The Redmond Holiday Market, sponsored by the Redmond Chamber of Commerce, popped up on Dec. 3 at Centennial Park with tents and shops selling a multitude of knickknacks, gifts and food. Santa Claus was also in attendance.

Some of the businesses and organizations in attendance included See's Candy, Redmond Kiwanis, Bend Permanent Jewelry Co., Keystone Natural Beef and Eqwine Wine Bar.

Across the street, the Redmond Ice Rink also opened to the public this week.

Kiley and Kristen Barnes, who spent Dec. 3 practicing hockey moves during the rink's free skate session, said it was great that Redmond is able to provide the opportunity to skate without having to drive to Bend — where they're participating in the Bend Park and Recreation District's hockey league at the Pavilion.

"There's a lot of demand in this area," Kiley said. "There's so much interest."

The Redmond Ice Rink lets them get practice in before their next competitions.

Kristen said they've enjoyed participating in hockey because it's something they can do together, get some exercise in and is a great way to meet people.

The ice rink is open 5 to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 3 to 10 p.m. Friday through Saturday and from 3 to 9 p.m. on Sunday. There are also free skate sessions from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Friday through Sunday.

Rental skates and a session on the ice cost $5 while it costs $1.25 for those with their own skates. Families may also buy a $15 family pass for up to six people from the same household.
