Redmond Ball Team Won Game At Culver

Day Was Windy But the Home Team Brought Back the Bacon With a Score of 9 to 3

The Redmond ball team went to Culver last Sunday afternoon and played the team there, winning by a score of 9 to 3. The day was very windy which made it disagreeable for the ball players and spectators alike. Following is the lineup of the Redmond team:

Bristow, 1st base.
Tetherow, pitcher.
Shelley, 2nd base.
C. Brewster, 3rd base.
Neil, catcher.
Fleming, center field.
Nelson, right field.
Pratt, short stop.
Redmond made 8 hits and Culver 3. A fair sized crowd was present.

TROUT FISHING GOOD

Al Wright, R. C. Immele, C. W. Ehret and Mr. Lewis went to Crooked river and they returned in the evening with good catches.

Since Sunday several parties from here have been out to Crooked and Deschutes rivers and had excellent success. This year the fish seem to be more plentiful than in previous seasons.

A MAN WHO KNOWS

The Spokesman believes that a vote for William Hanley will be one cast for the right man, and hopes to see this section of the state unite and vote for him, for it will be to their interests in the future to do so.

American Flag Association.

The "American Flag association" was organized February 17, 1898, its motto being: "One flag, one country, one God over all." Its object is to secure "National and state legislation for the protection of the flag from degrading and desecrating uses," and to secure a general observance of June 14 as "Flag Day," because on that day, in 1777, congress adopted the present United States flag—the Stars and Stripes.

PLEASANT RIDGE

A. O. Provost recently rented the "Only Ranch" and his home place to Messrs. Bray and Davis. Recent arrivals from Oklahoma, Mr. Provost expects to leave soon for their old home in Montana.

A. O. Provost and family left Tuesday night for Baineville, Montana, where they will make their future home.

POWELL BUTTE

Charley Johnson, who has been spending the winter in the Coos Bay country, has returned to Central Oregon and is working for Tom Houston.

Edward Williams lost a sow Saturday night. He was afraid of cholera, but Dr. Beletski pronounced it inflammation.

Ray Rannels and Walt Vandervert have been riding the desert this week for the CCC cattle which McCall turned out this spring. They expect to summer these cattle and Tom Sharp's at the Vandervert place on the Deschutes river.

One of the colts that Geo. Morgan has been breaking has a fistula that started from a bit sore.

Among those who shipped stock through the Redmond Union Warehouse last week were Tengman, Skeen and Abbey with hogs, and Rhode with sheep.

Alvin Riggs and Brazee plan to send their cattle to the Caldwell ranch on the Deschutes for the summer.

Louis Holland has returned to his homestead.

Ed Pierson is working for Mr. Lindquist.

Tom Houston bought 22 stands of bees at the Lafollette place last week.

Last week was Herman Allen's off week. On Wednesday his team ran away with the drill, breaking a disc off the machine, and on Saturday four horses got out, forcing him to ride for several days.

Jim Hornbuckle is working for Allen Willcoxon on the Wilson contract.

Geo. Estes of Prineville visited at the Tom Houston place this week.

Ed Pierson and Miss Ebba Lindquist drove to Redmond Sunday evening.

The Morses took dinner with Miss Mable Allen and her brother.

On Friday, May 1, Mrs. Earl Forrest closed a very successful term of school in the Shepard district. Her work has been very much appreciated by all the patrons. The pupils, with some outside assistance, gave an excellent program.
