or larger town? I dare say you have not—not one in 50 of you. On their feet all day, running hither and thither, harassed by the whim and often by the rebuke of all classes of men and women in all stages of nervous tension. A more fatiguing occupation is unknown. Think of it, please, and lend your reasonable assistance by forming habits that will add just as little as possible to the general strain.

It is at these rush seasons when the incentive is greatest to break the law governing hours of employment.
And this is natural. Merchants always strive to please their patrons and to accommodate the public in every way. Surely the public, also, has some responsibility. If the law is violated, those charged with its enforcement must act or be justly condemned.

From every conceivable viewpoint the appeal for early shopping is of vital merit, and I urge upon one and all the importance of co-operation both in their personal acts and in helping by verbal appeal to secure the most general observance of so worthy a principle.

Light Plant for Sale

The Spokesman has a practically new gasoline lighting plant for sale.
It is an up to date pressure system and will be sold very reasonable.
Reason for selling—changed to electricity.

Redmond and Vicinity

LIB NIGHT
AT THE SPARKS THEATER

Friday night, Dec. 12, at the Sparks will be a benefit performance with a monster bill of attractions. The entire proceeds will be devoted toward helping defray the heavy expenses incurred in the recent trial at Prineville wherein J.
M. Crenshaw sued 15 of the business men of Redmond. The reason of the benefit performance is because a majority of the Redmond people, Mrs.
Sparks states, have expressed their desire to help in some way to show that they sanctioned the stand the business men of the city took in the above matter.

The following local talent has volunteered to assist at this performance:

Music by the full band.
Remarks by J. W. Brewer.

Reading by Mrs. J. F. Hosch.
Song by Mrs. W. H. Hobbs.

Human ocarino by Bessie Uhles.
Song by I. A. Buckley.

Lecture by Miss Myrtle Butler.
Song by Mrs. Ashley Forrest.

Fancy dance by Marie Prowsae.
Duet by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts.

Cartoon by Bud Fisher.
Beside the above program, three photo plays will be shown. Show will start at 8 o'clock sharp.

Admission—nothing less than 13 cents and no more than 113.

Everyone invited to come.

While in Redmond recently Chief Engineer Laugesgard of the Tumalo Project, stated to The Spokesman that the camps on the Project would use in the neighborhood of five tons of potatoes before the work is completed.

The Redmond Feed & Mill Co. has been compelled to run day and night to keep up with the orders that have been coming in since they began the manufacture of their celebrated "Snowflake" flour.

Fred A. Shonquest, a well known rancher of Lava Butte, was in the city recently shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Shonquest has been a great traveller in his day and visited many foreign countries, and to hear him tell of his experiences is interesting.

A box of Lowney's candy will make an acceptable Christmas present. For sale at Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

There will be a county Sunday School convention held at Madras on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 13 and 14. This promises to be the greatest county Sunday School convention ever held in Crook county. Everyone is invited, and those attending are assured a hearty welcome and good entertainment. Committee.

Last week C. H. Baggott bought the Buckley Transfer Line in this city, and will continue to operate the same. Mr. Baggott states that he is prepared to do all kinds of light and heavy hauling in connection with the line, and guarantees prompt service.

The Redmond Bank of Commerce will furnish money to farmers to buy cattle or sheep for feeders. 71f

A letter from E. R. Tichenor to The Spokesman states that he is now located at Clatskanie, this state, and requesting that the paper be sent to him so he could keep in touch with what was going on in Redmond. Mr.
Tichenor was one of the 1910 settlers in Redmond, and the first secretary of the Redmond Commercial Club.

L. M. Foss, traveling freight and passenger agent of the O-W, R. & N. Co., was in the city Monday distributing 1914 calendars and other literature put out by his road and affiliated lines.

An Eastman Kodak will make a holiday present that will be acceptable. You can buy them at the Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

Charles Markel, son of J. Shearer of Powell Butte, born May 28, 1907, died Dec. 7, 1913. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the Shepard school house, Rev. W. E.
Ragan officiating.

