Did you ever consider buying tires on any other basis than that of price?

Do you put forth the same caution in buying them as you do in buying clothes?

We feel the same responsibility in selling tires that a clothier does in the goods he sells.

A BUSINESS FIRM THAT DOES THINGS

The firm of Lynch & Roberts of this city, who conduct the largest general merchandise business in Central Oregon, has just issued a 16-page price list of goods they have for sale in the different departments of their large store. The price list is intended for distribution in the territory tributary to Redmond and in other parts of Crook county, and it is expected that the publication will bring a good patronage to the above firm from people who are wise and economical buyers and wish to save money.

Messrs. Lynch & Roberts have priced their goods in the list at such a figure that it will pay the people who have been patronizing mail order houses to come to Redmond to trade with the above firm or send in their mail orders to them, where they will be promptly taken care of.

Already Lynch & Roberts have worked up a nice mercantile business in all parts of Crook county. In some instances as far as the extreme eastern edge of the county, over 100 miles distant, and this new move of theirs in getting in closer touch with buyers will undoubtedly materially extend their trade in all lines.

Since commencing business here, January, 1910, this firm has, by progressive methods, selling good goods at the right prices and extending all the courtesies consistent with good business principles, built up a large trade, until today, as stated above, they have the largest general merchandise store in Central Oregon.

It is such business men as these who make towns and cities. They advertise what they have to offer, get in touch with the buying public, get the buyers to their store, and in this way bring in outside money and help the town in which they are located in more ways than one. Every buyer who comes to Redmond to trade, whether with Lynch & Roberts or with some other business man who has attracted them here by their publicity, helps all the people in the city indirectly, for each person in business here benefits to some extent from the money that is left here for goods.

If Redmond had a few more public spirited merchants like Lynch & Roberts the city would be greatly benefited.

LOVE THY TEACHER AS THYSELF

The following article has been handed in for publication, and as The Spokesman is heartily in accord with the sentiments expressed therein the same is given space in this issue:

"It has often occurred to us that children would get on so much better at school if parents would only cultivate the friendship of the teacher more and win her confidence. We are quite sure that if mothers would let the teachers see that they have an interest in them and the children, too, it would stimulate the teachers and their pupils. It stands to reason that if the teacher knows that the parents are co-operating with her the efforts which she puts forth are more likely to result in greater progress being made by the children. There is no need whatever to make a great friend of the teacher, but it would certainly help matters a great deal if, say, the teachers were asked to come and take tea at a definite time, or spend a certain evening with the children and parents. Such little matters are worth thinking about and we feel convinced that mothers who try what we have suggested will be pleased with the results. This was not written at the suggestion of any teacher, either."

Shows Here Last Week—

Last week two different vaudeville companies showed at the Sparks Theater and drew fair sized audiences. One show had four people in the party and the other one consisted of two performers. The larger party traveled in their own automobile. Both shows put up very good performances.

Keep It Going—

Keep your "Situation Wanted" or "For Sale" ad in EVERY ISSUE of this paper until you get the desired results. The person for whom you are seeking is going to see the ad and get in touch with you. The Spokesman classified ads will serve you cheaply and effectively.

Gone to The Dalles—

R. P. Scheurer of this city left for The Dalles this week with two of his automobiles to carry passengers from that city to the fair grounds, a distance of about a mile. The Wasco county fair commenced yesterday and will continue during the balance of the week.

Harvesting His Crop—

J. P. Doherty of this city, who has a fine farm in the Powell Butte district, went out there the first of the week to harvest his crop. He said he had engaged several men to do the harvesting, but they all threw him down on the job, so he concluded to do the work himself.

Took First Prize—

Maxwell Butler, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sherwood, took first prize in his class at the eugenic contest at the Yakima State Fair.

Preaching Services—

There will be preaching at the Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Subject for morning, "As a Man Thinketh." Topic for evening will be announced at the morning service. W. E. Ragan, pastor.

Attended Fair—

J. W. Brewer, M. A. Lynch and R. C. Immele were among the Redmond people who attended the fair at Laidlaw last Thursday. They all speak in high terms of the fine exhibit made.

