Redmond Proficiency Academy outperforms in regional acting competition

From a press release
Redmond Proficiency Academy's (RPA) Thespian Troupe No. 7715 recently competed in the annual Oregon Thespians South Regional Acting Competition, winning 26 ribbons for excellence in numerous acting categories, the greatest number for any school in the region.

The competition was hosted by Central High School in Independence, Ore., where students were able to compete in-person this year, a shift from last year's all-digital competition.

"Watching these RPA students come back to in-person competition amidst endless pandemic challenges and seeing their hard work rewarded was a true highlight," said RPA Theatre Director Kate Torcom. "Ribbons aside, their professionalism, empathy and grace in the room was unmatched. They truly represent what RPA is all about."

RPA students ribboned in the following categories, qualifying them for the State Acting Showcase Competition at the Oregon Thespians State Festival in April:

Large Group Musical — Seniors Kendra McGuire and Casey James; junior Lydia Carter;

Meet Kenia. Kenia was an owner surrendered here at BrightSide.

Kenia is a crate trained and potty trained dog who has a ton of energy. His previous owners emphasized that he is an amazing dog that is just looking for a home with the time he needs. He is a loving and playful dog who enjoys hugs and cuddling. Kenia is said to do okay in the car but can be a bit wiggly on longer drives.

We do not think a home with cats is suitable for him as his play behavior with them is chasing. Kenia is a treat-motivated guy so it shouldn't be hard to win him over.

If you would like to meet Kenia please come to BrightSide, 1355 NE Hemlock Ave, Redmond. Phone: 541-923-0882.
