BEND HAS ANOTHER FIRE

Good Work of the Firemen Prevent Spread of Flames

A Bend dispatch of the 12th says Fire starting in the Vienna cafe on Wail street early this morning destroyed the building in which were located the restaurant and Heri Shuey's grocery store. Fanned by a strong wind the flames leaped across the street and broke plate glass win-dows and scorched buildings for half a block, the property being saved on-ly by the hard work of the volun-teers. The two story brick building belonging to E. A. Sather, next t the frame two story structure in which the fire started withstood the fierce heat well and was only slight y damaged. Had it burned it is believed it would have been impossible to have saved the town, with the wind blowing as it was. Half of Shuey's stock was carried out and saved. His loss is about $3000, fully insured. The Vienna cafe did not save anything and carried only $500 insurance. The building was owned insurance. The building was owned by W. F. Farris of Portland. Shuey was to have moved January 1 into a new brick building, but it was turn-ed over to Rev. E. J. Bulgin, who is using it as a revival meeting place
