

"The Best of Everything"

Is the way our regular customers describe our goods. For instance: If you want any kind of Building Material, we can supply you with the best at low cost—and right away.

"THE FINEST IN THE LAND"

Is the way satisfied patrons describe our "service." FREE BUILDING PLANS FOR HOMES, BARNs, MILK HOUSES, HOG SHEDS, SCHOOLS, designed by our Engineering Department, with the latest ideas.

Screen Doors and Window Screens

See Anderson About It, at

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company

SOCIETY DIRECTORY

REDMOND LODGE I. O. O. F.

No. 224
Meets every Thursday night in Ehret's Hall. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.
H. W. GANT, N. G.
LEO ORDWAY, V. G.
J. H. DITTEMORE, Sec'y.

J. B. Bell A. W. Sims
CROOK COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY
(Incorporated)
Successor to
The J. H. Haner Abstract Company
Prineville, Oregon
Abstracts Insurance

CLASSIFIED COLUMN

Advertisements published under this head at one cent a word for each insertion. No advertisement inserted for less than 15 cents. Orders from out of town must inform us how many issues the ad is to run. Out of town orders must be accompanied by cash. Initials and figures count as words.

FOR SALE

High grade piano, nearly new, will be sold reasonable on terms. Inquire at Spokesman office. 46tf

Five gallon coffee urn, first-class condition. Be sold reasonable. At Wright's Second Hand Store. 312

Taber organ in good tune, first-class condition, at a bargain. At Wright's Second-Hand Store. 212

For sale—Pedigreed O. I. C. pigs; first-class stock. O. C. Cardwell, Bend, Ore. 52t7

I will sell my 40 acres, three-fourths mile northwest of Redmond, for $1,800, if I can get $800 before September 1. F. P. Stauffer, 607 Ellis avenue, Portland, Ore. 1-t4

Several pulleys and some shafting all in good condition. The Spokesman.

FOR RENT

For rent—200 acres level irrigated land, improved with house, barn, cistern and fencing. Want fall plowed. Immediate possession. Lies about 11 miles westerly from Deschutes. S. E. King, Walla Walla, Washington. 1-tf

LOST

A check book on the Redmond Bank of Commerce. Finder please return and receive reward. L. E. Smith. 3t3

IF YOU WANT

To rent a house
To sell a house
To get a boarder
To rent a room
To sell anything
To buy anything
Use The Spokesman's Classified Ads.
Only one cent a word.

A NEW STORE

Anyone desiring a good permanent store twenty-five or fifty feet wide should correspond with me at an early date. These lots are near the center of the block with the Bank of Commerce. Address A. F. Howes, 221 Prospect avenue, Hood River, Oregon. 1-t4

Redmond and Vicinity

The bridge over the deep canyon between here and Sisters has been completed and is now being used for traffic. This means a great deal for this section of the county as the former heavy grade haul has been eliminated, and travel, both freight and passenger, across the mountains will use this road.

R. McSherry shipped a carload of hogs to the Portland market yesterday.

Preaching at the M. E. church on next Sunday evening. W. E. Ragan, pastor.

Ray Chutes of Paulina, and Miss Mildred Whitney of this city, were married Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents by Rev. W. E. Ragan. The newlyweds left immediately for their home in Paulina where Mr. Chutes has charge of a creamery.

I have bought out the Wm. G. Phoenix rental agency in Redmond, and parties having houses to rent or wanting to rent houses should see me. W. H. Smith. 49tf

The recent hot weather has been great to bring along the second crop of alfalfa, which will be large.

P. G. Jourdan and wife are rusticated in the mountains and enjoying a regular old time outing.

Don't buy a shoe for anyone of the family until you have seen our new stock. Anderson & Tallafarro. 2t2

Several men from the city went to the Deschutes River above Cline Falls bridge for a swim Sunday evening. They said the water was fine.

An aggravated case of X Ray skirt on 6th street last Saturday afternoon caused considerable rubber necking, but the wearer of the classy dress walked along the street with as much dignity as a dutch general entering a brewery.

A number from this city expect to go to Metolius tonight to attend the second annual dance to be given in the Sparks opera house there by the Redmond orchestra.

