A Pleasant Evening.

A number of gay, young people were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Tate on last Friday evening. A good time was had by all. Guessing the most number of articles which were placed upon a table proved very interesting. A number of young people were blindfolded, lead into the dining room, and after completely surrounding the table the blindfold on each was removed while Mrs. Tate counted 10, when the young folks were again blindfolded, lead into another room, given a seat, tablet and pencil, when all articles were recorded that they had in mind. Goldie Wimer won the prize. Parlor games were enjoyed, music interspersed, and social converse ran high. A banquet ended the evening's pleasure. All too soon we bade the kind host and hostess good night.

The following were present: The Misses Veva Gardner, Maud Miller, Lizzie Cornelius, Nora Crabtree, Laura Wimer, Norma Gardner, Mabel Gardner, Jessie Goodman, Bob Morton, Florence Morton, Mrs. Morton, Goldie Wimer, June Kearns, Christina Tate, Mrs. Tate.

Geo. Ramsey, Everett Gardner, Geo. Tate, Harvey Beauchamp, Everette Crabtree, Guy Sloper, Dare Sloper, Guy Kearns, Glenn Munkers and Mr. Tate.

Dressed turkeys selling today in Portland 17c to 19c per pound. They will probably sell at much better price for the Xmas trade than at Thanksgiving. It is unlikely that such large quantities will come here from southern Oregon as were received before Thanksgiving. Shipments should be made by express to arrive in Portland Saturday, 21st or Sunday, 22d. Page & Son are the principal dealers in live and dressed poultry and produce in Portland, and can sell your shipments immediately upon arrival to best advantage. They remit post office order or check the following Wednesday. This firm is reliable and responsible. Write them for shipping tags.
