A Woman's Name

Upon it hinges the political existence of a popular reformer, the fate of the "boss" of a powerful machine, the future of his own son-in-law and the reputation of his daughter.

A TELEPHONE OPERATOR

is the possessor of the secret. How hard she tries to be loyal, how desperately she fights and how she is rewarded is most interestingly told in our new serial—

The Woman

A story founded on Wm. C. de Mille's famous play of that name by Albert Payson Terhune.

A tale of tense, dramatic situations from beginning to end.

Prof. Fitts of the O. A. C. will be with County Agriculturist A. E. Lorett next week visiting dairy districts at Redmond, Prineville and Bend for the purpose of interesting the farmers in organization of cow testing associations and improvement of herds. Mr. Lovett hopes to hold several local meetings of interested farmers, and would like to hear from those who wish a meeting held in their vicinity.

Walter Rodman and Wm. Hudson returned last week from their outing and vacation trip to the mountains.

G. W. Davies has leased his wood and iron working shop and expects to go up into the mountains for a vacation.

See the Redmond Feed & Mill Co.
for grain bags. 512

P. M. Reedy has been making some additions to his residence on 9th street near the corner of A St.

Men with mowers were out last week cutting down the weeds on some of the streets in the residence section of the city.

Bayler Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Covell of Portland, stopped here over Friday night on their way to Crater Lake. Mr. Smith is a cousin of L. E. Smith of this city.

Joe Howard sr., one of the well known farmers of the Lower Bridge section, was in town last Saturday.

J. P. Doherty, formerly of this city but now a horny handed farmer in the Powell Butte district, was in the city Saturday evening shaking hands with his numerous friends here.

A farewell dance was given Monday night in Muma's hall in honor of R. L. Schee who expects to leave soon for Iowa on his summer vacation.

J. T. Hardy, traveling freight and passenger agt. of the Oregon Trunk railway, was in town the forepart of the week, and said his road and affiliated lines was doing a satisfactory business this summer.

Tom Sharp caught a Dolly Varden trout at Fall River Falls, about 20 miles above Bend, that weighed 11 pounds and measured 30 inches. The big fish was caught Monday afternoon, and Tom said it took him 25 minutes to land it. This is the largest fish caught in this section this season. Herman Love took a picture of the fish.

Considerable wood is being hauled into town lately. A good deal of it is white juniper, as the red juniper is becoming scarcer each year.

Mrs. J. H. Farleigh and her two grand children left last Thursday to visit with her sister, Mrs. Thos.
Woodward, at Juntura in the eastern part of the state.

L. M. Simpson, manager of the Deschutes Power Co., who is well known in Redmond, is now in a hospital at Spokane recovering from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. The operation was successful.

days go to Farleigh's soda fountain in the Postoffice building where ice cream and all kinds of cool drinks are served. 512

Attorney W. B. Daggett went to Portland Wednesday on professional business.

R. L. Schee, secretary of the Commercial Club, expects to receive 50 Chinese pheasants from the Fish and Game Commission in a short time.
The birds will be placed in different sections around Redmond in order to see how they will stand the winter climate here.

J. Edward Larson, proprietor of the Bend Steam Laundry, was in the city Sunday for a few hours on business connected with his laundry.

George M. Bailey of Philadelphia, president of the Northwest Townsite Co., was here last week looking over his property holdings in the city. His company has two additions to Redmond—one on the south of the city, and the other across the R.
R. track.

C. H. Miller, manager of the Deschutes Mutual Telephone Co., last week put in 15 new phones at Prin-cville on the Pilot Butte line, which is operated in connection with the Deschutes Mutual line. Mr. Miller has contracts to put in more phones in Prineville this week. The Deschutes Mutual Co. is extending their service rapidly to all parts of the county and giving excellent satisfaction.

Sherman Montgomery of Imperial, was in the city Tuesday. He stated the people in his section were not in favor of county division.

Let the Bend Steam Laundry keep your clothes in trim for the summer. Guaranteed work. Phone 1502 or leave bundles at the Hotel Redmond. 611

J. D. Mickle, state dairy and food commissioner, accompanied by his deputy, L. B. Ziemer, was in Redmond last week on a tour of inspection. He stated he found conditions here good, and especially at the creamery. He was enthusiastic in his praise of the cleanly manner in which the creamery is conducted.
This visit of the commissioner was a sort of preliminary one, but later he intends to devote more time to the county and will make a thorough inspection.

Al Wright, who has been in the second hand store business here for over two years, this week sold out his stock of goods to J. O. Cobb, who was also running a second hand store here.
