and is now here to make this his future home.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning the topic will be "Appollos the Irrigator."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nanny of Deschutes, were in the city Tuesday doing some shopping.

Ex-postmaster Minor of Bend, was in Redmond Tuesday selling paper goods for Blake, McFall Co. of Portland. Mr. Minor has the whole of Central Oregon for his territory.

L. Smith and wife of Bend, and R. H. Lowry from Portland, were in the city this week looking the surrounding country over, and will no doubt locate on land east of here.

A full house greeted Pastor Ragan at the Methodist church Sunday evening. The meetings will be continued throughout the week at least. Miss A. Lindquist has been secured and at each service will sing the gospel. Interest is good at every service.

SURPRISE PARTY

A delightful surprise was given in honor of Miss Ritchey at the home of Mrs. Fry Tuesday evening. The evening was passed in playing games after which refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Dittmore, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hobbs, Mrs. Fry, the Misses Butler, Bates, Hutchins, Ritchey, Livingston, Messrs. Lynch, Roberts, Reedy, Tallafiero, Bates, Dr. Barr.

LAND SHOW SLOGAN

"Buy Your Tickets via Oregon in 1915 and Don't Make Your Only Stop at Portland." a slogan which attracted a great deal of attention in connection with the Oregon exhibit at the Chicago Land Show has been proposed for adoption on the stationery of the various commercial clubs and organizations of the Oregon Development League. A monogram has been designed and an electrotype made to stamp the design on the stationery.

FLOUR BY PARCEL POST

Madras Pioneer: One local firm, Robinson & Hunter, have the distinction of being the first mercantile firm in Central Oregon to ship flour by parcel post. The flour was shipped the 2nd of January, and was up on an order from J. E. Chestnut of Metolius, who desired it sent up to him in that way as it would cost as much or a little more to send by express. Thereupon Uncle Sam bore the load and received the compensation, which was 54 cents.

24-HOUR PHONE SERVICE

Beginning Monday night this week the Pioneer Telephone Co., with headquarters at Prineville, inaugurated a 24-hour continuous service. This service will be given patrons without any extra cost and will enable subscribers to reach all outside points at any time and give them the full benefit of the night letter rates. It is stated that when the service has been fully tried out and in good working order Manager Pope will offer this convenience to the subscribers of any telephone company in the county.

HAS MANY PUPILS

According to the Journal Prineville has a school population of 329—161 male and 168 females. This total includes only eight of the 112 in attendance at the Crook County High School. J. B. Shipp, clerk of the Prineville school district, took the census of the district. As the district gets $12 a pupil from the state this will give a total of $3948, the largest sum ever received by the district from the state.
