Arid Lands Made Fruitful.

Those parched, dry, arid plains of Mont., Colo., Ariz., Idaho and other dry lands respond quickly and give a big yield when planted to Salzer's Hybrid, Hardy Barley, Macaroni Wheat, 60 Day Earliest Oats, Billion Dollar Grass and Bromus Inermis. Above seem to flourish and laugh at droughts and arid soils. JUST SEND 10c IN STAMPS and this notice to John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., for their big catalogue and farm seed samples. [P. C. A sharp tongue is the only edged tool that grows keener with constant use.—Irving.

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness, and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains, and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."—Miss GUILA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary Amateur Art Association.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

When one considers that Miss Gannon's letter is only one of the countless hundreds which we are continually publishing in the newspapers of this country, the great virtue of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine must be admitted by all.

A BABOON HERO.

The German naturalist, Brehm, in comparing the monkeys of the Old World with the marmosets and monkeys of the New, says that the movements of Old World monkeys are free and unfettered, compared with the clinging and creeping of their American cousins. Their character is shown by their conduct in the presence of danger, and by the awe which they inspire in hunting dogs. Herr Brehm tells this story of an adventure with baboons in Africa:

Our dogs, beautiful, slender greyhounds, accustomed to fight successfully with hyenas and other beasts of prey; rushed toward the baboons, which, from a distance, looked more like beasts of prey than like monkeys, and drove them hastily up the precipices to right and left. But only the females took to flight; the males turned to face the dogs, growled, beat the ground with their hands, opened their mouths wide, showed their glittering teeth, and looked at their adversaries so furiously and maliciously that the hounds, battle-hardened and usually bold, shrank back discomfited, and almost timidly sought safety beside us.

Before we had succeeded in stirring them up to show fight, the position of the monkeys had changed considerably, and when the dogs charged a second time nearly all the herd were in safety.

But one little monkey about half a year old had been left behind. It shrieked loudly as the dogs rushed toward it, but succeeded in gaining the top of a rock before they had arrived. Our dogs placed themselves cleverly, so as to cut off its retreat, and we thought they would catch it.

That was not to be. Proudly and with dignity, without hurrying in the least, or paying any heed to us, an old male stepped down from the security of the rocks toward the hard pressed little one, walked toward the dogs without betraying the slightest fear, held them in check with glances, gestures and sounds that seemed almost like intelligible speech, slowly climbed the rock, picked up the baby monkey, and retreated with it before we could reach the spot, and without the slightest attempt to prevent him on the part of the dogs.

While the patriarch of the troop performed this brave and unselfish deed the other members, densely crowded on the cliff, uttered sounds which I had never before heard from baboons. Old and young, males and females, roared, screeched, snarled and bellowed all together, so that one would have thought that they were struggling with leopards or other dangerous beasts. I learned later that this was the monkeys' battle-cry. It was intended to intimidate us and the dogs, possibly also to encourage the brave old giant who was running into such evident danger before their eyes.

INDIANS VENERATE THE DEAD.

Totem Poles that Tell the History of a Chieftain.

"One of the distinctive features appealing to every traveler in Alaska," said F. J. Parke, special agent of the Interior department, in the Milwaukee Sentinel, "is the veneration displayed by the Indians for their dead. The most picturesque spots imaginable are selected for their burial places and as one travels along the mountain sides or up the canyons and valleys the fantastic graven representation of animals, birds or fish indicate the fact that beauty spots have been taken for the burial places of the natives. I visited villages where the totem poles recounting the history of its population resembled a small shipyard. The amount of work done on these records is almost beyond comprehension and, like the Egyptian hieroglyphics in ancient times, graven upon marble and stone, the language of a totem pole tells the history of chieftains and tribesmen. Some of these features must disappear with the march of commercialism developing the territory. The relic hunter, imbued with the spirit of vandalism, is no respecter of traditions, and many a rudely carved cedar pole has been transplanted. In stead of standing like grim sentinels guarding the secrets of the frozen northland and to the initiated telling the story of the life and death of the semibarbarian whose deeds it commemorates, the chances are that it will decorate the private grounds of relic-hunting tourists."

To Keep Pastry.

Instead of putting away pastry, such as cheese cakes, jam, tarts, etc., held in reserve in a large tin and fetching out when wanted, it will be found more convenient to pack about the number likely to be needed at one time in two-pound biscuit tins. Line the tin with butter paper, covering the pies carefully over and closing tightly, thus avoiding admitting air more than is necessary and also preventing breaking the edges and spoiling the appearance.

