Annual Movie Night at the Vineyard returns to Terrebonne

BY LENA FELT
The Spokesman

Every year Faith, Hope & Charity Vineyards hosts several outdoor movie showings for adults and kids to enjoy under the big, starry sky of Central Oregon.

This Sunday, the movie of choice is "Back to the Future," the classic sci-fic comedy from 1985. The movie screens from 7-9 p.m., but Jacki Bailey, the office manager at Faith, Hope & Charity Vineyards, suggests people arrive early to snag a good spot on the lawn and order some food and drinks to enjoy during the movie.

Outside food and drinks are not allowed, but there is pizza, wine by the bottle, beer, popcorn and candy available for purchase. "It's such a beautiful venue, and to be able to spread out with your kids on the lawn and enjoy a movie under the stars, there's just something magical about it," Bailey said.

This is not only a family-friendly event; pets are also encouraged.

"We're helping to support the Humane Society of Central Oregon, so guests are allowed to bring their dogs with them," Bailey said. "And we're hoping that they bring either a bag of dog food to donate, or something from their wish list on their website."

That wish list can be found at hscs.org.

A donation to the Humane Society of Central Oregon helps aid the adoption and care of their beloved animals. The Humane Society of Central Oregon accepts monetary donations or shelter supplies.

"There will also be a representative from the Humane Society on site to answer any questions and talk about what they're doing," Bailey said.

The cost of attendance is $20 for adults, $15 for children 3-13 and free for children under three.

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Alex!
This sweet senior is looking for a quiet and gentle home to settle down in. Alex was brought back to BrightSide as she prefers adults over children.

Alex has been sweet and quiet here at BrightSide enjoying attention and head scratches while purring for all to hear.

If you are looking for a mellow fluff bug, come meet Alex!

TRUCK OF THE WEEK

Name of truck: Órale! Street Tacos
Location: 652 NW Seventh St., Redmond
Hours: 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday
Owner: Erika Robles Opened: June 2022 Type of food: Mexican and American

About the cart: Robles opened her cart on the Otto's Landing patio after a customer from a restaurant where she used to work recommended her to Otto's Landing owner Nick Olson. She said the space feels "like family," especially with the support she's gotten from the bar and its kid-inclusive, family feel. Robles runs Órale! with the help of her niece and nephew. The term "órale" is a slang word in Mexican Spanish that Robles roughly translated to "right on."

Your first order should be: Robles recommended the quesabirria — a dish that is popular in Mexico but less known in Mexican-American cuisine. Órale!'s quesabirria is a hit, Robles said.
