Redmond and Vicinity

J. E. Freeberg, of the firm of Freeberg Bros., general merchants, returned last week from a business trip to Portland where he had gone to buy new goods. He said business in Portland was dull.

A number of Redmond fans accompanied the ball team from here to Sisters Sunday and rooted for all they were worth for the Hub City players.

A number of fishing parties were out Sunday on the Deschutes and Crooked Rivers, and some very good catches were made.

Cooking by electricity is now cheap. See the Deschutes Power Co's line of Toasters, Broilers and Stoves now on display. They have just got here. 44tf

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Miller left last week for Perry South's, on the Metolius river, where they had a good time fishing.

Miss Elizabeth Froebe of this city visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen at Sisters.

J. L. Fenton arrived here last week from Lewiston, Idaho. He bought the Fitzgerald land.

Save Money—
By doing your trading at Ehret Bros., the Economy Store. They sell for cash, that's why they sell for less. 40tf

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lamb left last week for Portland, Salem and other points.

H. M. Smith left the first of the week for Alberta country.

Elmer Erickson arrived here last Thursday from Maryhill, Wn., where he is engaged in the chicken raising business. He returned Tuesday.

I. A. Buckley is now ready to deliver strictly pure artificial ice in any quantity to any part of the city. Phone No. 906. 4512

One of the attractions at the ball game here Sunday between the Redmond and Bend business men will be the umpiring of Hugh O'Kane of Bend. His decisions alone will be worth the price of admission.

See McLallin for the General Electric flat irons, and all kinds of electrical heating and cooking devices. 40tf Buckley's Express Co. put a new transfer wagon on the street Monday that was painted up more gaudily than a circus wagon. But this won't stop the company from doing all kinds of light and heavy hauling and selling and delivering strictly pure ice.

The Electric El Tostos have just got here. They toast your bread quick, clean and delicious. Cheap, too. See them at the office of the Deschutes Power Co. 44tf Fred H. Wilcox of Oregon City, arrived here Sunday to look after his property interests in this section. He is improving a 40-acre tract three and a half miles northwest of the city. His land adjoins James P. Bates' land.

The General Electric flat iron we sell is the most economical, as it saves in consumption of current consumed, heats faster and holds heat longer. C. R. McLallin. 4014

The Deschutes Power Co. has taken down the old electric light wires on 6th street, and the appearance of the street is much improved. All the light and power wires of the company now run through alleys.

A letter received by The Spokesman from Ed Erickson, who is playing ball at Salt Lake, Utah, says he attended service Sunday at the Mormon Temple, and to hear the big organ "was great." Ed says he is getting into good condition and won his game last Wednesday. He orders The Spokesman sent to him so as to keep posted on ball games here and other happenings.

Why waste time and patience this summer by cooking over the old hot stove when you can get the new electric cooking appliances that are now on the market? See them at the Deschutes Power Co's. office. They will tell you all about them.

Some excellent feature films were shown at the Sparks Theater last Thursday night.

The Lewis Co. showed at Sparks Theater last Friday and Saturday nights. They put up a good vaudeville bill and were greeted with large houses.

A crew of railroad men are putting in the spur track at the Union warehouse this week. This track will greatly facilitate the business at the warehouse in loading for railroad shipments.

J. W. Brewer and W. T. Mullarky left the first of the week to attend the Grand Lodge meeting of the I. O. O. F. at Medford. They are delegates from the local lodge. Mrs. J. A. Wilcox left at the same time as a delegate from the Rebekah lodge of this city, to attend the Grand Lodge meeting of that order held in Medford.

If you want to see something neat drop into the Deschutes Power Co's. office and let them show you their new line of electric cooking appliances. 44tf

There will be a tennis game here Sunday forenoon between players from Bend and this city. Bend has some good players, and so has Redmond, and an interesting contest is anticipated.

The Redmond Farmers' Union is endeavoring to perfect plans for a "Bargain Day" here among the merchants on Saturday, June 14th, the date of the Union Picnic. As yet all the plans have not been worked out, but indications are that they will be satisfactorily arranged.

At a meeting held at Ehret's hall last Saturday by members of the Redmond Farmers' Union it was decided to hold a big Union Picnic in Redmond on Saturday, June 14.

Mrs. C. Buckingham, living in the eastern part of the city, had been losing some young chickens lately. The dead chickens were found bitten through the head. A trap was set and an animal caught. Mrs. Buckingham did not know what breed it was and, in the absence of her husband from the city, sent for Sam Snider, who lives near by. Sam wasn't positive as to the kind of animal. He got a long pole and poked the varmint—and then he knew. It was a skunk, and the smell in that part of town has been loud ever since.

The little Electric El Stovo stove is a wonder. It is much cheaper than wood, cleaner and quicker. The Deschutes Power Co. has them for sale. Call and see them. 44tf

The Redmond Union Warehouse Co. shipped out a carload of hogs Tuesday to Portland for farmers in this section. The carload will bring in between $1200 and $1500, all of which will be put into circulation in this vicinity.

J. F. Church of Montesano, Wn., is a recent arrival here to look over this section with a view to locating in the Redmond District.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. White of St. Paul, Minn., were in the city Tuesday. Mr. White is a capitalist and is interested in Oregon property. He intends to plat several townsites, three of which will be over the mountains. He owns the Hotel Oregon property at Prineville, and has other investments in Crook county. Both Mr. and Mrs. White were favorably impressed with Redmond and predicted a prosperous future for the city. Mr. White has, since 1877, established 41 townsites in different states west of Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. White expect to return to Redmond in a few weeks and may invest in property in this section as the outlook is pleasing to them.

Tuesday evening the Y. P. C. A. met at the Baptist church. Miss Doty presided. Perry Reedy made some remarks on his observations of the African race in the United States. Rev. F. Harvey spoke on the railway being constructed from the Cape to Cairo by the Cecil Rhodes legacy. The remainder of the program was devoted to music and literary work. The next meeting will be announced in the churches on Sunday.

High cost of living solved by the Electric El Grillos; boils, broils, toasts, fries, and will do all your breakfast cooking quick, clean and cheap. See them on display at office of Deschutes Power Co. 44tf

PATRIOTIC DAY

Next Sunday at the Presbyterian church sermon at 11 a. m. Topic: "America's Perils, Privileges and Duties." Evening at 8 o'clock. Topic: "America's Outlook and Responsibilities." Veterans of the civil and Phillipian wars and their wives and children are cordially invited. Appropriate music.