Many a man's conscience troubles him only when his neighbor does something wrong.

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN ESCAPED DREAD CATARRH BY USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh Robs Women of Health and Beauty.

Pe-ru-na Makes Women Healthy and Beautiful.

Miss Amanda Johnson Fairchild, Wis., writes:

"I write to tell you how much Peruna benefited me. For a number of years I had pain in my head around my eyes, and I thought it was because my eyes needed treatment, so I went to an oculist and had glasses fitted to my eyes and wore them for some time, but felt no relief whatever. In fact, I felt worse than before, and came to the conclusion that the trouble was not with my eyes, but with my head and that it must be catarrh. As so many of my friends had used Peruna with benefit for this trouble, I thought I would try it. I was not sorry that I did so, for in a short time I began to improve, and in four weeks my eyes were in splendid condition, my general health was much improved and all the catarrh of the head was gone. I was glad to get rid of this trouble and am glad to endorse such a good medicine as Peruna."—Miss Amanda Johnson.

MISS AMANDA JOHNSON.

Miss Flora Hauser, 1032 S. New Jersey street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I think I must have been troubled with catarrh ever since I was very young, aggravated each time I caught a cold. This did not prove sufficiently serious to be obnoxious until last winter. Then my head and nose were so stopped up that I felt I must do something. Peruna was recommended to me by a friend. I used it for four weeks, and found to my relief that it cured me. I have not had a bit of trouble since. My head is clear, and I can safely affirm that Peruna cured me."—Miss Flora Hauser.

No Woman Afflicted With Catarrh Can Be Either Beautiful or Attractive

MISS FLORA HAUSER.

Hundreds of Women Cured by Peruna of Annoying Catarrh.

Dr Hartman has probably done more than any other physician toward popularizing a means of escape from the facial deformities, such as watery eyes, twisted nose, offensive breath, dry cracked lips, due to the ravaging effects of catarrh.

He has made chronic catarrh a life-long study. His remedy, popularly known as Peruna, is the most famous remedy for catarrh in existence.

Probably there is not a man or woman, boy or girl, within the bounds of the United States that has not heard of Peruna. By far the largest majority have used Peruna.

The multitude of people that have been cured of chronic catarrh by using Peruna can never be known.

Many a girl has regained her faded beauty, many a matron has lengthened the days of her comely appearance by using Peruna.

Peruna produces clean mucous membranes, the basis of facial symmetry and a perfect complexion.

The women have not been slow to discover that a course of Peruna will do more toward restoring youthful beauty than all the devices known to science.

While it is true that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located, yet it is advisable for everyone to use Peruna as a preventive and not wait until catarrh has fastened itself in some part of the system.

Peruna acts quickly and beneficially on the inflamed mucous membranes lining the different organs of the body. Thus it will cure catarrh wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Corn We challenge the world to produce a more prolific, early, big eared corn variety than Salzer's Home Builder, so named because it yields so heavily in 1907, that its net proceeds built a beautiful home for the lucky possessor. See catalog. Here are some of the yields our customers had of this corn in 1907: 157 bu. per acre. By John Figgel, La Porte Co., Ind. 140 bu. per acre. By O. E. Michael, Mount Co., O. 194 bu. per acre. By Richard Pappert, Lake Co., Ind. 198 bu. per acre. By J. D. Walker, Hamilton Co., Tenn. 220 bu. per acre. By Lawrence Schaeffer, Cassin Co., Mich. 225 bu. per acre. By J. W. Massey, Crockett Co., Tenn. 204 bu. per acre. Ray Stewart, Kalamazoo Co., N. D. 1907: Harvested in 120 days. Yielded 304 bu. per acre. Next year it will grow 400 bu. per acre from it. National Oats. Enormously prolific. Does well everywhere. It won't let your acre produce less than 100 bu. Try it. Billion Dollar Grass. Most talked of grass in America. Would be ashamed of itself if it yielded less than 14 tons of splendid hay per acre. For 10c. in Stamps and the name of this paper, we will gladly send you a list of farm and garden seeds, well worth $10.00 to get a start with, together with our mammoth 140 page illustrated catalog, describing such varieties as 4750 Lead Barley, Macaroni Wheat, Two Foot Oats, Pea Oats, Tootsie, Victoria. Rape. Send the 10c. day.
