POWELL BUTTE

Mrs. Mary Breese died early Thursday morning at the home of her son, R. W. Breese. The remains were buried in Prineville Friday.

The men who have been working for Herman Allen left Thursday morning en route for Idaho. These young men are going all over the Northwest, working here and there to pay expenses.

There will be church every Sunday at the Francis Wilson school house from now on. Rev. Baker of Madras alternates with Rev. Ragan of Redmond.

S. D. and W. G. Mustard have gone to Washington to the bedside of their father, who is very ill.

Pat Reilly of Ashwood, passed through here with three bands of sheep Monday, en route to the Cascades.

Mr. Barkley of the Cove, took supper with Tom Houston Monday evening.

Charlie Harrison, who has been freighting between Redmond and Prineville for some time, passed through the last of the week with a Kelly truck which he expects to put on the run.

Munz Wilcoxson has a crew of men pulling weeds on the ditch banks and on the property of non-residents.

Rev. Ragan took dinner with Tucks Sunday after services at the Wilson school house.

Bussetts moved on their old place the first of the week. It seems rather natural to see Dan at work on the place again.

The married men blame Munz Wilcoxson for the loss of the ball game with the single men. They say he should not have stopped to pull the mustard between the bases.

Among those from Powell Butte who attended the funeral of Mrs. Donlavy were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Truesdale and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Skeen and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renshaw, all old friends of the Donlavy family in Colorado.

Earl Forrest's young brother is spending the summer with him.

N. P. Alley is building a house in the Cline Falls neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson of Tacoma, are spending a portion of their honeymoon with Mrs. Simpson's sister, Mrs. Truesdale. Viola and Pauline will return to the Washington city with them some time this week for a visit with friends and relatives.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were greatly surprised when the Powell Butte people entertained them with a Charivari. The crowd arrived in a hay rack, trailing a harrow cart, in which they gave the newlyweds a delightful moonlight ride.

Harry Speer has purchased the Wilcoxson mower and is cutting hay for a number of people in his neighborhood. He is cutting for Walter McNulty at present.

E. B. Williams' reservoir, probably the largest in this locality, broke Friday evening and irrigated his alfalfa, as well as some of his neighbors', in a hurry.

Dewey Johnson and Earl Forrest are plowing up Jim Hill mustard for George Morgan on the Wilson place.

Harold Cooke visited at the Skeen home Sunday.

Miss Mable Allen visited Thursday with Mrs. Morse and daughters.

Roscoe Howard, Engineer Redfield and Superintendent of Maintenance McCauley were inspecting the lower end of the Central Oregon canal last week.

Haying is on in full force. Owing to the backwardness of the season, the first cutting is very light, but an extra heavy second crop is expected to make up for it.

Mrs. E. N. Hall returned last week from Portland, where she has been visiting with relatives and friends.

Miss Viola Truesdale assisted in the Redmond telephone office while Miss Ramsower attended the bedside of her sister in Metolius.

Rex Allingham started over the mountains last week with a team George Hobbs is sending to his brother at Glendale, Ore.

Mrs. J. F. Rice and Mrs. S. D. Mustard attended the funeral of Mrs. Donlavy last Wednesday.

Dr. Robert Allen of La. Clede, Idaho, visited with his brother and sister, Mr. Herman and Miss Mabel Allen, the last of last week.

PLEASANT RIDGE

A. E. Perry helped Mr. Duval make weirs a few days this week.

Andrew Nelson called at the Fuller home Sunday.

Messrs. Anderson and Peterson made a business trip to Redmond Monday.

Alex Duval has been working on the county road near Cline Falls. Mr. Coryell is the first man to put up hay this season in this part of the country. He expects to cut three crops this season.

A number of Pleasant Ridge's young people gathered at the Coryell home Wednesday evening for choir practice.

Mr. Gibbs of Deschutes, moved Mr. Doty's house this week.

The Pleasant Ridge farmers find that the best way to get rid of sage rats is to use traps.

Mr. Duval is making good progress with his new house.

Dan Stout was home from the Tumalo Project over Sunday.

The following made a pleasure trip to White Rock Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and family, Mrs. Fuller's brothers, Ray and Hubert Rule; Lila and Blanch Bray, Etta and Wayne Chase, Aubrey Perry and Dan Hunter.

Wilbur Catlow, who has been here repairing their ditch for the last two months and a half, expects to leave in the near future for his home in Salem.

It has been reported that Mr. Kilgore, who bought the Sherwood place last summer, has sold out.

Samuel Christianson, who has been away at work for some time, has returned home.

Mr. Woods of Weston, Ore., who has been here for the past two weeks, visiting with his sons, Joe and Earl, has returned home.

Rasmus Peterson has a nice stand of cow peas this season.

Mr. Butts of Deschutes, is working for Mr. Anderson.

Mr. Miesel left the first of the week for Seattle, where he expects to make his home in the future.

Aubrey E. Perry has secured a position measuring water for the state.

At the school election last week W. L. Perry was re-elected director for the three-year term, and Henry Hewins re-elected clerk.

Mr. Lawson has been hauling lumber from Anderson Bros.' sawmill this week.

Bill Johnson is cutting wood on the McCauley place and hauling it to Redmond.

Dan Hunter called at the Fuller home Sunday.

There was a large attendance at the Pleasant Ridge Sunday school last Sunday.

Gladys Coryell visited Lila and Blanch Bray Sunday.

Council Proceedings

the Council to secure more definite understanding and information concerning his proposal.

L. M. Simpson, general manager of the Deschutes Power Co., appeared before the Council for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of pumping the city water by electricity, and agreed to submit a complete offer and proposal to do the same as soon as possible.

Moved, seconded and passed that the meeting adjourn.

DENTON G. BURDICK,
City Recorder.

Tom Richardson, the Portland commercial club booster, estimates Oregon has lost 20,000 people on account of women not making it pleasant for newcomers.
