GREAT COUNTRY, THIS

Here is a hog production story: G. A. Bradley, breeder of registered hogs and cattle, told The Spokesman that he had some breeding records that were worthy of mention. Here they are: From Saturday morning until Sunday evening last week five Duroc Jersey sows farrowed 45 pigs, and all are in good, healthy condition at this writing. Mr. Bradley prides himself on having the best breed of hogs and the best strain of cattle, and his sales of this kind of stock to people who want the best they can obtain have shown that his efforts in this direction are not in vain, for his sales reach over a wide territory.

CHURCH MEETING

(Communicated)
The annual meeting of the Presbyterian congregation was held here Monday evening, Rev. F. Harvey, presiding. J. G. McGuffie and J. H. Chapman, elders, and Mrs. J. B. Chapman, Mrs. B. A. Kendall and Mrs. W. G. Phoenix and Rev. B. Harper were present. Reports were given by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chapman, representing the Sunday school; by Mrs. Phoenix of the Ladies' Guild, and regarding the finances by E. C. Park. A cordial vote of thanks was accorded each. It was decided after conference to apply to the Presbytery for a regrouping of Redmond with some other church. Action for pulpit supply was deferred.

Mr. Pester—Yes, my love, we've lost all our money, but it was an act of providence.

Mrs. Pester—Don't excuse yourself. It was many acts of improvidence.

Bob—What are you looking so sour for? What's up?

Stein—The high cost of living.
