

THE LOCAL FIELD

John Crabtree's health continues to improve.

C. Neibert has returned from eastern Oregon.

W. E. Thomas's family will camp at the Fair.

John Hughes is able to walk about, but is still quite weak.

B. Prange was in town on business from Sublimity Monday.

Get your shoes repaired by Lancefield at Smiths shoe store.

G. W. Caspell and daughter Orpah, of Shaw, were in town Saturday.

Geo. Brewer left Salem recently for a visit with his sister at Lewiston.

Mrs. Ripp and daughters, of Sublimity, were Stayton callers Wednesday.

Arthur Bonsteel is so far improved in health as to be able to walk down town.

David Mangle was in town Tuesday, having nearly recovered from his late illness.

Mrs. Eisenhart has returned home and "Uncle Chris" is now eating three square meals a day.

Geo. Gist was granted a divorce from his wife Mary, at the term of court held this week.

Dr. Beauchamp reports the arrival of a daughter at the home of E. W. Hall, at Gates, Saturday.

Rev. Father Lainck was down from Sublimity this morning, and made an appreciated call at this office.

FOR SALE—Full blood Buff Leghorn and Buff Orpington cockerels.

Jos. Schulte, Sublimity, Ore.

Mrs. U. Whitney has so far recovered from her long confinement as to be able to ride out, and was in town Saturday with Mr. Whitney.

Mrs. Hinxman, who arrived here from Centralia, Wash., last week, has shipped her household goods and will return to make that place her home.

Willis Caldwell and wife, W. A. Elder and wife, Jac Missler and wife and Mrs. Shreve and three children will be among those from here in camp at the State Fair.

Mrs. Schellberg returned home Monday. While away she spent several weeks at Seaside, and also visited with her sons Herman, at Portland, and Otto, at Salem.

With half our people gone to the hop yards and the other two-thirds figuring on going to the State Fair, Stayton will be very nearly depopulated next week.

As a dressing for sores, bruises and burns, Chamberlain's Salve is all that can be desired. It is soothing and healing in its effect. Price 25 cents. For sale by Stayton Pharmacy.

Dr. Brewer reports the arrival of a 10 lb daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Geer, of Union Hill, Sunday, and a 12 lb son at the home of H. St. Earl and wife, Mehama, Wednesday.

Alex. "Coon" Downing returned home Wednesday from Eastern Washington, where he has been the past few months. He appears in much better health than when he left here, and expects to return.

Good for the cough, removes the cold, the cause of the cough. That's the work of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the original laxative cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by Brewer Drug Co.

J. N. Weddle, operator at the Stayton Mutual Telephone central, was taken quite sick the first of the week, but is able to be out again. Miss Dean Kimsey, of Mehama, will have charge of the central during his absence from duty.

E. T. Matthieu and wife drove to Mt. Angel the first of the week with their daughter, Miss Theo, and the little lady remained and will attend the Sisters' Academy at that place. This is one of the best schools for girls in the State. Besides an extensive course of instruction, every attention is given to the pupil's physical and moral welfare.

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so agreeable and so natural you can hardly realize that it is produced by a medicine. These tablets also cure indigestion and biliousness. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Stayton Pharmacy.

Machine Burned.

Highberger Bros., of Sublimity, met with the loss of their separator Monday. They had just begun threshing at Jacob Staiger's when a spark from the engine set one of the stacks on fire and the grain and the machine were burned. Several stacks were saved, so Mr. Staiger did not lose all his grain as was first reported. We understand he estimates the loss on grain at $400. What Highberger Bros. will lose we have not learned, but it certainly is no small amount.

The Scio News says that "Harry Beard is again in trouble, much to the chagrin of his relatives, who are among the most respected and reliable of our citizens." He was employed by a Scio man to break a horse, and one day last week sold the animal to Mr. Weinrich, near Kingston. The Linn county sheriff came up from Albany yesterday and secured the animal. According to the News, this is not the first time Harry has been in trouble, but his relatives have always come to his assistance. This is not the first time he has sold property that does not belong to him, and has also tried his hand at forgery a time or two. He is reported to be hiding in the brush.

