MARRIED.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was solemnized at high noon June 20, 1906, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Munkers, their daughter Winnifred, becoming the bride of Dr. Fredrick Hosch, of the Cascade Locks. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. O. Richmond in the presence of about 40 invited guests, immediate members of the family and intimate friends. The bride was gowned in cream silk Crepe de Chine and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, the groom wore the conventional black.

The house was tastefully decorated with roses and ferns. Miss Miller, sister of the groom played the wedding march. Many beautiful and costly presents were received by the happy couple. After congratulations and many wishes for their future happiness dainty refreshments were served.

The bride is one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of Seio, the groom is a successful physician and is in charge of a hospital at the Cascade Locks. Dr. and Mrs. Hosch took their departure amid a shower of rice for the Locks where they will be at home to their many friends after July 15.—Seio News.

Dr. Hosch is a son of Mrs. Henry Miller, of Stayton.

Something Good.

Stayton people will to-night be favored by one of the best musical entertainments ever seen here. The Hispano American Co. including the famous Rose City Quartette will be at the Opera House this [Friday] evening. The other numbers of the program will consist of instrumental music which is spoken of as the very best. The Quartette alone is worth the admission price. The program is entirely a musical one and we are sure Stayton music lovers will appreciate this opportunity to hear some that is first-class.

OBITUARY.

Daniel L. Jarvis, of North Santiam, died on Sunday, June 24, a victim of that awful white plague, consumption. He had been a sufferer for nearly two years, and for many months was unable to leave his room, and finally to leave his bed. Yet with that wonderful tenacity of life, and that exceeding buoyancy of spirit, known only to consumptives, he lingered and struggled, but vainly against the foe. A wife and seven children suffer loss. The community suffers loss. The church of Christ suffers loss.

The writer preached the funeral on Monday at the Christian church near his home, and his mortal remains were interred in the cemetery at Stayton. "In the fathers house are many mansions." May we all prepare ourselves to live in one. R. L. MORTON.
