

Additional resources

Additional resource listings are available online at www.redmondspokesman.com/communityguide, including:

Arts and culture

Concerts, visual arts and support for artists and writers.

Breweries

Redmond has a handful of locally based breweries and distilleries.

Churches

There are more than three dozen churches in the Redmond area, with many offering both in person and online services.

Clubs and memberships

Redmond is home to many fraternal, civic and special interest clubs and organizations.

Education and school information

Public, private and alternative schools, as well as pre-kindergarten and higher education opportunities in the area.

Medical care facilities

St. Charles Health System and many independent clinics are located in Redmond.

Neighborhood parks

There are parks and playgrounds distributed throughout the city in neighborhood areas.

Youth sports and activities

Groups providing youth activities range from swimming lessons to Scouts to after school programs, and sports including football, basketball, skiing, and more.

BECAUSE SUN DAMAGE IS A YEAR-ROUND CONCERN

Central Oregon
Dermatology
 Mark Hall, MD

APPTS
 AVAILABLE IN OUR REDMOND
 OFFICE

541.678.0020 • CentralOregonDermatology.com

REDMOND LOCATED AT:
ST. CHARLES FAMILY CARE

388 SW BLUFF DR • BEND
OLD MILL BUSINESS DISTRICT

Appointments also available in Prineville, La Pine and Madras