NOTICE TO FARMERS

There will be a "get together" meeting of the farmers of the Redmond and Powell Butte districts at Ehret's hall, Saturday evening, December 6, at which time subjects of interest to all farmers in Crook county will be discussed. Aside from the above a general good time will be had. All farmers and their families are invited to attend and bring a basket of lunch to help out in the joys of the occasion.

Redmond and Vicinity

Gets Contract

The contract for hauling the cement to the camps and to Laidlaw was awarded to C. A. Stahm of Redmond. His bid was: For delivery at Laidlaw, 4¢ per hundred; at Camp 5, 9 cents per hundred; at Camp 6, 9 cents per hundred.

Money to loan on well improved farms at less than 9 per cent. Redmond Bank of Commerce. 71f

Union Services

A union Thanksgiving service was held in the Baptist church on Thursday morning, the Rev. Harrison presiding. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Ragan. Rev. Frederick Harvey took part.

Pheasants Received

Six pair of China pheasants were received here last week from the State Game Warden and the birds have been placed in comfortable quarters for the winter. There is a $50 fine for killing these birds.

The Redmond Bank of Commerce will furnish money to farmers to buy cattle or sheep for feeders. 71f

Quit Business

The branch of the Bend Milling & Warehouse Co. that has been in business in Redmond for several months, quit business here December 1, and the stock on hand was moved to Bend. F. M. Borell, the manage of the branch here, will also go to Bend.

If you want good results from baking, use "Snow Flake" flour. Read the ad. on another page. 171f

Preaching service at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Subject, "Unconscious Deterioration." Rev.
 W. E. Ragan, pastor.

Orville Dopps and wife were visitors from Bend on Monday. They expect to locate in this section before very long.

Frank Stewart and Shy Winson of Outlook, Wn., spent the past week in and around Redmond. While here Mr. Winson made a purchase of 160 acres of land from Mr. Graham, near Sisters. Mr. Winson will move here about the middle of March and take possession of the place and begin operations.

Went to Laidlaw

Elmer Erickson and I. A. Buckley of this city, went to Laidlaw Thanksgiving night to attend the dance given there.

Large Cash Register

Alfred Munz last week installed 'n his hardware store line of the large-est and most up to date cash registers in Crook county. The register was built especially for Mr. Munz by the National Cash Register Co., and will do almost everything but collect the bills.

Attending Meeting

L. E. Smith of this city, left Monday to attend the meeting of the State Farmers' Union which is being held in La Grande this week. While there Mr. Smith will try to induce the state president of the Union to come to Redmond to take part in the Redmond Farmers' Union meeting to be held at Ehret's hall Saturday evening.

Spuds to Minneapolis

Alfred Munz of this city is buying a car load of potatoes from different farmers in this section for shipment to Minneapolis parties. The Central Oregon spuds have a high reputation in Minnesota.

The First Snow

The first real snow of the season fell in this section Thanksgiving evening. There was not much of it and it soon melted off the ground.

Light Plant for Sale

The Spokesman has a practically new gasoline lighting plant for sale.
 It is an up to date pressure system and will be sold very reasonable.
 Reason for selling—changed to electricity.

Window Display

Alfred Munz has an attractive window display at his hardware store this week that attracts the attention of the passers by.

Is Smooth Shaver

Ed Ralston, the new barber at Allen's pool hall, is a smooth shaver and high class all around barber and is working up a fine patronage.

Horse Hospital

Claud Christ has built a horse hospital 12x30 on 4th street between F and G streets, for housing horses while under treatment by veterinarians.

Move to Washington

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Buckley expect to leave about the middle of December for Pullman, Wn., where they will engage in farming.

Brought Their Goods

During the month of November three cars of new comers' goods were shipped to Redmond, and Tuesday night another car load arrived from Sunnyside, Wn.

Shopping Early

Christmas shopping has already begun in Redmond at Lynch & Roberts' big department store. The firm states that many holiday sales have been made to town people as well as to those living at a distance from the city.