Preaching service at the Methodist church next Sunday evening.
Topic: "The Tragedy of the For-bidden Fruit." W. E. Ragan, pastor

Mr. McDougal, son and daughter from Medicine Hat, Alberta, are recent arrivals in this section. Mr. Mc-Dougal has bought the McLean farm.

The first of a series of Advent sermons, entitled "Universal Desires Awakened and Realized," will be delivered next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Ashley Forrest will sing a solo at the above service.

A sweet tooth—Lowney's candy will satisfy it. Nothing better for a holiday present. See the Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

J. W. Brewer, who has resided in Redmond the last three years, expects to leave the city about the 15th, in order to have more time to take care of the affairs of the Central Oregon Development League, of which organization he is secretary.

During his residence in Redmond Mr. Brewer has been connected with the Redmond Bank of Commerce as cashier and president. He has always been a good booster for Redmond.

A committee from each of the three Sunday Schools has been appointed to invite all absentees from school to attend the children's Xmas celebrations.

Mr. Hillman of Culver, was in the city Monday on business.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Guild desire through The Spokesman to express their thanks to the patrons of their bazar who made it a successful event.

Money to loan on well improved farms at less than 9 per cent. Redmond Bank of Commerce. 71f

School closes Dec. 24 for the holiday recess, to reopen Jan. 5. A class of beginners will be received between Jan. 5 and 21; no beginner can be received after Jan. 21.

Born, Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Christ, a daughter.

Robert McSherry, a former resident of this city, but lately residing in Portland, has returned to Redmond and will remain during the winter.

A suitable holiday present would be an Eastman Kodak. For sale at Redmond Pharmacy. 2213

At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night it was decided to install meters the coming season for all users of city water.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Echo Ordway of this city to Carl D. Hinman, formerly a resident of Redmond, but now located at Mt. Vernon, Wn. The wedding will take place at high noon on Christmas day at the residence of the bride's parents in this city.

J. M. Fuller of this city, met with a painful accident last Wednesday morning. While building the kitchen fire he had a fainting spell and fell onto the stove, fracturing his nose and badly bruising his face.

C. B. Drake arrived here from Nebraska last week to take the position of cashier in the Redmond Bank of Commerce made vacant by the resignation of J. W. Brewer.

Mrs. E. W. Pratt died at her home in this city Tuesday morning from tuberculosis. She had been a sufferer from this ailment for a long time and though taken to different climates her health was not benefited.
The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Baptist church.

The party that borrowed my step ladder will please return same at once. C. R. McLallin. 231f

The publication of the Oregonian at Metolius has been discontinued, according to a notice published in that paper last week.

be turned out of any furniture factory. Mr. Davies' motto is: Good work and the right prices.

RAISE PHONE RATES

Beginning Jan. 1, 1914, telephone rates of the Deschutes Mutual Telephone Co. will be raised as follows: Business phones from $2 to $3 per month, and residence phones from $1.50 to $2 per month. Secretary Daggett of the company, states that this rate was made in order to equalize prices over the former ones after consultation with the state railroad commission.

BETTER FREIGHT SERVICE

The Oregon Trunk has changed their freight service so as to give Central Oregon still better delivery.
Commencing Dec. 10, freight leaving Portland Friday and Saturday will be delivered at Redmond and other points early the following Monday morning, which will be 24 hours earlier than before. This change will surely appeal to all concerned. The other days will remain the same as formerly, 48 hours from Portland to Central Oregon points. Refrigerator service leaves Portland every Wednesday evening for Central Oregon points for Friday morning delivery.

PRINEVILLE EDITOR DIES

Prineville Journal: A. H. Kennedy, editor of the Prineville Review, died suddenly Tuesday evening, aged 45 years. Mr. Kennedy had been suffering from inflammation of the eyes for some time, but none of his friends thought that anything serious was the matter. Last Saturday more alarming symptoms set in and Tuesday evening he passed quietly away while asleep.
