Miss Marie Austin of Prineville, spent Saturday in Redmond.

W. N. Brown went to Portland Monday for a few days' business trip.

Mrs. Roy Branton of Sisters is spending a few days in Redmond with relatives.

Mrs. B. H. McMickle and her sister, Mrs. Clyde Degenhart, are spending today in Bend.

Miss Nora Livingston of Bend visited her parents, the J. W. Livingstons, last Sunday.

The friends of Mrs. J. A. Willcox will be very much pleased to know that her condition is again very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Windom and Mrs. Carl Windom of Culver, were in Redmond Monday, shopping and visiting friends.

Messrs. Johnson, Driscoll, Ring and Bell were guests of Mrs. John Ryan at the Irish-American dance in Bend last Monday evening.

Sidney H. Ring, of the Benson Timber company, arrived Friday for a four days' visit with Vernon A. Bell both having attended Stanford University.

Miss Beulah Tinner is spending a few weeks visiting in McMinnville, Ore. Miss Rose Armstrong is filling her place at the telephone exchange, during her absence.

Bishop Paddock and Rev. Van Water, who have been holding services at Prineville, came in this morning en route to their home at Hood river.

L. A. Hunt was in from Lower Bridge this morning and feels quite satisfied with the season's prospects and the supply of water now assured to himself and neighbors for the future.

C. P. Becker, one of the successful farmers of the Tumalo section, was transacting business here on Monday. His apary produces large quantities of honey for which he finds a ready local market.

An impression has got abroad that the Redmond creamery will only be a cream collecting station. This is a mistake, as it will continue to manufacture all cream brought in, as heretofore.

Rev. Hazelton has a son in the service who is a musician and is located in New Mexico. In target practice a few days ago, he scored 46 out of a possible 50 at 600 yards, which was the highest score made.

B. H. McMickle reported a very successful trip to New Orleans, where he went with five cars of potatoes. The dealers in New Orleans were highly complimentary about our potatoes, saying that they were the best ever seen on that market.

James Dillon and brother arrived from Portland some time ago and are located on their land north of town opposite the Sturdivan place. James Dillon was roadmaster for the S. P. & S., when that road built in here, and is well known to the old timers.

The Women's Club Red Cross Auxiliary gave a Kensington at the club rooms Tuesday afternoon. It is expected to make this a monthly affair, serving a ten cent tea, for the purpose of keeping the club rooms clean for the surgical dressings class.

A joint meeting of the Conquest and Bible class was held at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. The matter of installing electric lights was discussed and a committee appointed, which expects to make arrangements soon. After the business meeting a social time was had. A Bible question match proved very interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Schrank invited the classes to a meeting at their home on the second Tuesday night in April.

Ice cream and cool drinks promise to be mighty scarce articles here this summer. No natural ice has been put up, owing to the open winter, and this entire section, including Prineville, must depend on the plant at Bend. Ammonia is scarce and almost impossible to get, and the factory may not be able to get enough to keep running. J. B. Roe is putting in two cars of ice from Bend, and says that he will keep meat cool for a while, anyway.

A sawmill is being unloaded here and will be put up near Sisters and operated by interests connected with the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., the object being to supply the local demand and ship whatever surplus there may be. The old Duckett mill at Sisters will be closed down in a couple of weeks and moved to near Bend, thus leaving only the Wilson mill, and the one to be operated by Barney Markell and Roy Branton in that section.

Carl Woods has rented his farm at Sisters to a man from Spokane.

Philip Dobson returned home from Spokane Monday evening and reports a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Davis moved Monday to the house recently vacated by Rev. Loree's family.

W. K. McCormick sustained a broken arm at Tumalo a few days ago, while cranking his Ford.

The infant son of John Adams has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is now almost recovered.

R. P. Richardson and F. C. Westwood of the Bulletin force, were here on Monday.

J. S. Ayres, who has been delivery man for Mohler & Doty for some time, left for the Ochoco Sunday.

Miss Jennie McVicker, daughter of Rev. E. E. McVicker, arrived from the Willamette valley on Saturday evening.

Rev. Hartranft, local food administrator, will speak at Terrebonne, on the food question, on Friday evening, March 29th.

Rev. McVicker will preach at Terrebonne at 11 a. m.; Cloverdale at 3 p. m., and at Redmond at 7:30 next Sunday.

A special meeting of the Redmond Women's Club is called for Tuesday afternoon, March 26th, and all members are requested to be present, as business of importance is to be considered.

While playing at the Dahl home after dark Tuesday evening Margaret Beaver ran into a barbed wire fence, cutting her throat so badly that it was necessary to take nine stitches to close the wound.

Charles Coudert, a former piano agent at Bend, has been held at The Dalles for attempting to sell copies of "The Unfinished Mystery," a work that was forbidden circulation some time ago.

James Haft, believed to have been the oldest man in Oregon, died in Curry county a few days ago. He was in his 106th year. In the early days he was engaged in packing across the mountains.

Quite a party of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Steinkopf surprised her Saturday by coming to help celebrate her birthday anniversary. To show their patriotism, no refreshments were served, but a pleasant social evening was spent.

As Mrs. Toney will soon leave Redmond, Mrs. Leavitt entertained in her honor at a St. Patrick's tea on Sunday afternoon. The guests were Mesdames Stevens, Lauderback, Lawson, Studebaker, Shingler, Boettger, and the Misses Cook and Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tilton of Detroit, Kansas, came in unexpectedly Saturday night for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Jared Moore and family. They left home February 1, and have made a leisurely trip through Colorado, Wyoming and southern California, coming here by way of Portland.

