PROF. THOMAS SHAW TO VISIT CENTRAL OREGON

RAILROADS SELECT MAN TO INSTRUCT IN DRY FARMING

Agricultural Expert Will Find Out the Needs of Farmers in the Dry Belt

Professor Thomas Shaw has been employed by the Spokane, Portland & Seattle, the Oregon Electric, and the Oregon Trunk railroads to make a trip through Central Oregon to give instruction in dry farming methods, dairying, diversification of crops and general agricultural topics to the farmers at county fairs from September 24 to October 2.

Professor Shaw has been associated with the Great Northern railroad for some time as agricultural expert. He has made previous trips through Oregon. His itinerary, so far as arranged, includes lectures at Prineville at the Crook County Fair, September 25; at Riley the following day; next day at Burns; at Narrows September 28; at Catalo and Wild Horse on the 29th; at Alberson, Princeton and Harriman September 3; at Lawen, Harney and Drewsey October 1, and at Juntura on the 2d.

Before he starts out on the trip, which will be made for the most part by automobile, Professor Shaw will confer with the experts at the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis a day or two on the particular needs of Central Oregon. He will be accompanied by Professor Hiram T. French of the Oregon Agricultural College and by representatives of the Hill lines.

Redmond and Vicinity

Second Crop of Berries—
Gant & Olson, at their market garden on North Sixth street, have grown a second crop of Clark Seedling strawberries this year. The berries ripened last week and were of large size and good quality.

Raised Fine Celery—
Specimens of fine quality celery have been exhibited that was grown by Gant and Olson of this city in their market gardens. The celery is pronounced to be as good as any grown in the state.

Moving Building—
F. W. McCaffery this week moved the building occupied by himself as a real estate office, and Burdick & Murphy as a law office, to lots opposite the former location on Sixth street which he and J. W. Moore own.

Died in California—
News was brought to this city by I. L. Harader, who arrived in the city last Saturday, that Lloyd Harader's wife died last week at her home in Lake county, Cal. She was sick but a short time.

PERSONAL

J. P. Sparks of Heppner, who has a string of theaters in that section, was here last week and visited with Mrs. A. B. Sparks of this city.

J. B. Fryrear has gone to visit his daughter, who is ill at Salem.

Victor Langewell of Portland, was here this week on a business trip.

Richard Coe of Sisters, was in town Monday on his way to Seattle to visit his sick daughter.

Martin Greeley of Terrebonne, was in town Monday and reported crops good on his farm.

Miss Mildred Whitney returned this week from an extended visit in the Willamette valley.

George Webber and wife left Tuesday night for California, where they

CROP REPORTS WANTED BY THE SPOKESMAN

The Spokesman is desirous of securing crop reports from all sections tributary to Redmond. Nothing speaks better for Redmond and the agricultural districts in this section of Central Oregon than the reports of actual crop yields. The Spokesman is anxious to secure these reports from all localities for publication, and therefore requests every farmer to clip out the "Crop Report" blank published elsewhere in this issue, fill it in properly, and bring or mail same to this office, where it will be given prominence among the resources of this section of the state.

will remain during the fall and winter months. They expect to return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Penland of Sisters, were in Redmond yesterday trading with the merchants.

BAKER AUTO PARTY WAS HERE LAST WEEK FRIDAY

C. Coleman, W. Warner and H. Osborn of Baker City, who are making an auto trip from that city to Klamath Falls and thence to Portland, were in Redmond last Friday and stopped over night at the Hotel Redmond. The party came through La Grande, Pendleton, Pilot Rock, Heppner, Condon, Fossil, Antelope, Madras and to Redmond. The party left for Klamath via Bend and will make the towns along the line, including a side trip to Crater lake. From there they will go to Medford and Ashland and up the Willamette valley to Portland. Mr. Coleman stated the roads were very bad from Pilot Rock to Heppner, but from there to Redmond they found good roads all the way.

BEND WOMAN KILLS MAN SHE SAYS ATTACKED HER

Tomo Scalparo, an Italian truck gardener, living two miles southeast of Bend, was shot and instantly killed Saturday by Mrs. Peter Rizzi, when he tried to force his attentions on her. A coroner's jury acquitted Mrs. Rizzi of all blame for the shooting.

Scalparo drove into the Rizzi yard about noon and asked Mrs. Rizzi if her husband was at home. On learning that he was not he came into the house and attacked her. Mrs. Rizzi repulsed him and seizing a shotgun told him to leave or she would shoot. Scalparo laughed and approached her again, whereupon she shot him and ran to a neighbor. On her husband's return soon after he found the body in the kitchen and coroner Poindexter was summoned from Prineville and an inquest was held resulting in Mrs. Rizzi's discharge.

Mrs. Rizzi is 26 years old and has one child.

YOUNGSTER AT BEND IS BURNED WITH POWDER

While amusing himself Sunday afternoon by setting off powder in five-gallon gasoline cans, Roy Whitson, a youngster at Bend, was badly burned about the face. He will probably be disfigured for life. Whitson had set off several cans with success and had apparently become careless firing the explosives. The powder flared up in his face and he received severe burns. His eyes were not injured.

"I am seeking the light," announced the Pilgrim.

"Well," replied the drug store clerk, "we carry anti-fat and peroxide."

ANOTHER BIG YIELD OF OATS ON SIX ACRES

H. C. Miethe, who has a four miles north of Bend, threshed 440 bushels of oats grown on six acres of his place. This is an average of 73 bushels to the acre. Oats, bushel per acre of seed sown in the spring as a crop for alfalfa, and an excellent stand of this grass was cured. The ground was fertilized, but was plowed in spring before.

OREGON TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT EASTERN LAND SHOW

Oregon will be represented at Chicago Land Show, which is held in that city this year from November 29 to December 8, a complete exhibit displaying the industries and agricultural resources of Oregon. Arrangements have been made for a space of 400 square feet where lectures will be given. The exhibit will be in charge of state immigration agent. The gathering exhibits to send a land show is already under way. Communities desiring to exhibit products are urged to connect with the state immigration agent, in order that arrangements be made to assemble the display in advance of the opening of the show. That this will be a great medium for such communication evident through the number of inquiries that have been received from land show exhibits as have been exhibited before. Such products, grains, grasses and diversified crops always prove to be an attraction such shows.