Several parties went to the Deschutes River Sunday to cool off in the shade of the trees along the banks of that stream.

Muma's Hall for rent for dances and entertainments. New piano just installed. For terms inquire Hotel Redmond. 50t4

W. C. Walker, formerly editor and publisher of the Oregon Hub of this city, left Tuesday morning for Portland. Mr. Walker is not yet certain where he will locate, but will look around for a while to find a site to start a newspaper, so he said.

J. D. Butler, the druggist here, who recently proved up on his homestead in the Cline Falls District, has moved into town and he and Mrs. Butler are now living in their bungalow on 8th between B and C streets.

Subscribers in arrears to the Oregon Hub should pay J. A. Wilcox or mail check to W. C. Walker, Redmond. We need the money. 3t2

The Deschutes River is now the lowest it has been for years. At Cline Falls, above the bridge, the water is so low that a person can wade nearly across the river.

The day of postponement may be the one when the worst may happen and you won't have any clean linen. Better get busy and patronize the Bend Steam Laundry, then you will always be right. Phone 1502 or leave bundles at Hotel Redmond. It

R. McSherry is making a number of alterations in his feed store. He is changing the interior of the building and will put in a feed grinder in the rear.

P. M. Reedy gave a "stag" party last Thursday night to some of the bachelors and near widowers. An appetizing lunch and light refreshments were served, and a general good time enjoyed by all. Those present were L. E. Smith, Dr. Barr, J. W. Moore, W. B. Daggett, J. H. Schakel, A. O. Myers, Mr. Davis, C. E. Merrick.

J. R. Bingham of this city, returned the first of the week from a fishing trip to Crane Prairie. He had good luck catching fish, and sent a 22-inch Redside to W. H. Hobbs to show that he was on the job.

Come in and see our new stock of general merchandise—you will save money. Anderson & Tallafarro. 2t2

A. G. Allingham and Dan Greenhalgh returned last Friday from a visit to the Art Wurtzweiler ranch at Black Butte, where they had an enjoyable time.

J. E. Girt, a former resident of this city, was here for a few days last week on business.

H. J. Harris, the cattle man, has gone to Spokane for a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends. Mrs. Harris has been there for some time.

J. M. Judd of Bend, but who used to live here, was in Redmond several days last week on business connected with some real estate he still owns here.

Champ Smith was over from the county seat last Thursday afternoon for a few hours shaking hands with his many friends here.

I. W. Gray, the local agent of the Oregon & Western Colonization Co., who has been confined to his house with an attack of rheumatism, is reported better.

A banquet was held at the M. E. church here Monday night for members of the church, at which 65 were present. A good business meeting was held, and Rev. Ragan, the pastor, reported 25 accessories to the church during the year. District Supt. Perry of Kennewick, Wn., presided at the banquet. Officers for the church were elected and plans laid for the coming year. It is stated renewed interest is being taken in the church.

Mrs. McElroy of Roberts, in the eastern part of the county, was here Tuesday buying a large bill of goods from Lynch & Roberts, the big department store men.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farleigh arrived here Tuesday evening from Eastern Oregon for a visit with Mr. Farleigh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Farleigh who live on the corner of A and 10th streets.

By W. C. Walker going away the city is without a justice of the peace and it is expected the County Court will soon appoint some one to fill the vacancy.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, July 29, at 3 o'clock. All ladies are invited.

There will be a meeting of the Water Users' Association at Bend, Saturday, July 25, at 1:30 p. m. A matter of serious importance to all water users will be discussed and all are urged to attend.

L. E. Smith is showing some fine samples of White Irish Winter Barley that he has just harvested. This particular variety seems to be well adapted to this climate and with only one irrigation produces a heavy yield.

The Bend Steam Laundry has a contract for removing all dirt from all the linen sent to them. Send yours and be sure to be treated right. Phone 1502 and your bundle will be called for and delivered. It

W. Holland and family arrived in the city last week from Seattle and will locate in Redmond. They are living in the Walker residence on the corner of 6th and F streets. Mr. Holland is a son-in-law of I. W. Gray of this city.

Last Saturday while unloading telephone poles from his wagon C. A. Ordway sustained a serious injury to his face. The poles were being pulled off the wagon by a team, and the evener broke and a piece of it struck him in the face, causing a painful wound.