Anniversary of The Sparks—

The Sparks Theater will be one year old Friday, October 10, and to commemorate the event will give a free matinee to all children at 2 o'clock on the above date. The Anniversary Dance has been postponed on account of the coming Potato Show and Fair.

Services at Powell Butte—

Rev. W. E. Ragan, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, will preach at Shepard school house at Powell Butte next Sunday afternoon.

FEATURE FILMS ARE TO BE SHOWN AT SPARKS THEATER

Tonight (Thursday) and Friday night will be "feature" nights at the Sparks Theater and five interesting pictures will be shown as follows:

"It Is Never Too Late to Mend," in two reels.
"College Chaperone."
"Children of Japan."
"Building Pontoon Bridges."
"Native Industries."

SPECIAL PRIZES WON AT FAIR

on any one breed in the cattle department.

Oliver Powell of Prineville won the $50 cash prize offered by the Pioneer Cream Company for the best three dairy cows from herd of five or more, to be judged from milking points.

W. S. Ayers of Prineville won the $25 cash prize offered by the Pioneer Cream Company for the best display of dairy products from five or more cows.

There were no contestants for the $25 cash prize offered by the Pioneer Cream Company for a two days' milk test, nor for the $75 De Laval cream separator milk test. Some farmer is out a cool $100 right here on this dairy proposition.

The Powell Butte Mustards are hot stuff. This time S. D. copped the ten-spot offered by the Prineville Flouring Mills for the best bushel of Bluestem wheat from a field of not less than five acres.

J. E. Whistler of Prineville won the $20 corn planter offered by the Parlin & Orendorff Implement Company of Canton, Ill., for the best bushel of corn from a field of not less than one acre.

Jack Summers of Prineville won the Oregon & Western Colonization Co.'s prize of a $65 McCormick mower for the best collection of grains and grasses.

Here is W. G. Mustard of Powell Butte again. This time he nails a ticket to the Lyric Theater for three months for having the largest pumpkin on exhibition.

Mrs. Robert E. Gray of Prineville can eat candy for the next six months by winning the prize offered by Hugh Lakin for the most beautifully arranged bouquet.

Warren, Dickson & McDowell of Prineville won the Northern Pacific Railway silver cup for the best exhibit of six mutton sheep wethers.

Mrs. William Horsell of Prineville won the French Drug Company's prize of $10 cash for the best display of bread.

W. G. Mustard of Powell Butte won the Haner Abstract Company's prize of $10 for the best collection of grains in a heap.

Mrs. W. S. Ayers of Prineville won the J. A. Folger & Co. prize for the best display of fruit in jars.

The Bonnyview Stock Farm of Post won the Great Northern Railway's silver cup for the best pen of hogs.

Johnson—Look here, you've been in there half an hour and never said a word.

The Man in the Telephone Booth—I am speaking with my wife, sir.

Fay—The Widow Dashaway's husband didn't leave her much when he died, did he?

Ray—No, but he left her pretty often when he was alive.

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.

ORGANIZES AN ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

We have recently organized, in connection with the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., an engineering department. It is the purpose of the department to aid in all questions along the building line that may arise.

Mr. Harold E. Crawford, a graduate architectural engineer, will be associated with the department and it is hoped that in the future we shall be able to render a real service whenever possible.

For prospective builders who are unable to get local architects to aid them in their problems, this department will submit sketches and will endeavor to advise in regard to the best methods of proceeding. For special jobs where such local service is not available, this department will furnish plans and brief specifications to our customers, special instances superintendence during course of construction, whenever possible, may be furnished through this department.

In regard to the "Plan Books," copies of which we are sending you, this department will be able to give plans and specifications for any design therein and for any changes that may be desired in the designs. Estimates of the cost, the lumber bills, and bill of materials will be furnished for each design. This book, by the way, is the Plan Book of the day and has in it a great many practical plans fully described, also a number of excellent barn plans.

It is not our purpose, by organizing this department, to compete with local architects and contractors in the designing of local buildings, rather it is thought that we shall be able to aid customers who are not able to get such local men to serve them in this way, are endeavoring to improve our facilities in rendering efficient service to our customers.

Trusting that we may be of service to you in the future, the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company, Yours very truly,
