse Beckwith attended the sale at the McLellan ranch Saturday.

J. A. Vosburg and I. L. Harader have been hauling mulch on their gardens and berry patches this week.

An exchange says that gossips have motor cars beaten to a frazzle when it comes to running people down.
