Local nonprofit gets $18,000 to support foster parents

Redmond-based nonprofit Every Child Central Oregon announced that it has been awarded $18,729 in grants from Oregon Community Foundation to support recruitment and retention efforts for foster homes in Central Oregon.

"This generous funding allows us to recruit, retain, and care for children and families impacted by foster care in Central Oregon more robustly," said Melissa Williams, Executive Director of Every Child Central Oregon.

The funding included $17,729 from Harrington Fund of Oregon Community Foundation and $1,000 from the Warm Family Fund of Oregon Community Foundation.

Every Child Central Oregon serves Deschutes, Crook, Jefferson counties, and The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs by mobilizing community to uplift and support those impacted by foster care.

Bethlehem Inn in urgent need of bottled water

Bethlehem Inn put out an urgent request for bottled water on Monday, June 25, as extreme temperatures hit Central Oregon and are expected to continue through the end of the month.

With supplies of bottled water running low, the nonprofit has an immediate need for bottled water as the heat poses severe health risks for men, women and children experiencing homelessness.

According to the press release, donations of cases of water (12-16oz bottles) will be accepted at Bethlehem Inn's Bend location at 3705 N. Hwy. 97.

Public invited to join Aug. 17 seminar on Central Oregon water rights

As water becomes scarcer in Central Oregon — and debate rages over how to conserve water and share it among a variety of stakeholders — the Deschutes River Conservancy is taking a closer look at some of the more divisive issues with a new, year-long series of public seminars.

The conservancy's series of free monthly seminars, Raise the Deschutes, is designed to help educate the public about water management in Central Oregon. The series provides opportunities for the public to engage with water experts who will discuss water supply, river hydrology, climate change, canal piping, and water conservation options.

The next seminar, scheduled for Aug. 17, is titled Whose Water is it Anyway? Water Rights 101 and will focus on water rights in the Deschutes Basin.

The seminar will be held in person between 6-8 p.m. at the Open Space Event Studios at 220 NE Lafayette Ave. in Bend. For those who can't make the in-person event, the seminar will also live-streamed. Interested participants can sign up at raisethedeschutes.org.

The website also contains a link to watch the previous seminar (the first in the series), titled What's Going on with Our Rivers? Hydrology and Water Management in the Upper Deschutes Basin.

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Max!

This mighty meathead was brought to BrightSide and now awaits his forever home. This happy senior loves snuggling up as much as he still enjoys playing with people. Max is a people pup — meaning he does not like any other animals, just his human friends. Max is looking for an owner with a low traffic home where he can lounge, play, and snuggle all day.
