What Have You to Trade

For Payette and Emmett Bench, Idaho,
Alfalfa, Dairy and Fruit Lands?

On my recent trip to this country I looked over and listed a few tracts of this, the finest alfalfa, corn, dairy, hog and fruit land I have ever saw, and can trade these tracts for land here. I found they can grow

- 6 to 10 tons alfalfa to the acre.
- 75 bushels corn to the acre.
- 250 to 550 sacks potatoes to the acre.
- Melons of all kinds.
- Good markets for everything.
- Plenty of good water.
- Lots of red barns and white houses; everybody prosperous.

If you have anything to offer, see me and talk it over, or drop me a card and I will call.

PARCEL POST WILL BE CHEAPER AND PACKAGES BIGGER

TO CUT RATE FROM ONE CENT
FOR EACH ADDITIONAL POUND TO ONE CENT FOR TWO
POUNDS—20 LB. LIMIT FIXED

Reduction in parcel post rates within the first and second zones, and increases in the maximum weight of parcels and substitution of a new rate chart for the complicated present map was ordered by Postmaster General Burleson to take effect August 15.

The rate of postage in the first zone is reduced from 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound to 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional two pounds. The maximum weight of parcel post packages is increased from 11 to 20 pounds, but only in the first and second zones for the present. If this works out the maximum will be made 20 pounds everywhere.

In addition, the insurance rate, originally 10 cents, will be reduced to 5 cents on parcels up to the value of $25.

In announcing the proposed changes it was stated that the postmaster general expects the parcel post system to show substantial surplus earnings at the close of the present fiscal year.

ALL RAILWAYS TO SAFEGUARD THE PUBLIC AGAINST DISEASE

Aside from the customary disinfection of passenger coaches the medical department of the Great Northern railway has gone several steps farther in joining the country wide movement to safeguard public health. It has been the custom for several years to compel all applicants for positions on dining and sleeping cars to undergo the strictest physical examination before entering the employ of the Hill system. The latest order draws the order even finer, making it imperative that every employe who even takes a short leave of absence to undergo a physical examination by company physicians before returning to the service. In this way, the medical corps declares, it will be impossible for any employe to continue in the public service if he is suffering from tuberculosis or any other infectious disease. Further precaution is taken by the company in barring undesirable employes from employment where food is stored and linens or tableware are kept.

The Great Northern railway is one of the few systems that owns its own sleeping cars, and thus it is enabled to carry out the innovation advocated in the leading medical journals, of placing an absolute barrier against the spreading of disease, by having its medical corps guard every possible avenue of danger.

The American Medical Association, which convenes in Minneapolis this month, is expected to launch a far reaching public health campaign along these lines, urging every railway in the United States to join in the movement.

HOW TO MAKE A CAMP FIRELESS COOKER

What camper has not wished upon leaving camp for the day with the meat, beans and other slow cooking camp foods. Just coming to a boil, that he might return and find them done, and tender and hot, exactly right to be served? That very thing may be provided for by following this simple direction taken from "Camp Cookery", just off the press of the Extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College: "Use a box similar to one holding two five-gallon cans of oil, made stout with extra nails and as nearly air tight as possible with strips and nail a strip 3/4 inch thick and 2 inches wide around the inside even with the top. Line the bottom and sides with paste board, such as from a cracker box, and pack the bottom tight with excelsior. Place the vessel to be used in the center of the box and pack the excelsior as tight as possible around it, remove the vessel and line the opening with paste board, cutting a hole in the top strip to fit the vessel. Take a strong board for the lid and line it with packed excelsior covered with cloth. Or a pillow or cushion may be used under the lid, which is made as nearly air tight as possible. The top padding should be thick enough to make it difficult to close the lid, which is held down by hasp and hinges, or leather hinges with a boulder on top to weight it down." This little pamphlet may be obtained free of cost by addressing the Extension Division, O. A. C., Corvallis, Oregon.

CATTLE FOR FARMERS

I wish to announce that I am buying spring calves, yearling heifers and milch cows from the Willamette Valley to turn to farmers in Central Oregon, that they may be able to get the greatest good out of their hay and other products of the ranch through feeding, and have the feed yard fertilizer to build up the land that so badly needs feeding. Most of this stock will be Durhams and Durham grades, some Holstein and some Jerseys, and I will buy them at a price so all farmers can nearly get their money out of the milk cows in beefing them. These cattle will be good for either milking or stock cattle, and stock cattle will make you money through growth and breeding. I will exchange for fat hogs or fat cattle ready for market, and balance cash.

Now is a good time to buy and get into stock which you so badly need. Will deliver about Aug. 30th. Cows will be fresh September and fore part of winter, and nothing misrepresented. Send in your orders not later than August 1st.
