How to Build Up or Tear Down This Community

By J. O. LEWIS

Help Yourself by Helping Your Town.

THE attitude you maintain toward your home town—its business men and its institutions—is reflected in the success or failure of the same. The success and happiness of every citizen in any community lies in the interest he takes in that community and the good work he can do to assist in its upbuilding. EVERYTHING YOU DO TO HELP IN THE ADVANCEMENT OF YOUR OWN COMMUNITY YOU DO JUST THAT MUCH TOWARD YOUR OWN PERSONAL SUCCESS. No man can live and prosper unto himself alone, for you are interdependent, and, realizing this, as good citizens, you should unite and pull together for the common good, and, doing this, you will prosper as a community and as individuals.

NO TOWN CAN STAND STILL. IT MUST EITHER GO FORWARD OR DECLINE, AND IT IS UP TO YOU TO SAY WHICH IT WILL BE.

Some towns hustle and grow—that is, the people hustle and the town grows. They get the habit of boasting until every citizen becomes a booster, and pretty soon its reputation spreads and it becomes known far and wide as a good town, while others lapse into a state of innocuous desuetude—an easy rock along manner—that soon classes that particular place as a dead one.

If you are knocking and complaining stop it. Nothing hurts a town more. If you cannot say something good don't say anything, and, above all, don't knock. If you are not a booster become one.

The success of the retail merchant depends on the patronage of his home people, the home jobber is largely dependent on the patronage of his home retailer, the banks are dependent likewise on the success of all, while the success and happiness of the people depend on the success of the business men.

Now, one of the greatest injuries you can do your home town or community—to the business men who are dependent on your patronage—is to order your goods from mail order houses or patronize merchants in other towns. Every dime sent from your community to a mail order house is removed entirely from local circulation. Its principal and interest are both gone, whereas the money spent with the home merchant goes immediately into circulation and in due course comes back to you.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY ARE BEING SENT TO MAIL ORDER HOUSES FROM THIS COMMUNITY, THUS DEPRIVING HOME MERCHANTS OF THEIR RIGHTFUL PATRONAGE.

And yet, no matter how much the home merchant is dependent on the patronage of his home people, he is supposed to give and to aid in every work undertaken for the material betterment of the town, and he does, being often coerced into giving by the demands of his customers, fearing to offend them because of the fear of loss of their patronage.

UNLIKE YOUR HOME MERCHANT, MAIL ORDER HOUSES PAY NO TAXES OR PRIVILEGE LICENSE TO DO BUSINESS IN YOUR COMMUNITY. NEITHER DO THEY CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR CHURCHES, SCHOOLS, PUBLIC ROADS, CHARITIES OR ANYTHING ELSE, AND, ABOVE ALL, THEY GIVE NO EMPLOYMENT TO ANY ONE IN YOUR FAMILY OR HOME TOWN.

You want your schools kept up, your churches supported, your streets kept in repair, your town properly policed and protected by a good fire fighting equipment, etc. In other words, you want your town to prosper, be well run and the people to be happy and contented. YET IF YOU ARE SENDING YOUR MONEY TO OTHER INSTITUTIONS IN OTHER CITIES AND TOWNS YOU ARE DEFEATING THE VERY OBJECT FOR WHICH YOU STRIVE.

Now, this town building is a serious matter—a great big proposition—and if you are not treating it—its business men—fairly you are not treating your self fairly. You are undermining the very foundation of your well being.

To be continued under the title "THE FARMER AND THE MERCHANT."

LAIDLAW

August 11.

George Brewster, county water master, was in Laidlaw several days last week on official business, in connection with the Wimer ditch out on the reservoir site.

Harry Heising was over from the Metolius on a visit several days last week.

The teachers for the Laidlaw school have been hired for the next year. The principal is to be E. J. Thompson of Quincy, Ore., and the primary teacher is Miss Grace Polk of Terrebonne. Miss Polk taught near La Pine last year.

Mrs. Albert Harper, Mrs. William Brown and Miss Hazel Brown were in Bend last Friday.

F. C. Merchant and N. S. Brown of Bend were in Laidlaw last Thursday. H. C. Misel of Deschutes was in Laidlaw on business Saturday.

Rev. A. O. Walker preached at Laidlaw as usual Sunday, both morning and evening. The next services will be August 24. The Sunday school, it is hoped, will be established by that time.

Next Sunday at 10 a. m. a meeting will be held to organize a Sunday school and elect officers. The Sunday school work was dropped last spring because the attendance had dropped to almost nothing, but now that there are many more people here there should be a good attendance every Sunday.

Last Monday was the fifth birthday of Eileen Wallace, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Wallace. In the afternoon 14 of the little folks of Laidlaw were present at a party given to celebrate the occasion. Ada Bullard and Ruth Ross helped with the entertainment of the guests. Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, angel food, etc.

The "Q. A. F." club met with Mrs. A. S. Nicol last Wednesday. The answer to roll call was "Current Events." After the program, refreshments were served. The club meets this week with Mrs. Ella Hansen and the roll call will be "Humorous Stories."

Miss Nichols and father, "Uncle Frank" Nichols, spent last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. George Couch.

The Rogers boys have just finished harvesting a fine crop on the Bandle place, east of town.

Uncle Frank Nichols is enjoying the fishing at the Heising Ranch, on the Metolius, for a short time.

"Doc" Reeves, who is tending the headgate this year, was down Monday laying in a stock of provisions. Jay Nichols, Roy Payne, Blake Becker and W. P. Thorp made a

Col. Thatcher were V. A. Forbes, C. S. Hudson and G. P. Putnam. Mr. Bosell of the Bend Milling & Warehouse Co., was in Laidlaw on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Day were Redmond visitors Monday. Mrs. Day is quite ill and decided to remain in Redmond under the care of Mrs. Fry for a time, or until in better health.

The body of Ralph Lunbeck was found Friday morning near where he was drowned, in the Deschutes river at Bend.

C. P. Becker returned Tuesday from Prineville, where he has been working in the assessor's office.