Money savers in every department of our new store. Anderson & Tallafarro. 2t2

W. S. Rodman and family returned Sunday afternoon after a pleasant four days' outing on the Metolius River. Mr. Rodman said there were enough fishermen over there for every fish in the river, but that he caught all he wanted to.

Born, July 18, to Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gray, a son.

Bill Mahaffey last Saturday afternoon gave an exhibition of riding when he rode an outlaw horse in the presence of an interested audience. Bill turned the trick, all right.

J. W. Brewer, state immigration agent, was home from Portland this week. He said he would move his family to Portland if he could rent or sell his house here.

PLEASANT RIDGE

Do not forget the big basket dinner and rally day program to be held at the Pleasant Ridge school house Sunday, July 26. Sunday school 10 a. m., basket dinner 12 m., program and preaching 2 p. m. All are invited to come. By order committee.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. McFarland went to Prineville Wednesday, returning Thursday evening.

Mr. Taylor is baling hay for Mr. Thompson who lives on the L. E. Smith place.

Mr. Fleming is helping Mr. Jarrett with his haying.

Lou Farleigh and Vivian Young of Redmond, rode their bicycles out to the Poplar Farm Thursday evening and visited Wayne Chase.

Andrew Nelson lost a valuable milk cow this week.

Messrs. Coryell, Hewens and Wittmore put in culverts across some ditches this week.

The Pleasant Ridge Sunday school choir met at Mrs. Coryell's Wednesday evening.

The school board held a meeting Wednesday evening.

Hubert Ruple and Wayne Chase made a business trip to Deschutes Saturday evening.

Dan Hunter and Joe Woods were home from the Tumalo Project over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mallery and family were joy riding in this part of the country Sunday.

Aubrey Perry called at the Poplar Farm Sunday.

Kerns and Fuller are hauling wood to Redmond this week.

Mr. Coryell bought a wagon of Mr. Kerns this week.

F. W. Fuller and family, Mrs. Fuller's brothers, Roy and Hubert Ruyle, Mrs. Chase, son Wayne and daughter Etta and Aubrey Perry called at the Bray home Sunday evening.

Alex Duval, who is working on the Tumalo Project, was home over Sunday.

Aubrey Perry went to Bend Monday evening, where he is doing some work for the state.

Mr. Chase's pond is the seat of attraction for the neighbor boys these warm days.

HOMESTEADERS' AID WINS

House Passes Sinnott Bill Giving Additional Acquisition Rights

Representative Sinnott Monday secured the passage through the House of his bill providing that any homesteader who had acquired patent to 160 acres of land in a section where the enlarged homesteading is permitted may acquire 160 acres additional and contiguously located, thus making his entire holdings 320 acres. As the law now stands, additional entry may not be made after final proof has been submitted.

POWELL BUTTE

Mrs. Van Doren and son Raymond left this week for a visit with her people at Yakima.
On July 23 the Sunday School of Terrebonne and the Powell Butte Sunday School are to hold a joint picnic in the grove on the Forrest place at O'Neil.

John Tengman starts the heading season on the Yates place for Peter Paul the middle of this week. The dry land crops are not very large this year, although they look more promising now than they did a short time ago.

Mrs. N. P. Alley has been on the sick list for the past week.

Mrs. J. J. Chapman and Mrs. L. W. Van Doren visited at the Truesdale home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Luckey went to the Deschutes River Sunday hoping the Dolly Vardens would be sociable.

Albert Bandle stopped at Morse's Wednesday evening on his way to his home at Orting, Wn.

The family of Nick Rachor are back on the homestead after spending a couple of months with Mr. Mr. Rachor on the Dinwiddie place on the Ochoco.

Louis and August Holland are helping Mr. Houston put up his hay.

E. A. Bussett has finished repairing his house, having put in new floors, papered throughout and also painted the interior. He also put in double doors between the parlor and dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Iverson called on Mrs. Morse Wednesday.

Allan Wilcox has put a carload of hogs in the fattening pen to get them ready for fall shipment.

Miss Fay Bussett visited at the Morse home Friday.

Wistar Rosenberg of Prineville, spent last week with his uncle, John Luckey, at Sunset Ranch.

