

TRUCK OF THE WEEK

BY NICOLE ROGERS
For The Spokesman

Name of truck: Shred Town
Location: Wild Ride Brewing, 332 SW 5th.
Hours: Everyday from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Owner: Kurt Vorheese
Opened: 2010
Type of food: Fusion of genres that includes Mexican, Asian and other influences
About the cart: Manager Jason Henderson says they have the "greatest selection of healthy food" with a little bit of everything for everyone. Shred Town serves a wide variety of foods, one of its trademarks is a barbecue pulled pork sandwich, which is topped with a house slaw on a brioche toasted bun and served with house-cut fries.
Your first order should be: Henderson recommends the loaded nachos, which includes house-made tortilla chips slathered in a cheese sauce, sprinkled with cheddar jack cheese. It's then topped with olives, black beans, jalapeños, guacamole, green onion, sour cream and salsa. It comes with a choice of chicken or pork.
Fun fact: Owner Kurt Vorheese built and outfitted the the truck himself. He started outfitting food trucks when he was just 18 years old. He built the Shred Town truck and has built others and sold them across Oregon as the food truck boom continues.

Rimrock Trails raises more than $25,000

By SPOKESMAN STAFF
Rimrock Trails raised more than $25,000 on Sept. 22 at the organization's first fundraising event.
The "A Night to Remember" gala was held at Gompers Distillery in Redmond. The funds raised will go to "ensure local individuals and families have access to mental health counseling and substance use treatment services, no matter their financial circumstances," according to Rimrock.
"Rimrock Trails has been serving Central Oregon for over 32 years. What we admire most about this community is that time and time again, when a need in the community is recognized, inspiring and dedicated people come out to help," said Michelle Duff, community relations manager, in a release.
