Redmond and Vicinity

Mrs. Scott, who lived between Glat and Laidlaw, died March 25, and was buried in Redmond on March 26.
She leaves a husband, one daughter and three sons. She was the mother of C. Scott of this city. The funeral was held from the M. E. church and was conducted by Rev. W. E. Ragan.

The Redmond Bank of Commerce will furnish money to farmers to buy cattle or sheep for feeders. 71f

It is reported that Geo. F. Euston, a former resident of this city, but recently moved to Prineville, has sold his farm near the city.

Bring in your tubes for vulcanizing to Reedy's Garage. 391f

J. W. Brewer, who is connected with the state immigration department, arrived here the first of the week for a few days' visit with his family. Mr. Brewer has been in the eastern part of the state for some time on business connected with his office.

Improved irrigated land for rent in the Powell Butte section. See W.
M. Wilson at Redmond Hotel, Redmond, Oregon. 391f

J. B. Green returned home Sunday morning from Portland where he had gone to buy a car load of horses.

Preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Subject "Agnosticism." W. E. Ragan, pastor.

Empty oil barrels, $1.00 each.
Reedy's Garage. 341f

Frank McCaffery this week was riding around in a new five passenger 40 Carter auto that he recently bought. The machine has all of the latest improvements—electric starter, electric lighted, and friction drive. The price of the auto was $1150.

McSherry's Feed Store handles Lilly's seeds, the best seeds to be found on the market. Also buys hides and pelts. 3912

Ira Hutchings of Brownsville, Or., president of the fruit canning association there, was a Redmond visitor this week.

W. G. Phoenix left last week for a business trip into Idaho, and is not expected to return before next week.

Money to loan on well improved farms at less than 9 per cent. Redmond Bank of Commerce. 71f

We have some fine seed grain just shipped in from Eastern Washington that we will sell in any quantity.
McSherry's Feed Store. 3912

One of the Covert girls, who used to live here, but who now reside in British Columbia, recently took first prize at a mask ball held in the town where she lives. She used the American flag for decoration.

Complete stock of Wolf's Head oil.
Reedy's Garage. 391f

W. E. Young believes in using all he can of electric appliances at his Redmond Grill. The latest electric device to be installed by him is an electric coffee urn.

Now is the time to put land plaster on your land. We have a supply of same at right prices. McSherry's Feed Store. 3912

Mrs. L. R. Smith and daughter Lora of Lincoln, Neb., arrived Friday evening from Spokane and are visiting with the family of L. E.
Smith.

A. W. Aya, who is in the real estate business at La Pine, was a Redmond visitor this week. Mr. Aya is a good man for La Pine for he is there with bells on when it comes to setting forth the advantages of that section.

Improved irrigated land for rent
in the Powell Butte section. See W.
M. Wilson at Redmond Hotel, Redmond, Oregon. 391f

Wm. Froebe of this city, expects to soon move to White Salmon, Wn.

dence on A street formerly occupied by Mr. McMickle, and is now living there.

March came in like a lamb, but it surely went out like a lion.

David Wheaton died at Roger Doty's ranch Friday afternoon, March 27, of heart failure and dropsy. A short funeral service was conducted at the house Saturday afternoon by Rev. W. E. Ragan. Mrs.
Doty, daughter of the deceased, took the body to Ellensburg, Wn., for burial, beside the bodies of his wife and daughter.

James Redmond, brother of F. T.
Redmond, proprietor of the Hotel Oregon of this city, was here from La Pine the first of the week. He is in the real estate business at La Pine and one of the good boosters of that live wire little town.

The ball game last Saturday afternoon that was played here between Bend and Redmond High School teams resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 4 to 3. The day was windy and disagreeable but the boys put up a good article of ball. It is understood that a return game is to be played at Bend Saturday afternoon.

The regular base ball season will be opened here Sunday afternoon by a game between local players and a team from Bend. Admission is to be free and all fans are urged to be on hand and root for all they are worth.

The patrons of the Bend Steam Laundry, and there are many of them, form a mutual admiration society in regard to the work they have done there. Phone 1702 and Vincent will collect your bundles and deliver them when finished. 391f Perry Smith, a former resident of this city but now located at Hood River, was here this week looking after some of his property interests
