

Passengers board a plane at the Redmond Municipal Airport, Central Oregon’s only commercial airport. Timothy Park Photography/Submitted

» Transportation

Redmond Municipal Airport (Roberts Field)

Roberts Field-Redmond Municipal Airport is Central Oregon’s only commercial airport. Alaska, American, Avelo, Delta and United offer daily or seasonal flights to Burbank, Denver, Los Angeles, Palm Springs, Phoenix, Salt Lake City, San Diego, San Francisco and Seattle. (www.flyrdm.com)

Bus service

Two fixed-route bus companies provide daily service to Portland and Salem. Central Oregon Breeze (www.cobreeze.com, 541-389-7469) runs from the Redmond Airport to Portland daily, twice on Fridays, including stops at Portland International Airport, Union Station and the Gresham MAX train stop. Greyhound (www.greyhound.com) does not come to Redmond, but provides daily service from Bend to Salem via Eugene.

A semi-fixed route bus system will make its debut in Redmond in 2023, operated by Cascades East Transit. It connects places not just in Redmond, but the Hub City to Bend, Sisters, Prineville, and Madras multiple times a day and on weekdays. Best place to catch the bus is the transit hub in Redmond, 777 SW Kalama Ave. See schedules at

A bus waits at a 2018 ribbon cutting for Cascades East Transit’s Redmond Transit Hub. The design allows buses to pull in and get out of the stops more easily than traditional curbs. Spokesman file www.cascadeseasttransit.com. An on-demand transit bus is available for trips within Redmond, with reservations. Call 541-385-8680 at least 24 hours in advance.

Road conditions: Information on state highway conditions and statewide webcams can be found at www.tripcheck.com or dial 511.