Nunez-Mooney named VP at Columbia Bank

Spokesman staff
Columbia Bank hired Jason Nunez-Mooney as vice president and commercial lending officer in Central Oregon. Nunez-Mooney, of Redmond, has nearly 13 years of banking experience, including 10 years in commercial banking. In his current role, Mooney provides a variety of commercial loans and manages a business portfolio. "Jason brings a wealth of experience to Columbia that will benefit existing and new customers," said Chris DuPont, Columbia vice president and commercial banking team leader in Bend. "We're thrilled to have him aboard." Mooney previously worked at Bank of the Cascades and First Interstate Bank. He has expertise in medical and real estate lending as well as a background in treasury management. Mooney has a bachelor's degree in psychology from Eastern Oregon University. He also serves as treasurer and finance committee chair at Kids Center, has volunteered for the Latino Partnership Program, the Redmond Education Foundation and the Boys & Girls Club.

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Rhoda! This beautiful girl is here at BrightSide waiting for her forever home. Rhoda is a ten-year-old, long-haired love bug who came from a home with other kitties so we believe she will do well with others. In the shelter, Rhoda has been fairly reserved and shy — but with a little patience she will warm up. If you would like to meet Rhoda, come to BrightSide.

Local runners excel in Dirty Half

Central Oregon runners dominated the Dirty Half Marathon, staged June 11 on a dirt-trail loop near Phil's Trailhead west of Bend. Bend's Max King won the 13.1-mile men's race in 1 hour, 17 minutes, 31 seconds, boasting a 5:53-per-mile pace. Chase Parnell, also of Bend, finished second in 1:22:53, and Redmond's Evan Moreau took third in 1:23:29. Bend's Renee Metivier won the women's competition and was fourth overall with a time of 1:24:13, clocking a 6:23-per-mile pace. Amber Tookey, of Boise, Idaho, finished second among women in 1:33:10 and Bend's Kerri Lyons was third in 1:33:47. Some 339 runners of 473 registered completed the 21st edition of the Dirty Half, which is billed as the oldest half-marathon race in Central Oregon. The race included 180 women's finishers and 159 men's finishers. For more information visit footzonebend.com/dirty-half. —Bulletin staff report

CHUCK of the week

Our fourth "Chuck of the Week" is Arnold, who was photographed recently by Janette Mauer, near the American Legion Community Park in Redmond. Mauer said Arnold was "patiently waiting for the sun to come out," perhaps to watch some baseball on the nearby fields. Have you snapped a photo of your own favorite rockchuck? If so email it to news@redmondspokesman.com and you could win a free subscription to the newspaper.
