"HARD TIMES" SOCIAL
BY EPWORTH LEAGUE

GOOD TIME HAD BY YOUNG PEOP-PLE—AMUSING FINES WERE IMPOSED

At the "Hard Times" Social given by the Epworth League in Ehret's hall last Saturday night there were some very questionable characters, and it looked as though despite the fact that the Woman's Club of the city had done much toward relieving the poverty here, that considerable yet remained. Those who participated in the event were requested to come dressed for the part, and a committee met all comers at the door to see that this program was carried out. Frieda Buckley and Heas Woods received prizes for the worst costumes present. About $1 was collected in fines.

Fines imposed on males:
Wearing belt or suspenders, 2c.
Hair combed in middle, 2c.
Wearing rings or jewelry, 2c.
Wearing more than one button on each shoe, 2c.
Wearing necktie, 2c.
Wearing white collar, 3c.
Wearing more than one button on coat, 2c.

THOMAS W. LAWSON HAS STOCK ON WAY

BLOODED CATTLE ON WAY TO THIS COUNTY FOR FOUR-DATION OF HERD.

Thomas W. Lawson, who has recently received several consignments of fine stock, has seven additional shipments on the way for the Rainbow Ranch, owned by his son Douglas Lawson, as well as for the Rainbow Ranch owned by his son in law, Hal McCall. These shipments include blue ribbon cows and bulls, sweepstakes stallions and blooded mares, and seven breeds of hogs.
At a recent Holstein sale in New York, where the auction started with the sale of the world famous bull "Rag Apple Krondyke," at $25,- 000, Mr. Lawson bought Pontiac Krondyke's two best daughters, bred to "Rag Apple Krondyke," as the foundation for his Oregon Holstein herd.

Live here and work here, buy here and sell here, that's the way to make the town bigger, better and brighter.

LYNCH & ROBERTS

The Store of Better Values and Lower Prices

REDMOND, OREGON We buy Butter and Eggs We close 6:30; Saturday 10:00

Redmond and Vicinity

Mining location blanks for sale at this office.

Rev. T. J. Hedges was called to Portland on business the first of the week.

Rev. Harttramf of Bend, is conducting special services at the Presbyterian church here this week.

The basket ball game last night between the Lamonta and Redmond teams was won by the former.

If you are not sure, we suggest that you make the following experiment to help you solve the laundry problem: Send a trial order to the Redmond Steam Laundry, and your difficulties will be over. 2812

Z. Tallaferro of this city, visited with friends at Powell Butte last evening.

Editor O. C. Young of the Culver Tribune, was here last Monday evening on business connected with his paper.

The Deschutes Mutual Telephone Co. has the copy for a new phone directory in the hands of the printer, and the book will soon be issued.

A number of Laidlaw people were here the forepart of the week to attend the sale of horses which the French government was buying.

News has been received here that both Ed and Paul Kennard, former residents of this city, have joined U. S. navy.

The Redmond High School met the Crook County High School team in a hotly contested game of basket ball here last Friday evening in which the visitors won by a score of 44 to 25. In the first half the interest ran so high among the spectators that it was declared their yelling could be heard all over the city.

About 20 basket ball fans from Prineville accompanied the visiting team.

Make it a point next week to send your washing to the Redmond Steam Laundry. You will be much pleased with their work and prompt service. 2812

This section was visited this week by a "silver thaw," as it is called in Portland. The trees and shrubs all were covered with frost that made an attractive appearance.

Born, Monday noon, January 18, at St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, a 7 pound girl. Mother and child doing well.

Negotiations are going on between some of the local men and a promoter for the building of a railroad to Prineville and Sisters from this city.
The plans are only in the preliminary stage yet.

Aug A. Anderson, local manager of the Tum A Lum Lumber Co., returned Tuesday night from Walla Walla, Wn., where he had been on a business trip to the company's headquarters.

Whether you do the laundry work for a big family or just for two, it is a hard piece of work. Just send the washing to the Redmond Steam Laundry and see how much better you will feel, and how well the work will be done. 2812

A piano recital by pupils of Mrs.
Bernice H. Forrest of Bend, will be given at the Presbyterian church here Saturday evening, Jan. 23. An interesting program has been prepared for the event.

Last week Jimmy Fox of this city, a gold location expert, located over 50 people of Redmond on claims on the Deschutes and Crooked rivers and Squaw Creek. Jimmy says there is gold in plenty along these waters, but that it will be an expensive undertaking to get it out.

In a letter recently received by Mrs. J. H. Farleigh of this city, from her sister who lives in Malheur county, the writer stated that the coyotes were more numerous this year than she had ever seen them, and that they were very bold, even coming in on the bedding ground and killing sheep, with herders and dogs both fighting to prevent them. The writer also stated that rabies was very prevalent in that section, a number of cattle having died recently from that cause.

Merchants who are willing to make a sacrifice on goods late in the season are the ones to show a nice fresh line the next season. It also indicates that the merchant doing these stunts is up to date in his methods of doing business. These sales give everybody an opportunity to lay in a late supply of good valuable goods at prices most reasonable. On page 3 of this issue you will see that Lynch & Roberts are offering some splendid bargains and if you read the ad over carefully you may profit thereby.

THE BIG RABBIT HUNT

The date of the big rabbit hunt in the vicinity of Madras has been set for Sunday, the 24th. A special train will be run from Portland to carry hunters from that city and adjoining towns. Many from here will also go in autos to the hunt. It is expected this will be the greatest kill of rabbits ever pulled off in this part of the state.

WAR ON JACK RABBITS

War on jack rabbits is contemplated in a bill introduced at Salem by Representative Forbes of this district. The bill carries an appropriation of $3000 to be used in exterminating them, and provides that County Courts may also make appropriations to be used for this purpose.

WILL HAVE BIG TIME

Prineville is making great preparations for the entertainment of the Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association which will hold a convention there beginning February 9. It is expected that not less than 400 delegates from all parts of the Northwest will be present.
