100 YEARS AGO

August 3, 1922 — Redmond girls pass teachers' examinations

Mrs. Lottie Mead, Kathryn Gideon, Eugena Gideon and Izelle Ridgely are graduates of Redmond Union High School who took the teachers' examination at Bend last month.

County superintendent J. Alton Thompson reports that, while the examination was unusually hard, only one teacher in the county failed to pass out all of those examined and several made grades of above 90 in all but two subjects.

75 YEARS AGO

August 7, 1947 — Co-op purchases potato warehouse

Deschutes farmers co-op, local organization affiliated with Pacific Supply cooperative, has purchased all facilities of Deschutes Potato Warehouse Company. It was announced today by Arthur Stevens, president of the Board of directors of Deschutes farmers co-op.

The warehouse, 90 x 250-foot in size, was constructed about three years ago by the Weigand brothers, Kenneth Duling and Frank McCaffery. Included with the sale of the warehouse was a tract of land owned by the company.

The warehouse will be converted into a modern potato packaging and grading plan, in addition to storage, said Phil Farrell, manager of the co-op. New equipment will be installed and the facilities will be ready for the 1947 potato harvest. Deschutes Farmers Co-op is taking immediate possession.

Acquisition of the warehouse will give the farmers co-op more trackage, increased space for handling and storing potatoes and the advantages of trackable operation, it was pointed out. The co-op will handle all potatoes through a pool marketing program this fall, Farrell said.

50 YEARS AGO

August 9, 1972 — School budget passes

On the third try with moderate balloting, the Redmond school district Thursday won voter approval of its $1,624,560 operating budget for 1972-73 by a tally of 860 to

521. Previously the budget had been defeated on May 1 and June 1.

All five voting precincts except Cloverdale approved the budget, reduced by over $100,000 since the last election. Terrebonne, which traditionally has cast negative votes, came through with a tie vote.
