THE LITTLE "WANT" AD.

A Business Ferret That Gets 25 Per Cent of the Market Results

The little "want" advertisement which has become so popular is a silent buyer, a silent seller and a silent purveyor of goods.

It possesses the double virtue of being cheap and profitable.

It brings labor to the unemployed and help to those who desire to employ.

It makes home for men and women.

It transfers property and in a general way is responsible for 25 per cent of the business transacted in the commercial world.

It fills empty houses and brings prosperity to the landlord.

It gives the poor working girl employment, it sets men up in business, it gets you an agent if you desire one, it gives you an opportunity to borrow money where the rate of interest is the lowest, it furnishes you a medium of exchange—it tells you, in fact, where to go, when to go, how to go to every place, everywhere, and secure something that you may want and to which no other medium ever devised would successfully direct you.

The Spokesman can help you with a "want" ad. Let us try.

Agricultural College: R. H. Crozier, A. G. P. A. of the Hill lines in Oregon; L. M. Foss, T. P. A. O-W. R. & N., and Phil Bates, representing C. C. Chapman of the Portland Commercial Club, the "Flying Squad" that is touring Central Oregon, were here for a short time Tuesday afternoon. J. W. Brewer, president of the Redmond Commercial Club, had charge of the party while in the city, and introduced the members to different business men here. The party went from here to Deschutes and on to Laidlaw where a meeting was held in the evening.

The Redmond Pharmacy has the agency here for the Portland Oregonian, where the paper can be had.

Mayor Hosch has one of the finest gardens in the city. He has a block of property and besides growing garden stuff is having good success with all kinds of small fruits.

All kinds of weeds are growing in profusion in different parts of the city in the streets and alleys. Cutting the weeds now before they go to seed would be a good plan.

J. D. Butler expects to soon move his Redmond Pharmacy into the building next door to his present location. Contractor Osborne has repaired the building from the effects of the recent fire, and it will be ready for occupancy about the first of the week.

Ladies' calling cards, latest style, at The Spokesman office.

C. A. Lucas, landlord of the Hotel Redmond, was foreman of the coroner's jury that held an inquest at Camp 6 on the Tumalo Project Tuesday on the body of the unidentified man who hung himself there Monday night.

While at Clear Lake this week Messrs. Dobson and Lynch caught a lot of nice salmon trout. They brot back some of the fish and presented their friends with enough for a good meal.

Make your advertising as interesting as your store—as full of opportunity news for shoppers as your store is full of buying opportunities for them—and store management will come to be a very interesting occupation for you.

Prineville Journal: Prineville was practically deserted on the 4th. Redmond got a big delegation. Every auto in town was pressed into service to attend the "Hub City" celebration.

Although no families registered with their twins under 12 years old on the 4th for the special prizes J. D. Butler advertised to give away, he gave four of the prizes, a box of Lowney's chocolates, to heads of families who called at his store and showed the twins.

Tim Lane and Bill Young and their wives returned Tuesday from their fishing trip to the head of the Metolius river. They report a royal good time, and plenty of fish.

Some of the merchants here had a big trade the 4th and 5th. Lynch & Roberts, whose advertisements in The Spokesman reach all over Crook county, report a large business on the above dates. Alfred Munz, whose advertising publicity reaches many miles, reports a $900 business in the two days. It has been demonstrated by these two live wire firms that Spokesman advertising publicity is what draws trade to their stores.

Olsen & Gant, contractors and builders of this city, began work Tuesday on a house on G. A. McFarlane's farm northwest of town.

Skunks are beginning to kill off chickens in the city. O. K. Olsen says that a skunk recently killed six of his fancy chickens. He caught the skunk later in a trap. Other chicken raisers in the city report losses of chickens by skunks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fuller, parents of Mrs. J. R. Roberts of this city, are expected to arrive here soon from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and make Redmond their home for a year at least. Mr. Fuller has been engaged in the farm implement business for many years in Iowa.

Last week in mentioning the decorated stores in the city on the 4th The Spokesman failed to mention the attractive decorations on the W. H. Hobbs, C. R. McLallin, Deschutes Power Co. and Johnson & Vaughn buildings, and the Sparks Theater. These places of business were decorated with artistically arranged festoons of bunting, and made beautiful at night with colored electric lights.
