Honor to Whom Honor is Due.
"And now, gentlemen," says the chairman of the committee on awards at the millinery exhibition. "the question before us is to whom shall the chief prize go? Of the many pattern bonnets submitted that of Miss Meekleigh is far and away the most artistic."

"But," persists a more experienced member, "the bonnet exhibited by Mme. Sokkettuum is far and away the most expensive."
A few minutes later the medal was planned on Mme. Sokkettuum.—Judge.

Peculiar Spot.

Doubtless the most unique spot in Europe is the village of Altenberg, on whose border three countries meet. It is ruled by no monarch, has no soldiers, no police and no taxes. Its inhabitants speak a curious jargon of French and German combined and spend their days in cultivating the land or working in the valuable calamine mine of which the village boasts.

After the Honeymoon.

She—I just know you don't love me as much as you did.
He—But, darling, how can you think that?
"Because you are not half so foolish as you were."—Life.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

To prevent flannel from shrinking put it away in a drawer. Do not keep on going to look at it, as the shrinking habit is often due to nervousness.

Happy, Healthy Children.

Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripe nor sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefer them to all other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold by Brewer Drug Co.

Nearing the Danger Line.

Algernon—Tommy, do you think your sister would marry me?
Tommy—Yes; she'd marry almost anybody from what she said to me.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite among mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Brewer Drug Co.

He Went.

He—Be candid and tell me when you want me to go.
She—It's a couple of hours too late for that.—Smart Set.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy a clam." For sale by Brewer Drug Co.

Rank Heresy.

He—So the engagement is broken off?
She—Yes. He told her he thought she should stop reading novels and read something more substantial—something that would improve her.
He—Well?
She—Well, the idea of a man intimating to his fiancée that she could be improved in any way!—Philadelphia Press.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by all druggists.

JAPANESE POETRY.

It is Confined to Lyrical Effusions of the Utmost Brevity.

Japanese poetry is absolutely confined to lyrical effusions of the utmost brevity. The Japanese poem is generally limited to three, four or five lines and seldom exceeds a few dozen. One would look in vain for a poem of the length of Bryant's "Thanatopsis." Japanese literature has never invaded the epic field and knows no metrical form which even remotely resembles an ode, a ballad or a long poetic narrative like "The Ancient Mariner." Also minor metrical arrangements like the rondel, triolet, villanelle, etc., are absent. Of what, then, does Japanese poetry consist? If one discusses its apparent lack of scope and resources with a Japanese, he is sure to point to the "Manyoshu Kogi" (Collection of Myriad Leaves). True enough, its bulkiness is most alarming, as it extends to 122 volumes. But it proves to be only an anthology of short poems, each complete, bearing no relation to other stanzas, except in the choice of subject, the work being divided into poems of spring, summer, autumn, winter, poems of parting, love, sorrow, etc. Collections of this kind, admirably printed and supplied with numerous indexes and elaborate commentaries, are published at intervals under the auspices of the government. They represent the classical poetry of Japan.—The Reader.

Calling the Doctor.

It is a popular delusion that doctors are compelled to attend to any and every call made upon them. Nothing of the kind; but medical men very rarely refuse, although in many cases the chance of receiving a fee is remote. Street accidents or people suddenly taken ill (sometimes a malingeringer) will make a kind hearted onlooker run to the nearest doctor for assistance, quite oblivious as to who is responsible for payment. As a matter of fact, the one who calls the doctor is liable.—London Tit-Bits.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Keeping Her Away.

Photographer—Don't assume such a fierce expression. Look pleasant.
Murphy—Not on your life! My wife is going to send one of those pictures to her mother, and if I look pleasant she'll come down on a visit.—Kansas City Independent.

Working Overtime.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel trouble. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at all druggists.

Two Doses Daily Enough.

Hewitt—Briet used to be a big eater, but now he has only two meals a day.
Jewett—You know the reason, don't you?
Hewitt—No; what is it?
Jewett—The doctor gave him some medicine to take after each meal.—Brooklyn Life.

Noodles Under Fire.

"You must give Mr. Noodles a chance," interposed his hostess. "He's collecting his thoughts."
"Noodles always had such a fad for collecting rarities," observed the joshier in chief sympathetically.—Syracuse Herald.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.
Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Brewer Drug Co.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Indiana, who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Brewer Drug Co.

Boys.

Boy—My mother says there was a pound of sand in the last box of prunes you sent up.
Grocer—Well, you tell your mother that was the best scrubbing sand. She is a good customer, and I threw it in.—Philadelphia Record.

Troubles of Her Own.

"I asked her if she would scream for her mother if I kissed her."
"What did she say?"
"She said her mother was fully capable of doing her own screaming."—Houston Post.

In Trade.

"Didn't you have a pleasant voyage?" he asked.
"Oh, yes," replied Miss Greatblood, "except for the vulgar trade winds we encountered."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Moslem Women's Freedom.

There has been a vast amount of pity wasted upon the Moslem woman. It may surprise even the woman suffragist to learn that the laws of Mohammed confer upon women a greater degree of legal protection than any code of laws since the middle Roman law. Only the more recent liberties and protection granted to married women by the laws of divorce and the exclusive property rights now in force in the United States can be properly compared to those in Turkey. Under the Moslem laws the provision for security to the wife the free and uncontrolled possession of her property is minutely stipulated in the marriage contract. A suitable sum is also arranged for her maintenance in accordance with her husband's rank.—Century.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues, before being expelled by the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by Brewer Drug Co.

The Earthworm.

Among agricultural workers perhaps the earthworm receives the least attention. Its value to the land is seldom appreciated. It bores through the soil, making little tunnels in every direction, thereby admitting the air and moisture not only to the soil, but through the soil to the subsoil. During the process of boring it eats its way along, thereby grinding up the little particles of earth, rendering them finer and in better condition to retain moisture.
