Mrs. A. W. Bayne visited her daughter, Miss Gladys, in Prineville Friday.

The little farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday evening. The origin of the fire can only be surmised as the family was absent from the house when the fire was first discovered. A lamp, which was left burning, probably caused the blaze. Fortunately the loss was covered by insurance.

Mrs. Andrew Miller and family visited relatives in Prineville last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxen and daughter visited in Deschutes Sunday, the guests of friends. Mr. Wilcoxen went fishing while there and caught 28 fine trout.

Becoming frightened and breaking loose from a juniper tree to which they were tied the team belonging to Allan Laudfare completely demolished the two seated hack to which they were hitched, and otherwise caused consternation during the progress of religious services the Shepard school house Sunday. One of the horses received some slight wire cuts.

E. A. Bussett, wife and family autotied out from Prineville Friday for a few days' visit with relatives and friends in this section. They were accompanied by Alma Johnson and Viola Truesdale who visited home folks, returning to Prineville with the Bussetts Monday morning.

C. H. Fry, the Redmond real estate dealer, had a party of people sight seeing Sunday, and had the misfortune to cripple his auto about a mile out in the desert. He was obliged to walk back to civilization and borrow the necessary repairs before he could get the car in condition to proceed on his journey.

W. T. Bogart of St. Andrews, Wn. came in last Friday to look after his land in this section. He will remain a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilcoxen attended the Masonic ball and banquet in Redmond Friday evening.

Wm. Brown was a visitor at the county seat one day last week.

John Tenkman and J. L. Gibson left Monday for Laidlaw where they will do some work on the latter's place near that town.

CLINE FALLS

two ELECTROCUTED, ONE DIES

Accident Near Aurora Fatal to Section Man of Hubbard

Charles Ball, a section employe, was instantly killed at Aurora May 29th by electrocution from a telephone wire that had become entangled with the electric light wires carrying 6600 volts. Another section man named Dick was badly burned by the same wire.

Both men were residents of Hubbard. The accident occurred between Aurora and Barlow. The coronor's jury decided that Ball came to his death by coming in contact with a live electric light wire.
