

Society Directory

Redmond Lodge No. 110, K. P. Meets every Monday night in Dan's Hall. Visiting Knights are daily invited.

B. A. Kendall, C. C. W. E. Young, K. of R. & S. B. Hill A. W. Sims

CROOK COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY (Incorporated) Successor to J. H. Haner Abstract Company Prineville, Oregon

THE SPARKS THEATER, THE HOME OF MOVING PICTURES

Changes of Pictures SATURDAY, SUNDAY, TUESDAY and THURSDAY. A First Class Show House. Mrs. A. B. Sparks, Prop'r.

RAILROAD TIME CARD Oregon Trunk—Daily Train arrives from north... 7:23 a.m.

Telephone Hours Daily, except Sunday, 6 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Postoffice Hours Daily, except Sunday, 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

CLASSIFIED COLUMN Advertisements published under this head at one cent a word for each insertion.

FOR SALE Three-horse air cooled gasoline engine with magneto will be sold reasonable.

Jersey cows, helpers and calves for sale; also two thoroughbred O. L. C. boars. Wm. Ogg, Redmond, Ore. 11tf

MISCELLANEOUS Spokesman Classified ads bring results—try them—don't cost much.

LOOK! We own some of the finest improved farms in Minnesota, Wisconsin and North Dakota that we can sell on crop payments.

Notice for Publication Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, September 25, 1913.

BABBIT METAL The Spokesman has about 4,000 pounds of old type metal that is just the thing for rabbit metal, packing for boxes, etc.

"Bloop has turned cubist." "Rot." "Sold his first picture for a thousand."

Customer—And do you guarantee these trousers all wool? Einstein—Vell, thir, I von't delhive you, mine friend—the but-tenth ith metal.

Redmond and Vicinity

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

Beginning with the first of November all subscriptions to The Redmond Spokesman will be required to be paid in advance without exception.

Change in Mail Route—The mail that has been carried between Culver and Prineville since the coming of the railroads, has been changed October 1st, to go to Prineville from Redmond.

Will Hold Auction Sale—M. F. Greeley will hold a public auction sale on Monday, October 20 at his place on the A. W. Hauser ranch.

Installed New Motor—This week The Spokesman installed a 2-horse electric motor to run the presses in the office with, doing away with a 3-horse gasoline engine.

Premium List is Out—The premium list for the Third Annual Potato Show and Fair to be held in this city October 23, 24 and 25, has been issued from the press at The Spokesman plant.

Visited His Brother—R. S. Brown of Winona, Wn., is here on a visit to his brother, Alex Brown. He expects to remain here all winter.

Full line of Eastman Kodaks and supplies at the Redmond Pharmacy. The Eastman is premier of all kodaks.

New Farm House Built—Alex Brown has just completed a comfortable 5-room house on his farm. Mr. Brown has named his place "The Prize Winning Ranch."

Attended the Fair—Supt. James of the Deschutes Power Co. of this city, went to The Dalles last week to attend the Wasco County Fair.

Players Go to Bend—Local tennis players are making arrangements to go to Bend Sunday to play a series of tennis games with the crack players there.

Bend Tennis Players Here—Five tennis players from Bend were here Sunday, C. S. Hudson, J. P. Keyes and Messrs. Lara, Davis and Pringle, to play tennis with the locals.

No use in buying an inferior kodak when you can buy Eastman Kodaks and kodak supplies at the Redmond Pharmacy.

Takes Over Dining Room—Landlord Lucas of the Hotel Redmond was in Portland last week to secure a good cook for his hotel, he having taken over the dining room from the two japs who had been conducting same as a grill.

Recovering Her Health—The many friends of Mrs. Wm. H. Hobbs will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing after a two weeks' serious illness.

Heard Farewell Sermon—Rev. F. Harvey of this city, was in attendance at the farewell sermon in Portland of Rev. W. S. Holt, who has had a long experience in planting Presbyterian churches in Oregon.

Ladies' and Children's Suits, Coats and Hats

LYNCH & ROBERTS

THE STORE OF BETTER VALUES and LOWER PRICES

Millinery Department

Ready-trimmed hats always present the appearance of experienced and skilled workmanship. The trimmers that make these hats at the wholesale stores are drawn from many states and they must be experts.

Men's and Boys' Clothing

Our line this fall is a good one and has the snap and ginger that you want. Come in and see them.

- Men's Suits$10.50 to $22.50
Boys' Suits..... 2.75 to 10.00
Men's Overcoats..... 10.50 to 20.00
Boys' Overcoats..... 4.00 to 8.00

LYNCH & ROBERTS

We buy Butter and Eggs

REDMOND, OREGON

We close 6:30; Saturday 10:00

has been appointed to assist in New York in raising the remainder of the $10,000,000 for retired ministers' pensions.

