How to Build Up or Tear Down This Community

By J. O. LEWIS

The Home Merchant Has Earned Support.

WHY are communities, towns and cities? Have you ever asked yourself this question? Did you think they just happened, or had you ever thought that there was a special need for them? In the beginning of time—as far back as history takes us—we find that MEN HAVE Banded THEMSELVES TOGETHER FOR MANY AND OBVIOUS REASONS, chief among which are the benefits to be gained from organized society as a social, intellectual, spiritual and commercial center.

Collectively we are strong, forceful and aggressive and possess power and means to attain a growth which will give to us and our progeny opportunities for better living—to develop our moral, spiritual and intellectual life, the things for which we were created.

THEFORE THE SUCCESS AND HAPPINESS OF EVERY CITIZEN OF ANY COMMUNITY LIES IN THE INTEREST HE TAKES IN THAT COMMUNITY AND THE GOOD WORK HE CAN DO TO ASSIST IN ITS UPBUILDING.

Now, then, if we are to succeed as individuals and as a community we must not only strive for our own personal success and welfare, BUT MUST GIVE OF OUR WORK AND SUBSTANCE UNSELFISHLY TO HELP THE OTHERS.

Everything we do to help in the upbuilding and advancement of our city we do just that much toward our own personal success. No man can live and prosper unto himself alone, FOR WE ARE INTERDEPENDENT, and, realizing this, if we as citizens will all unite and pull together for the common good we will prosper as a city and consequently as individuals.

Well paved streets and sidewalks, good sewerage system, thoroughly enforced sanitary laws, well regulated and energetic police force, competent fire fighting equipment and rigid building regulations are economic necessities and therefore they more largely affect us as a community than as individuals. But beyond this and underlying it all and upon which rests the foundation of the whole is THE SUCCESS OF THE BUSINESS MAN. This man makes an investment, goes into some kind of business—to manufacture or sell goods—puts his money at stake, employs labor and begins his work to build better. THIS MAN IS THE CORNERSTONE OF THE COMMUNITY—the man you should rally around and support.

THE SUCCESS OF A TOWN DEPENDS ON THE SUCCESS OF ITS BUSINESS MEN, WHILE THE SUCCESS OF THE BUSINESS MEN DEPENDS ON SUPPORT THEY RECEIVE FROM THE PEOPLE AT LARGE, EACH BEING, HOWEVER, DEPENDENT ONE ON THE OTHER.

No merchant can succeed without the patronage of the public. He is absolutely and entirely dependent on the custom of each and every individual who has a penny to spend, the little mite of each, taken in the aggregate, making the volume on which he runs his business. The merchant, having plenty of competition, must, in order to get the people's patronage, figure his prices close and offer to them the very best inducements possible.

The merchant pays large rentals, taxes, privilege licenses, insurance, besides employing many clerks and assistants, in order to maintain and conduct his business in such a manner as to meet your approval, and to succeed let me emphasize it again—HE MUST HAVE YOUR PATRONAGE TO MAKE HIS BUSINESS PAY.

This community has some as fine stores—every kind—and conducted by as fine a set of men as you will find anywhere on the face of the globe—liberal, big hearted, progressive men. No better retail stores, no better wholesale or jobbing houses, no better banks, no better mills, no better schools, no better churches, no better municipal or public utilities, can be found anywhere than right here in your home town, all—absolutely all—made possible only by and through the co-operation and generous giving of the business men.

But, my good friends, with all of these extraordinary accomplishments, there are some things being done today which are STUMBLING BLOCKS IN THE PATH OF OUR GREATER GROWTH and further development—differences, if you please, which we must reconcile and overcome if we are to continue to grow and prosper.

To be continued under the title, "HELP YOURSELF BY HELPING YOUR TOWN."

RED COAT PROPOSED FOR ALL HUNTSMEN

GAME WARDEN WOULD HAVE HUNTERS CONSPICUOUS IN THE WOODS.

Scarlet coats will be worn by all Oregon hunters in future as a precaution against accidental shooting. If the recommendations of William L. Finley, state game warden, are carried out.

This novel raiment goes the ordinary hunters' "pink" of the horse shows one better. It prescribes a red shirt, red top coat and even includes a scarlatina cap. In this outfit there will be slight danger of a hunter being mistaken for a deer, says Warden Finley.

Boy Scout tactics will also be introduced for the benefit of the hunter. Warden Finley will, with his deputies, arrange a system of gun signals which will tell anyone within miles just what the trouble is in case a hunter is injured.

In keeping with the idea of bringing the fish and game laws closer to the people, the game office will soon start the issue of a weekly bulletin, which will be out early enough in the week to enable the angler to plan his Sunday outing with assurance of getting a full basket.

"Another thing of which we would like to caution the hunters in anticipation of the opening of the season, is the rule for the protection of the female deer," said Mr. Finley. "This is a good rule for several reasons, besides the perpetuation of the deer. It is one of the precautions against the killing of hunters. If a man is careful to see whether a deer has horns, he will discover in time whether it is really a deer or a man.

Hunting parties are also warned to observe the several changes in the laws which the last session of the legislature framed. The limit has been changed from five to three. The hunter must also be supplied with deer tags before he starts for the woods.

"Upon killing a deer, one of the tags must be tied to the carcass immediately. Each license carries with it three of the tags, and as these cannot be renewed, a hunter will be considered as having overshot the limit if he is found with a deer not properly tagged."

The licenses which were issued before June 30 do not have the deer tags attached, but all county clerks have been supplied with them and on presentation of the hunting permit the tags will be issued.

The law still provides that it shall be unlawful for anyone to kill deer without horns. This is for the protection of the doe and the fawn. This will also protect the cattle, the killing of which has made the deer hunter somewhat of a pest with the farmers.

Customer—I see you have fresh eggs at 35 cents and extra fresh eggs at 40 cents. Is there much difference?

Grocer—Well, Ma'am, the extra fresh ones were laid in the early morning when the hens themselves were fresh.