For the Fair!

During the State Fair at Salem I will run a stage to connect with the early morning train at Turner. Stage will leave Stayton at 6 o'clock a. m.

G. B. TRASK.

The water broke through the bank of the log pond on the south side last evening, and left the Stayton ditch without water. It will be repaired as soon as possible.

John H. Sperry, who conducted the store at Santiam, died Sept. 5th, at his home, aged 59 years, 7 months and 4 days. The burial was yesterday at the Miller cemetery.

Dr. Kitchen reports an increase in the population as follows: At John Mielke's, Sept. 5th; at Andrew Cornish's, the 6th and at Frank's the 7th; all girls and all doing nicely.

D. Bunn, an old and respected resident of the Shaw neighborhood, died Wednesday at 12 m., aged 81 years. The funeral will be held to-day and burial will be in Turner cemetery. He leaves a wife and five grown children.

W. H. Harlan and wife are the happy parents of a son, born Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harlan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Watters. Grandpa Watters is also naturally feeling pretty good over the arrival of his first grandchild.

Miss Veva Gardner left Wednesday for Pendleton, to take up her work as primary teacher in one of the city schools. Miss Gardner is a primary teacher of exceptional ability, and all who have children in the primary department of the school here are sorry to see her leave.

We believe that the trade of Stayton's popular undertaker, W. E. Thomas, covers a larger territory than that of any other in the county. It is not uncommon for him to have a call from persons living nearer to Silverton and Salem than to Stayton, and east of here as far as there are people on this side the Cascade summit. Of course there is a reason for this—he is prompt in attendance, fair in his charges, has a first-class hearse, and knows how to properly conduct the exercises at a funeral.

A New York dispatch to the daily papers says that the projected road through Central Oregon to connect with the Corvallis & Eastern, owned by A. B. Hammond, is placing its bonds on that market and it is probable that they will be listed on the Stock Exchange in the near future. It is understood that the new project will use the rights of way through the state acquired by the Oregon Central & Eastern, which was building over the same route 15 years ago. The road is to be bonded at $20,000 a mile, which, considering the nature of the country is considered moderate. It is thought arrangements will be completed within the next thirty days for financing the project.

Married women will receive valuable book, "Woman Know Thyself" free by forwarding 2ct stamp to GIANT SYRINGE CO., Oregonian Bldg. Portland, Ore.

GRAND CRAB FEAST EXCURSION Newport and Return Sunday, Sept. 9

Under the auspices B. P. O. E. Albany Lodge No. 359

A grand crab feast and entertainment will be given by the B. P. O. E. on the above date, in which the lodges of Salem, Eugene, Albany and other valley towns will participate.

A brass band of 15 pieces has been secured and will entertain the excursionists during the day.

Crabs and other delicacies of the ocean will be served in abundance free to all.

Train leaves Kingston 6:35 a. m. Fare for round trip, $1.75.

A chance of a life time. Come and enjoy yourself with the best people on earth.

The Siege of Lisbon.

When Lisbon was besieged by the Spanish in the fifteenth century such Portuguese as were captured were maimed. Their eyes were put out, their noses, lips or ears were cut off, their finger nails or fingers amputated, and in this miserable plight they were sent back into the city with the announcement that when it was taken all the defenders would be similarly treated.

Refused the King.

Henry VIII. had six wives. The most extraordinary ambition was displayed by the fair sex in general to obtain the dangerous distinction of being his queen. One instance alone is quoted of his meeting with a refusal and that was on the part of a witty Duchess of Milan, who replied to his offer that she unfortunately had but one head and could not afford to lose it.

Real Mortifying.

"George kissed me last night," she said, "and I'm so mortified that I hardly know what to do."

"Why, do you regard kissing before you are engaged as a disgrace?"

"No, but in my surprise I forgot to make a pretense of fighting him off for a while."—Chicago Record-Herald.
