LIDLAW

A. J. Harter, wife and mother, and Miss Hazel Brown made a trip out in the Sisters' neighborhood Sunday.

Emil Anderson was in town on business Monday.

E. H. Ballah and Mrs. T. Pearce were in Bend on business Tuesday.

Mrs. C. C. Day, who has been in the hospital at Redmond for the past week, has returned home much improved in health.

The Bend Milling & Warehouse Co. have their mill in Bend newly painted and illustrations of their different brands of flour on the front. They started work Tuesday on a new elevator adjoining the mill.

D. M. Smith reports that he recently cut a field of clover on his place containing six acres and the yield was 35 large loads. He estimates that this was about 30 tons.

B. C. Cady, W. N. Ray and A. J.

Fiala went on a little hunting trip Tuesday. They left Monday evening and expected to get in a full day in the woods about the headgate.

Charles Boyd of the Palace meat market of Bend, received the contract to furnish the meat for the project. He is now running a wagon to Laidlaw for the accommodation of those in town. See his ad. in this issue.

Mr. Hoag, who lives on the Harter place northwest of town, had a leg broken last Friday. He was riding a wild horse that fell on him and crushed his leg badly.

The lawn social at Deschutes Saturday night was quite a success. Japanese lanterns were tastefully arranged about the Howard lawn and the refreshments were served there. The entertainment consisted of games, music and singing. Several people from Laidlaw were present.

Mrs. C. F. Chaffin of Plainview was in town Monday on business.

The Laidlaw delegation to the Klamath Development League met left Monday noon. The party consisted of J. N. B. Gerking, W. D. Barnes, R. H. Bayley and they were driven down by Mr. Saylor. They expected to go only a part of the way Monday and finish the trip Tuesday.

George Fisher went to Portland

Saturday night on business. He returned Tuesday.

J. R. Benham left for Portland business Saturday night. He expected to return in a few days.

J. B. Saylor, a son-in-law of J. B. Gerking, arrived here on Pendleton Friday. He drove all the way through and says that he found some of the roads in very bad condition on account of the rains last week.
