Spokesman hires new reporter

By Spokesman staff
The Redmond Spokesman has hired a full-time reporter: Nick Rosenberger.

Rosenberger previously worked as a general assignment reporter for the East Oregonian and Hermiston Herald. His work has appeared in newspapers and magazines stretching across the state including Willamette Week, The Astorian, Bend Magazine, Blue Mountain Eagle and more.

Rosenberger graduated from the University of Oregon in 2021, where he was a writing coach, a reporter for the Catalyst Journalism Project and the Daily Emerald, as well as the managing editor of Ethos Magazine.

"Journalism is what I've always wanted to do," he said. "And I can't wait to help tell the stories of Redmond."

Outside of work, you can find him running trails, blasting down the mountains on a cheap pair of skis or obsessing about food.

Email him at rosenberger@redmondspokesman.com.

Music on the Green begins in Redmond

BY BEN SALMON
For The Bulletin

Redmond's long-running free summer concert series, Music on the Green, returns this year to Sam Johnson Park, or as my kids call it, "the park with the really cool playground."

They're right! The park does have a really cool playground. And on Wednesday, June 29, it'll also host local quartet JuJu Eyeball, whose high-energy Beatles covers make them one of the most in-demand bands in the region.

Next week's show will kick off the 27th Music on the Green series, which will also feature food and drink options, vendor booths and bouncy houses for the kids. Lawn chairs and blankets are welcome. The event is scheduled to wrap up around 7:30 p.m.

Here's the rest of the schedule:
July 13 — Heller Highwater

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Molly! Transferred to us from Oklahoma, this lady is eager to get out of here. Molly is a tiny and mighty pup that has the energy of mentos and a bottle of soda at times.

She's a go, go, goer who loves to explore anywhere she can. This little firecracker is looking for an active home as she isn't a fan of sitting still.

We know that Molly does well with other dogs, but we will require a meet-and-greet between her and other dogs in the home. We do not believe Molly would do well with cats as she can be a handful for calm bodies.