A box of Lowney's candy will make an acceptable Christmas present. For sale at Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

Paulina People Here

Several people from Paulina were in the city last week buying supplies from Alfred Munz and Lynch & Roberts. These people had seen and read the advertisements of Mr. Munz and Lynch & Roberts in The Spokesman and came to Redmond to take advantage of the bargains offered by these wide awake store keepers.

An Eastman Kodak will make a holiday present that will be acceptable. You can buy them at the Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

Said R. R. Is Sure

A Prineville man who was in Redmond last week, and who claimed to be in close touch with railroad conditions, stated to The Spokesman that the proposed railroad from Me-tollus to Prineville was an assured fact, and that construction work was to begin inside of 45 days.

Took Advantage

L. A. Brandenburg, the well known farmer from near Deschutes, was in town last Saturday and dropped into The Spokesman office to take advantage of the $1.00 subscription offer of the paper up to January 1915.

A sweet tooth—Lowney's candy will satisfy it. Nothing better for a holiday present. See the Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

Newlyweds Return

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams who were recently married at Vancouver, Wn., returned to Redmond, Monday.
 Mr. Williams while on his wedding tour ordered a car load of hogs for his Powell Butte ranch, and they arrived this week. Many of the hogs were registered.

A suitable holiday present would be an Eastman Kodak. For sale at Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

Held Bazaar

The Ladies Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar in the Jackson building next to the postoffice on the afternoon of Dec. 6.

Improving Grill

W. E. Young has recently been making some improvements at his Redmond Grill. He has repapered and newly painted the upstairs portion of the place until now it is as slick and clean as a new pin.

Broke Two Legs

A man named Brown, living near Terrebonne, was brought to Redmond Saturday last suffering from two broken legs. Mr. Brown, in attempting to get off a wagon load of wheat he was brinking to this city, caught his pants leg in the brake handle and was thrown under the wheels of the wagon, which passed over both legs. One leg was broken and the other one fractured.

Feature Nights

Thursday and Friday nights at the Sparks Theater the following feature films will be shown: "Little Tease," in two parts; "Bunny's Honeymoon"; Analysis of Motion; Locust.

A Silver Thaw

Yesterday was a silver thaw day in Redmond. The trees held the frost all day long and the temperature was mild. Portland papers would make a big story out of this condition of weather.

Juniper Meeting

On November 26 the Juniper Reading Circle met at the home of Mrs. Roe. Roll call was answered by short fables, myths and legends.
 After the usual business hour the meeting was opened to the afternoon program. The subject was "Myths and Legends." A paper had been prepared by Miss Dun, but as she was unable to be present Mrs. Osborne read the paper. Mesdames

Golden West Goods

We want to impress upon your mind that if you once get in the habit of using GOLDEN WEST GOODS you will have no other. These goods speak for themselves and always give satisfaction. Coffee drinkers who like a good cup of coffee should buy our GOLDEN WEST COFFEE—goes farther and tastes better than other coffees.

If you have never used any of the GOLDEN WEST GOODS you do not know what you are missing. These goods are the acme of perfection and when you once use them you will have no other. These goods come in

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

We have a nice stock of Nuts, Fruits and Vegetables, and all kinds of Bakery Goods. See us about Fruit Cakes. We have them six weeks old—just well ripened.

Hobb's Cash Grocery and Bakery

REDMOND, OREGON

Reedy, Anderson, Wright and Rodman also read short myths. At the close of the program a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, after which the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Osborne on December 10.
 The afternoon will be spent in a mysterious and secret way.

Read the "Snow Flake" flour ad. on another page of this issue—and then buy some of the flour. 171f

Christmas Dance

The Sparks Theater will give a dance Christmas night. Look for the announcement.

VETERINARIAN LOCATES HERE

Farmers Can Now Have Skilled Help in Caring for Sick Animals

Dr. Theo. Beletski, V. S., a graduate of the Washington State College, and who has practiced for the last year and a half at Orofino, Idaho, has established an office on Sixth street, opposite the postoffice. Dr.
 Beletski will make Redmond his headquarters, and it is to be hoped that the presence of a veterinarian in this city will lessen the great loss suffered annually by those who are unable to properly care for their stricken stock.