Roscoe Howard and C. M. Redfield of Deschutes, visited Houston Lake last Wednesday, looking over the lake and figuring on plans for a new waste canal.

Charlie Johnson, Louis and August Holland went to Redmond Saturday evening to take in the movies.

Mr. Iverson is building a new cellar on his place.

Mrs. John McLeod is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, and her sisters, Mrs. Geo. Shober and Mrs. Mrs. E. A. Bussett.

The Powell Butte Sorosis meets with Mrs. Guy Sears next Wednesday. The meeting was to have been at Mrs. Allys but owing to illness, Mrs. Sears kindly consented to take it on short notice.

Mrs. Tom Houston has been quite sick the last few days. Mrs. Nick Rachor is cooking for the hay crew.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith and family visited Sunday evening at Homestead Acres.

H. J. Lister a Beaver Creek stock man, passed through here Sunday with two carloads of grass fattened dry cows.

Since Ross Bussett is off the ride and working on his farm he is greatly missed by the water users at the lower end of the ride.

Harold Moore, who had his leg badly torn by a mad bear two weeks ago, is improving rapidly. Last Saturday Dr. Hosch took out the stitches.

Dick Vandeventer and son of Eugene are visiting with Geo. and Lee Hobbs.

Bill Parrish arrived here last week from Baker City to spend the balance of the summer with George Hobbs.

Dewey Johnson is helping Reeves Wilcox with his harvest.

In answer to a request for assistance in obtaining a rural mail route Senator Chamberlain has pledged himself to do all in his power to help us, and assures us that the Department will take it up in the near future.

On Sunday, July 19, the Powell Butte boys played a very interesting ball game with the Alfalfa team. The game was called for seven innings, but at the end of the seventh the score stood 7 to 7. The eighth inning was played and the home team won the game.

NAMES FOR MAILING

The Spokesman has the name of every taxpayer in Crook county, with their postoffice address. Persons desiring names for mailing or other purposes can secure same at this office at a reasonable figure.

BABBIT METAL

The Spokesman has about 4,000 pounds of old type metal that is just the thing for babbitt metal, packing for boxes, etc. Same will be sold reasonable. Large quantities sold at a discount.

Light Plant for Sale

The Spokesman has a practically new gasoline lighting plant for sale. It is an up to date pressure system and will be sold very reasonable. Reason for selling—changed to electricity.

The highest mountain in Montana, Granite Peak, with an altitude of nearly 13,000 feet, is in the Bear-tooth National forest.

Norway has 144 tree planting societies. The first was founded in 1900, and since then 26,000,000 trees have been planted, more than 2,000,000 having been set out last year.

J. F. HOSCH, M. D.
PHYSICIAN
and SURGEON
OFFICE:
N. E. Corner 6th and E Sts.
Redmond, - Oregon

F. H. RODEMEYER
PHYSICIAN
and SURGEON
Eyes Tested. Glasses
Properly Fitted
Office in Ehret Bros. block
Redmond, - Oregon

DR. J. BARR
DENTIST
Johnson Building
Redmond, - Oregon

Dr. Theo. Beletski, V. S.
Veterinarian
Treats all Domesticated
Animals
Office: 6th Street, opposite
Postoffice
Phone, 1919
REDMOND, - OREGON

W. B. DAGGETT
Attorney at Law
U. S. COMMISSIONER
OFFICE ONE DOOR NORTH
BANK OF COMMERCE
REDMOND, - OREGON

Denton G. Burdick
Successor to G. A. McFarlane and Burdick & Murphy
LAWYER
Practice in all courts and U. S.
Land Office
REDMOND, - OREGON

McSherry's
Feed Store
REDMOND, OREGON
In Connection with
Redmond Union Warehouse
Company

W. J. Buckley
THE MAN WHO DOES ALL KINDS OF Light and Heavy
Hauling
Phone 502. Redmond, Ore.

HOGS
Thoroughbred Duroc Jerseys
200 head, either sex; gilts open and bred; also sows. Boars old enough for service. Descendants of grand champion of East and West. None better.
Geo. L. Brazee
Phone 2509. REDMOND.
Ranch, Powell Butte