Cascades Radio Hour series continues July 6 in Redmond

BY BEN SALMON
For The Spokesman

A new concert series at Redmond's High Desert Music Hall will host popular Central Oregon folk singers Beth Wood and Dennis McGregor next week, and several nationally touring acts over the next two months.

The series is a project of Cascades Radio Hour, which broadcasts on Jive Radio. Wood and McGregor are regulars at the Sisters Folk Festival, thanks to their sharp storytelling and their compelling tunes. They'll share a bill at High Desert Music Hall on Wednesday, July 6.

The rest of the Cascades Radio Hour series' lineup includes legendary acoustic guitarist Leo Kottke (on July 20), fast-rising singer-songwriters Amythyst Kiah (July 13) and Margo Cilker (Aug. 17), renowned folk singer Darrell Scott (Aug. 10) and world-class Zydeco act C.J. Chenier & The Red Hot Louisiana Band (Aug. 24).

Get more info on the lineup and the series at cascadesradiohour.com.

Beth Wood and Dennis McGregor: Free (suggested donation $15), 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 6.

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Marie!
This little lady was saved from a house fire and brought to Brightside Animal Center for recovery. Now this survivor has healed enough to find a new forever home.

Marie is a very sweet, gentle, and affectionate kitty. She is looking for a calm and quiet home where she can slowly become comfortable again. Marie has been shy at the shelter and we are doing everything we can to help her be comfortable. What Marie really needs though, is a loving home.

CHUCK of the week

The July 5, 2022 "Chuck of the Week" was too fast for the camera. But although he wasn't able to be captured on film, we know quite a lot about his habits and interests, making him a prime choice for this week's top prize.

According to Lee Barker of Redmond, on the morning of May 31 "Delbert went to the Rainbird Shower in the Dry Canyon and was returning when we crossed trails. Unfortunately he had forgotten his bathrobe, so shyness motivated him to make tracks for home to evade embarrassment. These wet footprints show where he just was."

Have you snapped a photo of your own favorite rockchuck (or the trails they leave behind)? If so email it to news@redmondspokesman.com and you could win a free subscription to the newspaper.
