LIDLAW

I. E. Wimer was injured Friday by the limb of a spruce tree he was chopping down. He bent the limb to chop it off, but it flew back and one

Oregon will be set in motion all over the world as a result of a visit to the state by Ralph R. Earle, representative Pathe's weekly, a motion picture record of events which is seen each week in picture houses throughout the United States and European countries by more than 29,999,999 people.
 It was with the cooperation of Louis W. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railway and William Hanley, of Burns, Oregon, that the motion picture man was enabled to secure some very remarkable views of Central Oregon agricultural and industrial scenes.
 Making the trip into Bend over the Oregon Trunk railroad, the Hill line that has opened up the great Central Oregon country, the motion picture man was taken to Burns, in Harney county, by automobile a distance of 150 miles. For a week the Pathe representative toured Harney county covering more than 1,000 miles by automobile to secure films that will show to the world the openings for homeseekers on the free government lands of Oregon.

 While a visitor on the Double O ranch, owned by Hanley, more than 2,999 head of cattle were rounded up for the pictures. Motion picture panoramas will show the extent of the great valleys of Central Oregon and the Blitzen canal, just completed by Hanley through the Blitzen valley. This big irrigation ditch, formed by the waters of the Blitzen river, drains more than 100,000 acres of land and is forty miles long. The pictures will show the hog and sheep industry, homeseekers coming into the country, the sage brush land before and after the arrival of the homeseeker and generally give a truthful picture of the opportunities and possibilities of Central Oregon.

 Louis W. Hill is one of the foremost of Northwest developers and believes in the motion picture to give wide-spread publicity to what Oregon has to offer to newcomers.
 The Pathe people have also secured a reel showing the scenery of the Deschutes canyon where the Hill lines expended an enormous sum of money to build the Oregon Trunk railroad into the Central part of the state. The pictures secured by the Pathe people are the first of the kind ever taken in Oregon and will be shown in the leading motion picture theaters all over the world.

of the needles penetrated his left eyeball, making a very painful injury. He went to Bend Saturday to visit a physician.
 There was a dance Saturday night given by some of the engineers and the town people. Everyone reported an enjoyable time.
 Sunday was the warmest day so far this year, and Sunday night was the warmest night.
 Several Laidlaw people were in Bend Saturday. Among them were J. C. Thorp, I. E. Wimer, F. V. Swisher, J. L. Couch, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dayton and Miss Dorothy Dayton.
 Dr. Newsom, who was located at Laidlaw about seven or eight years ago, was here last Thursday and Friday. The doctor is now located at Athena. He was through here on his way to the Metolius river on a fishing trip.
 A. F. Will of Aurora, was in this section last week. Mr. Will has some land here and was looking after his interests now that the completion of the irrigation project is assured.
 F. C. Merchant of Bend, was in Laidlaw buying pigs last week. He purchased some from C. C. Day and J. W. Brown.
 Word was received last Wednesday that McKinley Hasselberg, who formerly lived near Laidlaw, was drowned at Kelso, Wash. He was about fifteen years old. Mrs. F. V. Swisher, his sister, left Wednesday evening for Kelso.

 The latest engineer to arrive is David O'Hara, who came in last week.
 Mr. Martin, who has been staying with J. S. Richards, on the King place west of town, left for Portland Monday.
 The crops around Laidlaw are fine since the late warm weather.
 The second cutting of alfalfa is showing up well. Potatoes are growing well and have been used the earliest this year of any year for some time.
 The officials of the O-W. R. & N., who have been traveling through Central Oregon, passed through here Monday on their way to look over the Tumalo Project. From there they went to Bend.
 The Columbia Southern ditch broke out Thursday just above where the Bend-Sisters road crosses it. The break was about 175 feet long and had to be repaired by building a flume. Supt. Wallace had a crew of men working day and night to finish it. It was finished and the head gate tender instructed to turn down a small head in order to puddle the ditch around the upper end of the flume. The order was misunderstood and a full head turned in. The work had to be done over again and was finally finished Sunday. The lack of water did considerable damage because of the warm weather. Considerable grain, which had not been irrigated, was fired by the heat, which was 92 degrees on Sunday.

 A party was given Tuesday evening at the C. J. Mock home in honor of Miss Lenora Mock, who is home on a visit. The entertainment was a series of "stunts" by the guests, and everyone reported an enjoyable time. Miss Mock will leave in a short time.

HOOD RIVER SHIPPED
109 CARS OF BERRIES

The strawberry shipping season has come to a close in the Hood River Valley and the records of the Apple Growers' Association show that 109 car loads have left Hood River this season, which is the largest number of cars that have ever been shipped from that point. The berry crop was of extra fine quality this season and the crop was heavy. The Hood River berry had a clear market in the middle west states during the season, which has insured a good price.
 Twelve cars of cherries were shipped from Hood River this year which is also the largest tonnage of cherries ever shipped out. One firm in Chicago purchased six cars of Hood River fruit.
 "I never could understand why people dock their horse's tails," remarked Dubbleigh.
 "High cost of living," said Jorocks. "Got to dock something these times."

An Advertisement
Is a Challenge

By HOLLAND

The man who advertises is fearless. He courts the light. He dares all and sundry to put him to the test. "This is what I offer," he says in effect. "Can you beat it? Can you do better elsewhere? Make comparisons and then do business with me only if you find it is to your advantage. There is nothing hidden about the advertiser. He stands up for himself, for his goods, for his reputation, for his town. He wants everybody to know him, to know his methods of business and his manner of treating customers. This makes it safe to do business with him. Having spent much money making his name known, he cannot afford to have it tarnished, and he will go much more than halfway in an effort to correct a misunderstanding that is not of his making. He wants to tell more than the bare truth, to do more than what is really square.
