

Redmond and Vicinity

Heading to Alfalfa—
W. M. Wilson of this city is having 25 acres of his land in the Powell Butte section seeded to alfalfa.

Date Been Changed—
The date on which "Good Roads Day" will be observed in Redmond has been changed from Saturday, April 25, to Friday, April 24. This has been done in order to let the workmen have a chance to get out and help on the roads.

McSherry's Feed Store handles Lilly's seeds, the best seeds to be found on the market. Also buys hides and pelts. 3912

The Redmond Bank of Commerce will furnish money to farmers to buy cattle or sheep for feeders. 71f

New Principal Engaged—
Professor P. M. Nash of Moro, Ore., has been engaged as principal of the Redmond school for the ensuing year. All the old corps of teachers, with the exception of Miss Ritchie, have been retained. Miss Ritchie has a school at Bend.

Now is the time to put land plaster on your land. We have a supply of same at right prices. McSherry's Feed Store. 3912

Mormon Elders Here—
Elders C. R. Richens and R. M. Stewart of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, held a meeting in Ebert's hall Tuesday night and explained the Mormon religion to those present.

Tum-A-Lum Officials Visit—
Harold Crawford, head of the engineering department of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company of Walla Walla, Wn., and Howard Crawford, general superintendent of the retail department of the same company, were here last week making an invoice of the Immele lumber yard, which the Tum-A-Lum people have taken over. The Crawfords were making a tour of the company's yards along the Oregon Trunk line and traveled by auto.

A hungry man never kicks when the tablecloth is soiled, because he knows his wife patronizes the Bend Steam Laundry and they clean all the soiled spots. Phone 1792 and Vincent will call for and deliver your laundry. 401adv.

Child Recovering—
Catherine, the little daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Moore, was a pretty sick child last week, but now is out of danger and on the road to recovery.

Bring in your tubes for vulcanizing to Reedy's Garage. 391f

Place Large Fly Traps—
A movement is on foot to have a number of large fly traps made and placed in different parts of the city, and especially in the alleys. This plan was carried out in Prineville last year and was the means of keeping the fly pests down considerable. Bill Young last year had a large trap located in the rear of his Redmond Grill and the trap caught millions of flies.

One rub in time saves nine, but don't do even the one rub. Send your rubbing to the Bend Steam Laundry and have that much more time free. Phone 1792 and Vincent will do the rest. 411adv.

Caught Lots of Fish—
Dan Greenhaugh and Bill Leavitt went fishing near the Cline Falls bridge Sunday and had excellent luck. Dan caught about 25 and Bill came home with a full basket. They said the fish were biting good and they could have caught more if they desired.

Received Sad News—
Mrs. R. S. Townes of Sisters received the sad news of the sudden death of her father on Friday, and left on Saturday morning's train for her home in Iowa.

A Good Baker—
W. H. Hobbs of the Cash Grocery and Bakery, has a new baker working for him who turns out all kinds of good bakery goods—even better than he can do it himself, so says Mr. Hobbs.

Newcomers Here—
E. E. Davis and wife, and Dan Bray and family of El Reno, Okla., arrived here last week and are looking around for a land location.

Has Good Spuds—
S. D. Mustard, the well known Powell Butte farmer, was in Redmond Saturday and dropped into The Spokesman office to put an ad in for the sale of seed potatoes. Those who buy seed potatoes of Mr. Mustard are assured of getting good results with his potatoes. All varieties have taken first prizes at the potato shows held here and at the county fairs at Prineville.

Large Shipment Envelopes—
Last week The Spokesman received a shipment of 45,999 commercial envelopes—the largest shipment of this class of stationery ever brought to Redmond. Anyone wanting envelopes printed can get them in any quantity at a reasonable price.

Went to Rabbit Hunt—
Charles B. Drake, cashier of the Redmond Bank of Commerce, went out to Powell Butte last Sunday to take part in a rabbit hunt. This was the first time Mr. Drake had ever been on a hunt of this kind and he was much interested in the sport and also got his share of rabbits.

Money to loan on well improved farms at less than 9 per cent. Redmond Bank of Commerce. 71f

Wants a Ball Team—
The Sisters Herald of last week arises to ask if that town is to have a ball team this year or not. The paper says there is plenty of good material there for a winning team, and wants to see something done along the line of organizing a club.

Interesting Lecture—
Rev. W. E. Ragan, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city, in giving the lecture next Wednesday night at the church does not pose as a great speaker, but through hard work and special effort has worked on this lecture, "Seeing the Invisible," and has given it before at other places. He promises the people full value for their money.

Limit Membership—
The Ladies' Tennis Club held a meeting at the school house Tuesday afternoon. Among other things it was decided to limit the number of members to 20, which is the present enrollment. The ladies are becoming quite proficient, despite the fact that most of them are amateurs.

Colorado People Come—
Mrs. Mallory and niece, with their children, arrived Tuesday evening from Colorado. Their husbands will arrive in a few days with a car of stock and household goods, prepared to make their home in this vicinity. They expect to rent ranches.

Delivers Lecture—
Dr. Beletski, the local veterinarian, gave a lecture at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, on "Bloat of Cattle." This is one of a series of lectures that the Y. P. C. A. will give this spring.

Play Ball at Bend—
The local ball team goes to Bend Sunday to play a return game with the club there. It is expected quite a number of fans from this city will accompany the team and root for them.

Talked to Pupils—
Dr. Rebec of the Oregon University, gave a very interesting talk on "The Opportunities of the Coming Generation Compared to Those of a Few Years Ago," to the pupils of the Redmond schools Wednesday afternoon. The pupils and teachers enjoyed the discussion very much.

Will Locate Here—
Mrs. Schadel arrived here Tuesday evening from Colorado. Her husband and sons have been in Redmond several weeks and have decided to make this their home.

Cleaned School Grounds—
The school children of the grades were given a quarter holiday Tuesday for the purpose of cleaning up the school grounds. The clean-up made a great improvement in the looks of the grounds.

IS YOUR RANCH FOR SALE?

If so, please list it at once with R. L. Schee, Secretary Commercial Club, or W. S. Rodman, President Commercial Club. This work is being carried on by the State Immigration Commission and they ask for our land listings in this locality. The listings will receive extensive publicity with no expense to you and are sure to produce good results. Don't wait if you want to sell, as these listings must be made up at once. 4011
