Labor Commissioner Hoff had a meeting of officials of labor boards
at Portland to consider needed labor legislation.

Redmond and Vicinity

A party of four immigration officials of the Great Northern Railway were here last week. President Rodman of the Commercial Club and L. E. Smith took the officials for a spin around the county and showed them what this part of Crook county looked like. The officials were from the southern states and were well pleased with what they saw of this part of Central Oregon.

I have bought out the Wm. G. Phoenix rental agency in Redmond, and parties having houses to rent or wanting to rent houses should see me. W. H. Smith. 491f

F. A. Leavitt, brother of William Leavitt of this city, arrived here from Portland the 4th of July and made a fishing trip on the Deschutes and Crooked rivers. Mr. Leavitt is foreman of the O-W. R. & N. shops at Albina and stayed in this section two days and was well pleased with his visit.

Muma's Hall for rent for dances and entertainments. New piano just installed. For terms inquire Hotel Redmond. 5014

The regular services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, July 12. Sunday school at 10 and preaching at 11 o'clock. A hearty welcome to all who can attend. T. J. Hedges, pastor.

How to improve your looks and cut expenses: Patronize the Bend Steam Laundry. Phone 1502 and your bundles will be called for and returned when clean. 1-11

Preaching services at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. W. E. Ragan, pastor.

Rev. W. E. Ragan of Redmond and L. Coryell and J. R. Jarrett of Pleasant Valley took the lives of about 200 of the rabbit tribe a few days ago. They report it great sport when target rifles are used.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will give an Ice Cream Social on the school house lawn Tuesday, July 14, from 5 to 9 o'clock.

Perfect satisfaction for you if you wear linen laundered by the Bend Steam Laundry. It will pay to try their work. Phone 1502 or leave your bundle at Hotel Redmond. 1-11

A Portland newspaperman was here last week and asked The Spokesman editor why he did not get out a daily newspaper for this section of the state. We thought the Portland newspapermen were wiser than to make such a crack.

J. W. Brewer of this city, manager of the land department of the state immigration board, arrived home last week and has been circulating among his friends for the past 10 days.

W. H. Hobbs has some good ideas under his bonnet in regard to people who do not pay their bills. If more men like Mr. Hobbs would go after these people and put their theories in practice, there would not be much of an occasion for hard times in any part of the United States.

Services will be held at the Redmond Catholic church Sunday morning, July 12, at 11 o'clock.

During the past week several cement crosswalks have been put in in different parts of the business section of the city. Redmond was the first city in Crook county to install cement walks, and the policy of the city government has been to keep the good work going on.

Last week The Spokesman was in error in saying that Rev. W. E. Ragan had left for Marlette, Mich. Rev. Ragan bought a ticket for his son Norman for the above place, and that was what led to the origin of the story that he had gone there.

The hot spell struck this section last week. For three or four days the thermometer tried to climb out of the top of the tube. It was fine growing weather, but outside of that Old Sol made it pretty uncomfortable for the residents of the city and this section.

Not Kicking.
The Monoglists—I've just been asked to present my monologue before the inmates of the state reformatory. The Head Balancer—Go to it, old top. There's an audience that can't get away from you.—Chicago News.

A Rebuff.
"Do you think your father would like me as a son-in-law?"
"Yes, I believe he would."
"Oh, joy! I"—
"Papa and I never agree about anything, you know."

Bridges.
Bridges were built by the ancients at a very early date. The Euphrates at Babylon was crossed by a stone bridge prior to 2000 B. C., and it is known that the Chinese built bridges as public works as early as 2900 B. C.

PUBLIC SPIRIT.
We count the man who cares nothing for the public weal as a worthless nuisance and not simply an inoffensive nonentity.—Thucydides.

In the Sweet By and By.
A frightfully henpecked man was summoned to the bedside of his dying spouse. For forty years she had made his life a burden.
"I think I am dying, David," she said, "and before I leave you I want to know if I'll see you in a better land."
"I think not, Nancy," he replied—"not if I see you first!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Puffing Billy.
The earliest successful locomotive in England was completed a century ago. It was named Puffing Billy. The owner was warned that "if the noise of the engine disturbs the cattle grazing in the lands adjacent to the wagon way (railway) so as to put them off their feed it may be considered a nuisance."

Sort of Board Pie.
"Should you eat pie with a knife?"
"No; you'd want to use an ax if you lived at my boarding house."

Chipper.
"Will you saw some wood for dinner?" "No'm. I don't eat wood."—Houston Post.

Easy Friendship.
Brown—I haven't a friend in the world. Jones—You can make one right now. I need a fiver.—Puck.

Severe.
Tom—I don't know whether she sings or not. Jack—She doesn't. I've heard her.—Puck.

Cheap People.
Cheap people are always looking for something cheaper than themselves.—Chicago News.

A Puzzling Answer.
"Have you sold all those stockings?"
"No. I have them still on my hands."—Lippincott's.

Better Try It.
Did you ever get nervous prostration from trying to make others happy? No?—Chicago News.

A Drawback.
"Money talks." "I know, but my husband has an impediment in his income."—Houston Post.

Sounds Queer.
"What is the best way to get forward?"
"Get backing."—Baltimore American.

Variety.
Variety is the spice of life, but it isn't particularly good in a poker hand.—Puck.

Tramp and Palmist.
"A palmist is like a tramp." "How so?" "He's usually looking for a 'hand out.'"—Boston Transcript.

Advice.
Go to the aunt, thou newly made wife—consider her pies and be wise!—Judge.

Allowances.
Young men should be happy when they have rich fathers to make allowances for them.—Lippincott's.

New South Wales.
More than half of all the dwellings in New South Wales are built of wood.

Much Better.
When out of employment it is better to look for a job than for sympathy.—New York American.

Mrs. Malaprop.
"All my linen," said Mrs. Twickenbury, "is marked with illegible ink."—Christian Register.

A Brilliant Fish.
The most brilliant fish in British waters is the gurnard. Its fins are scarlet, green and blue.

LANDS

Improved and unimproved. 800,000 acres of fruit, alfalfa and grain lands in Central Oregon. Low prices, easy terms. If you are interested and want to locate in Central Oregon, write or call on