Chester Brown, one of Uncle Sam's boys, who has been home on a 15 days' furlough, was the guest of honor at a party given by the Baptist young people and other friends at the Dittmore home Monday evening. A general good time was had with games, music, etc., and refreshments of punch and wafers were served. Private Brown left last night for his post of duty.

The farewell party which was given by Mrs. L. L. Gooding last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Blair, was attended by nearly all the ladies of the Presbyterian Guild and several other friends. Mrs. Gooding was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Jared Moore and Mrs. Crabtree. Mrs. Blair was presented with a bedspread and napkins by ladies of the Guild, and several individual gifts were presented also.

The Methodist church service flag was presented last Sunday morning with a splendid patriotic program. Addresses were made by Hon. G. L. Dobson and the pastor, Rev. Hazelton; music by a quartette composed of Chad Irvin, Mr. Warner and Mesdames Cuning and Durand, and the reading of a poem, "Our Nation's Trinity," by Mrs. Hazelton. This poem was written over twenty years ago, at the time of the Spanish war, by Mr. Hazelton's brother and is said to be exceptionally appropriate at this time. Fifteen stars are on the flag, with one more to be added, that standing for Earl Tinner.

FINIS WOODS SELLS RANCH

Finis Woods, one of the real old timers of this section, has sold his ranch north of town and will leave about the first of the month for Walla-walla county, where he has bought a ranch of 400 acres with much outlying range and where he will engage in wool growing on an extensive scale.

Mr. Woods came here thirteen years ago when the country was a wilderness, and by industry and thrift has amassed a competence. We are sorry to see Mr. Woods and his family leave us, as they are most desirable citizens, and it is to be hoped they will continue to enjoy the highest prosperity in their new home and vocation.

Denton G. Burtick has bought the lot between his office and the new Mohler & Doty store building.

Miss Maude Butler entertained a number of the "Freshie" girls at a taffy pull and "consolation" party Monday evening.

Ed. Barnard was in on Monday just long enough to say "Hello," and then hustled back to the lambs, of which he is getting about 120 per cent.

Mrs. Blair and son William left on Monday morning, the former for California points, and the latter for Marshfield, Oregon. Robert remains here until the close of the school year.

Manager Miller of the telephone company, has been rearranging the circuits in town, and incidentally sending in calls to which no answer was given whenever lines happened to cross.

Mrs. Shipp and daughters, Miss Dishman, Miss Davis, Mrs. Neveill, Mrs. Glaze, Mrs. Morris and daughter and Mrs. Sears were Prineville ladies who were in town Saturday to attend Lynch & Roberts' spring opening.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils had a party Friday evening, with Miss Elizabeth Fry as hostess at the Dittmore home. Their teacher, Mr. Tuck, and Mrs. Covert were chaperons, and a joyous time was had until a late hour.

LYNCH & ROBERTS' OPENING

Redmond put on metropolitan airs Saturday, the occasion of Lynch & Roberts' spring opening. The streets were lined with automobiles and the store was thronged with people all day but particularly in the afternoon.

The store was specially decorated, though the goods on display were in themselves decoration enough. There were handsome suits, dresses, shoes and HATS galore, and a comprehensive showing of all spring fabrics.

Most excellent music was furnished throughout the afternoon by Mrs. Durand, piano; Miss Hoskins, violin; and James Austin, clarinet.

Mrs. Fuller presided at a table where delectable Hawaiian pineapple was served with whipped cream, accompanied by Liberty crackers.

All of our neighboring communities furnished contingents of admiring shoppers, and in both a social and business way the day was a great success.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The meeting on Monday dismissed the regular routine business and it was turned into a love feast because of so many visiting celebrities, among whom were Hon. Robert N. Stanfield, Hon. C. D. Cusick of Albany, J. M. Guyton of Coos Bay, Thomas G. Ryan of Portland, Messrs Hunter, Whisnant and McKay of Bend, and others whose names have escaped us.

Mr. Stanfield was the first speaker. He is a candidate for the United States senate, but declined to talk politics on this occasion, and dealt in "glittering generalities" on subjects of general interest to everybody. He is an interesting speaker, possesses a pleasing personality, and impresses one as a solid, substantial citizen.

Hon. C. D. Cusick is an Albany banker and a member of the state senate. He is in the race for state treasurer and those who know him speak in highest praise of his ability, patriotism and general fitness for any office of trust.

The real orator of the occasion, however, proved to be Thomas G. Ryan, assistant district attorney of Multnomah county, representing the Liberty Loan committee. He is an Irishman and one of the most forceful fluent speakers ever heard in Central Oregon. His explanation of the war situation and the necessity for bond purchases by the citizen, while brief, was a masterly effort and a convincing one. Mr. Ryan will make an effort to be with us on April 6th, and no resident of Central Oregon can afford to miss hearing him.

Bro. Whisnant of the Bend Press spoke of the great good that was sure to follow the visit of these gentlemen to this section and lauded each his aspirations for political preference.

Hon. D. G. Burdick of Redmond, also gave a short synopsis of events of the last legislative assembly, wherein "Bob" Stanfield and C. D. Cusick had at all times shown their fairness toward Central Oregon and her best interests.
