Redmond and Vicinity

Has Order for Potatoes— I. L. Harader, a former farmer of this section, returned here Saturday night to take back the farm he recently sold to a man named McPherson, who is now in the penitentiary, and who failed to make the payments on the place. Mr. Harader stated he had an order from a Dunsmuir, Cal., firm for a carload of Redmond potatoes at $1.50 per 100 pounds. Mr. Harader said he could work up a good potato trade in California for spuds from this section.

Wants Library Books— A reader of The Spokesman has handed in the following: "The readers of the books at the public library are grateful for the kind attendance of those ladies who in the past acted as clerks in changing books on Saturdays, and it is hoped, now that the vacation season is over, opportunities for changing will be resumed."

Outlook Man Here— Ralph Mason of Outlook, Wn., was here a couple of days last week looking at land in and around Redmond. He visited one night with Rev. W. E. Ragan and family, he being a member of Rev. Ragan's former church at Outlook.

Comes Long Way to Trade— William Sturdevant, who lives near Alfalfa, southwest of this city, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Sturdevant and son, Fred, have 640 acres of homestead land and are getting along well. They came to this section last spring and have nothing but good words to say about this part of Central Oregon. They are both practical farmers and are making good.

Found Indian Spear Head— Fred Sturdevant of Alfalfa, recently found an Indian spear head seven inches long near Powell Butte station. This is probably a relic of the days when Indians infested all this part of the county.

G. W. Davies, the wood and iron worker of this city, is doing a good business in making furniture to order. Mr. Davies has a complete wood and iron working outfit of machinery at his plant and can handle anything in the above line.

The Redmond Bank of Commerce will furnish money to farmers to buy cattle or sheep for feeders. 71f

Brought in Watermelons—

Tom Vedder, who has a nice farm in the Terrebonne section, brought two nice watermelons to The Spokesman office last week that he had raised on his place. Mr. Vedder stated that his crops this year were satisfactory all around.

Another School Room—

Carpenters are busy this week finishing off another room at the High School building here. The increased attendance and lack of space for the different classes has made it necessary to have the new room this term.

The Tumalo Project can use more help on their work near Laidlaw. Wages are from $2.40 to $2.80 per day—eight hours—depending on the character of the work performed. Report at Laidlaw office.—Adv.1211

Fall Styles This Fall Are Most Attractive Ladies' Coats, Suits and Hats Misses' and Children's Coats and Hats Children's School Dresses

Ladies' Suits and Coats The extraordinary change in styles this season make the new coats and suits most attractive. The designs are very becoming and easily worn. The manufacturers have kept pace with the times and have put out so many new weaves in the coat and suit fabrics that the selection of an entirely new garment is made very easy. The corset factories have also joined with the style makers and are now turning out corsets to suit the new styles of dresses. Our lines of these goods are very choice. Call and see them.

Trimmed Hats Our trimmed hats are selected from Portland's largest wholesale houses, who employ the best talent they can get to design and trim hats for them. They have all the natural advantages a trimmer can have and can turn out first-class hats at a reasonable cost. The extraordinary large stocks of trimming material carried by these wholesale houses gives the trimmer exceptional advantages, so no two hats are made alike. Come in and see our stock.

needed very much to lay the dust, which was becoming bothersome on the roads.

Folks Feeling Better— I. L. Harader, who recently moved from a farm near Redmond to Lake county, Cal., was in the city this week. He said the health of both his wife and daughter, Bessie, was much improved since leaving here and locating in California—the altitude here was too high for them, he said, though his health while here was of the best.

Junipers Meet Again— The Juniper Reading Circle held their first meeting of the new season at the home of Mrs. W. H. Anderson on September 17. As this was the first meeting of the year, no definite program was carried out. A meeting was held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. De Souza. The subject for discussion was "Current Events."

Increasing Wages— The Spokesman has been informed by Chief Engineer Lauegaard of the Tumalo Project that wages are being increased 20 cents per day all along the line on the project, effective September 20.

Anything in the line of kodak supplies or Eastman kodaks can be bought at the Redmond Pharmacy. When you buy an Eastman you know you are getting the best. 71f Bought Pool Hall— C. A. Beckwith this week bought the pool hall on Sixth street next to the Redmond Pharmacy.

Had Trial Fire Run— Last Saturday morning about 8 o'clock an alarm was sounded on the new fire bell to see how far-reaching the sound was, and also to ascertain how many firemen would respond to the alarm. The firemen got quick action and a record run was made from the fire house on the corner of Sixth and E streets to the corner of Sixth and C streets. The alarm siren brought out the people and firemen.

Prineville Men Here— S. R. Cooper, manager of the Pioneer Creamery at Prineville, and F. E. Brosius of the same city, were here Monday on their way home from Portland where they had been on a business trip. Both gentlemen made a pleasant call at The Spokesman office while waiting for their auto to take them to the county seat.

Preached at Terrebonne— Rev. W. E. Ragan preached last Sunday morning and evening at Terrebonne and was met by a fair sized congregation at both sessions.

Goes to State Fair— G. A. Bradley, the well known breeder of Duroc Jersey hogs, who has a farm adjoining the city, went to the county fair at Prineville the first of the week, and from there will go to the State Fair at Salem.

New Fire Alarm Bell— A new fire alarm bell was put in position in the rear of the fire houses last week. The bell has a loud brazen sound which carries a long distance, and now there will be no excuse for firemen or others not hearing an alarm of fire at night, unless they sleep as hard as iron.

Weather Was Warm— H. Baukol, station agent here for the Oregon Trunk and O.-W. R. & N. railroads, arrived with his wife and child Sunday morning from a two months' vacation trip to Starbuck, Minn., his old home, and other points. Mr. Baukol said the weather in Minnesota while he was there was extremely hot, the thermometer going to 110 in the shade; that all harvesting work had to cease during the torrid spell, the farm laborers laying around in the shade trying to keep cool. Mr. Baukol stated he was now more fully convinced than ever that the Redmond country could not be beat for climate, and that this section was plenty good enough for him.

Number at Tennis Game— A number of Redmond people, tennis players and others, went to Bend Sunday to witness the tennis games played there in the Crook County Tennis Tournament.

Raise Good Melons— The Sisters Herald says that as good melons as can be grown anywhere in the south have been produced by Ed Graham at his Grandview farm, some of them weighing from 20 to 30 pounds each.

Few Complaints Filed— Only six complaints were filed with the County Board of Equalization up to last Saturday, says the Prineville Journal. As this was the last day for filing, no more can be taken up. The kicks received were on lots in towns that had no existence except on paper.

Many to Prineville— About 20 auto loads of Redmond people left today for the county fair at Prineville. Besides the above, many people from here and the surrounding country will go in carriages and privately owned autos. Today is "Redmond Day" at the fair and this city will make a good showing.

Heavy Mail Received— The Redmond postoffice daily receives a heavy mail for Prineville and other points in the interior off the line of the railroad. Some days there is such an abundance of mail that the stage is completely loaded with it to the exclusion of passengers or freight.
