Festival of Trees tickets now on sale

By SPOKESMAN STAFF

Central Oregon's beloved fundraiser and event, Festival of Trees, returns to the Deschutes County Fairgrounds in December.

After a two-year hiatus due to the pandemic, Hospice of Redmond will host a free family-fun tree preview, gala and live tree auction. Both events will be held Dec. 3. Tickets are now on sale for the gala and live tree auction.

Festival of Trees has been a holiday tradition for Central Oregonians for almost four decades.

Now in its 39th year, the event has returned to its traditional format with free, in-person viewing at the Deschutes County Fairgrounds, a formal gala and live auction.

"Our team has worked very hard to make the 39th Annual Festival of Trees a gala to remember," said Jane McGuire, executive director of Hospice of Redmond.

The community is invited to the fairgrounds for a free viewing of the trees on Saturday, Dec. 3, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The gala and live auction will begin at 5 pm. Tickets are available on the Hospice of Redmond website.

"We are overwhelmed with excitement about this year's event," said Jayme O'Neill, marketing coordinator at Hospice of Redmond. "After two years of not being able to host Festival of Trees in person, we wanted to bring Central Oregon an event like none other."

Funds raised at Festival of Trees make it possible for Hospice of Redmond to provide terminally ill people and their families services not covered by Medicare or private insurance. These services include bereavement counseling, the transitions program for people with life-limiting illnesses, and Camp Sunrise, an annual grief camp for children throughout Central Oregon.

For more information, contact Hospice of Redmond at (541) 548-7483 or email festivaloftrees@hospiceofredmond.org.
