POWELL BUTTE

Howard Spinning of Wilbur, Wn., was here last week looking after his land holdings at Powell Butte and near Bend. While here he disposed of his Powell Butte $9. Lee Hobbs bought the south half and Frank McCaffery the north half.

Geo. Truesdale lost one of his best cows last Sunday from bloat. Cris Seitz has gone on another trip in search of a homestead in southeastern Oregon and northern Nevada.

Munz Willcoxen has received the appointment as road supervisor for the Powell Butte and Hat Rock districts. He is also county weed master for these districts.

G. M. Cornett is fencing his entire place with rabbit fence.

Miss Margaret Matz has accepted a position as chief operator on the Prineville switchboard for the Pioneer Telephone & Telegraph Co.

At the last meeting of the Sorosis Ada Morse was appointed health officer of the club. This appointment was made at the instigation of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs.

The Sorosis meets with Mrs. Allen Willcoxen this week.

Last week a petition was started for a rural delivery route and has met with very ready approval. The route starts from the Powell Butte postoffice and runs north as far as the Morse place, then east a mile, thence around by Tengman's, Pauls and Yates; thence around the foot of the Butte. From the Shepard school house it goes a half mile south, then west to the river bed, then south to the Frank May corner and then back to the postoffice. There is no district in Central Oregon that is more in need of this service, and although it was turned down a few years ago we hope it will be accepted this time.

Howard Smead is the proud father of a new son born May 5.

Lloyd Bussett returned here last Tuesday after spending the winter at Hood River.

Paul Held and family of Held, Oregon, visited at the home of Tom Houston last week.

Last Thursday Ada Morse accompanied friends on a fishing trip above Bend, attending Artisan lodge in Bend in the evening.

W. G. Mustard took a second load of spuds to Bend Saturday.

Mr. Lindquist was a Prineville visitor Saturday.

Henry Tweed's father of Bend, is a Powell Butte visitor.

Floyd Hoover, who has been working for Frank Rice all spring, returned to his home in Prineville.

Nick Raehor and family Sundayed at the homestead last week.

Miss Ebba Lindquist is attending Summer Normal at Prineville.

Mrs. Morse and family took dinner with the J. F. Rice's Sunday.

While out on his work as field deputy for the county assessor Earl Saunders was thrown from his horse and dragged for some distance. He came out of it with several broken ribs and so bruised up that he has been unable to go on with his work. James Fuller, deputy for the neighboring district, is helping him.

Norman Davis, the boy who has been staying at H. K. Allen's, has returned to the Boys' and Girls' Aid. Glenn Mustard lost a yearling steer from bloat last Sunday.

Harry Dobrentel, who has been working for Clark Morse, went home Friday.

Tom Houston is fencing about 20 acres of alfalfa for a hog pasture.

Attention! Farmers and Breeders

We want you to know that we have

The Blue Ribbon Percheron Horse of Crook County

And also the sweepstakes horse over all breeds (Crook county fair, 1913), at our barn, one mile north of Redmond, for sale or for breeding purposes.

If you want to raise $400 or $500 teams, do not fail to see our horses. Or better still, let us show you colts from these horses which are owned by your neighbors.

Terms of service—$10 for single leap; $20 to insure. Money due when mare is known to be with foal.

Remember!—Cheap service means inferior colts.