Church Services—At the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning the topic of discussion will be "Christ's Training of the Twelve Apostles, and Their Efficiency."

Anything in the line of kodak supplies or Eastman kodaks can be bought at the Redmond Pharmacy. When you buy an Eastman you know you are getting the best.

Musical Service—The musical part of next Sunday's evening service at the Presbyterian church will be in charge of the choir of the Y. P. C. A. A cordit invitation to visitors at 7:30.

Raised Good Apples—F. C. White, who has a farm west of town, has a 2-acre orchard of 7-year Wealthy apple trees that this year went 100 pounds to the tree of good apples—$5 apples to the box. He grows other varieties of apples, but none come up to the Wealthy, he says.

"Within the Law"—The above is the title of one of the most powerful stories ever written. This story will soon be published in The Spokesman in serial form, any anyone who desires to read a gripping story should not fail to read it from beginning to end. The story of "Danny," another powerful story, will shortly be published in this paper.

Celebrated Opening—Last Friday at 11 o'clock a. m. Redmond celebrated the opening of the Panama canal by the blowing of whistles, ringing of bells and the discharge of firearms—anything that would make a noise was brought into requisition.

Money to loan on well improved farms at less than 9 per cent. Redmond Bank of Commerce. 7tf

Has Many Patrons—"Bill" Young's Redmond Grill always has a good run of custom, and Bill says, and so does others, that the reason is because patrons get a great big meal, nicely cooked, for a reasonable price.

Still Hale and Hearty—Z. T. McClay of this city was 70 years old last Friday and said he never felt better in his life; that advanced age was not showing on him to any appreciable extent. Mr. McClay is one of the strongest men in the county and holds his age remarkably well.

IF YOU WANT

- To rent a house
To sell a house
To get a boarder
To rent a room
To sell anything
To buy anything
Use The Spokesman's Classified Ads. Only one cent a word.

Put in Free Air Tank—Perry Reedy lately installed at his Central Oregon Garage an air tank for inflating automobile tires. Service at the tank is free, and auto owners are not sparing in their compliments for Mr. Reedy for his generosity.

Will Play Match Games—In the evenings during the dates of the Redmond Potato Show and Fair—October 23, 24, 25—there will be match games of pool and billiards played at Girt's billiard and pool hall.

Matches already have been arranged between Ed Erickson of this city and Frank Millican of Portland, for a match pool game for a $25 prize, and a billiard match game will be played between J. F. Hosch and H. Palmer. Other matches will be played, the contestants and dates being given later.

Ball Returns Received—During the world's series of baseball games between the New York and Philadelphia teams daily returns of the result of the games were received by wire at Butler's drug store and posted in bulletin form in the window so that all could see.

Mill Starts Grinding—The Redmond Feed & Mill Co. last week commenced making flour in their new plant. Allen Mulkey, an experienced miller, arrived from Walla Walla, Wn., and will have charge of the flour mill. The company expects to have their flour on the market about the first of November. They will have some of the flour ready for exhibit at the Potato Show and Fair, October 23, 24, 25.

Gone to Portland—M. A. Lynch of the firm of Lynch & Roberts of this city, left Monday night over the Oregon Trunk for a business visit to Portland.

Returned From Synod—Rev. F. Harvey, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, returned last week from Portland, where he had been attending the synod.

Ericksons Came Home—Elmer and Ed Erickson arrived here last Thursday from Maryhill, Wn. Elmer is working there for Samuel Hill, the good roads builder, and Ed, who finished his baseball season with the Salt Lake team in September, has been there visiting Elmer. Elmer returned to Maryhill this week and Ed expects to go there in a week or two, where he will work at carpentering this winter.

Right-of-Way Man Here—Matt Clark, right-of-way agent for the Oregon Trunk Railway, was in the city this week. He recently made a record speed trip from Klamath Falls to this city. He left Klamath Falls at 11 o'clock a. m. and arrived in Redmond in time to take the 9:10 train north. The distance traveled was over 200 miles.

Visit Rose City—Carl Woods, the well known farmer out near Sisters, was in town Monday to take the night train on the Oregon Trunk for Portland, where he will transact business for a few days.

Movies Were Good—The moving pictures at the Sparks Theater Sunday and Monday nights were especially good. The two-reel feature film of "The Vengeance of Durand" was the finest and most realistic picture ever shown in this city. The Sparks has the reputation of securing the best pictures to be had.

The Spokesman for good printing.

If You Want Your Hay Baled SEE T. I. Temple Redmond, Oregon Phone 1702