Official Paper of City of Redmond

THE TAX EATER'S SONG

Bonds, and debt, and taxes;
Taxes and bonds and debt;
The fools will grind our axes;
The people will pay it, you bet.

We'll ride in an auto to Salem,
And board at a hotel in town;
If anyone murmurs let's whale 'em,
And send the militia right down.

Taxes we want are of all kind,
On town and on county and state;
They come like locusts and hot wind,
Destroying the small and the great.

The barber pays tax on his razor,
The merchant is robbed of his store,
From poverty comes the last helper;
We tax eaters need it far more.

Inspectors, commissions, and license,
Are words very pleasant and fine;
Addition, division, and silence,
Our watchwords whenever we dine.

Then gobble the poor devil's cabin,
Take the farm from the man better off;
Let the banker go broke from our ravin;
We'll only make faces and scoff.

The farmer now digs up a dollar
For every fat steer that he kills;
Inspector will get all the shroin,
And double the size of your bills.

Bonds and license and taxes,
Are the toll we take from your mills;
No matter who grinds our axes,
You suckers must foot all the bills.

Thursday afternoon Lee Hobbs had a narrow escape from fire. A fire had been started in a heating stove and then left. When Mr. Osborn, who was passing, saw it, the blaze was just starting through the roof. They managed to put it out with a loss of only $5 or $100.

State Engineer Lewis spoke to the settlers at the Wilson school house Saturday morning. At several different times the argument became quite heated, enough so that Lewis said it reminded him of a meeting of the Desert Land Board. At the close of the meeting a temporary water users' association was organized with Mr. William Sand Mr. Rice as temporary president and secretary. Another meeting of the organization is to be held April 7 at 9 a. m., when the organization will be perfected and several important matters talked over. All interested are urged to be present.

The doctor was out Saturday night to visit Mrs. Tuck who has been in bed for some time with trouble with her back.

Last Friday evening the dancers of the neighborhood gathered at Geo. Hobbs' for a social hop. Luncheon, prepared by the ladies, was served at midnight, after which the dance was continued until about 2 o'clock. The dance was such a success that Geo. promised to leave the partitions out until after April 17, at which time they could have another one.

Upon returning home from Miss Smith's program Friday afternoon Mr. Van Dorn had a runaway. He had driven into the yard to unhitch when the horses became frightened and started. They broke the back and one of the horses was cut quite badly.

People will soon dread to see Earl Sanderson come their way. He is field deputy for the county assessor and will soon begin the season's work.

Geo. Hobbs made a trip to Bend Monday, returning by way of Redmond.

Bill Parrish, who was called to Lewiston, Idaho, as a witness, writes back that while there he was the main witness in a matrimonial ceremony.

Last Tuesday night Columbus Johnson of Prineville, stopped at Tom Houston's with five car loads of first class beef enroute for the railroad at Redmond.
