From the report of the committee published in the News we learn that Scio purchased 3,700 feet of new 6 in. iron pipe and laid it, and put in eleven new hydrants at a cost of $2,586.

Brownville has been without water power for some time, owing to the dam washing out, and will be until the river falls so that a new dam may be built. The city is also without electric lights.

There will be a Calico Ball at the Stayton Opera House Friday night, January 24th. Ladies are requested to bring a piece of calico to correspond with dress, enclosed in an envelope Music by the Shaw Concertina Orchestra. Chicken supper, 50c a couple. Dance tickets, 75c, Spectators, 25c.

Lambert Resigns.

L. S. Lambert, who has for some time been supervisor of the Stayton road district, handed in his resignation the first of the week, and G. W. Murphy was appointed by the court as his successor. Mr. Lambert has done some good work on the roads during his term of office, and also greatly benefited the district by getting the rock crusher at work here. Mr. Murphy, who succeeds him, will, we believe, be a first-class man for the position and will fill it in a satisfactory manner.

To The Public.

Under my article in last weeks MAIL, headed "Some Good Advice," I am now disposed to withdraw a portion of that article. On account of a misunderstanding for which Mr. Marking nor myself are in any way responsible, I withdraw the statement that I will be Mr. Marking's successor in the hardware line, although the invoice was almost completed. Mr. Marking will still be found in that department as before. Respectfully submitted,

W. A. WEDDLE.

Chas. Stayton was in Portland this week on business.

Walter Bevier and wife of Gates, are the parents of a new boy.

Gertrude, the 3 year old daughter of Mrs. Eccleson, is seriously ill with pleurisy.

The Meneley Quartette Saturday night was greeted by a large audience and gave good satisfaction. Col. Sobieski, who spoke Friday night, gave a fine talk on Russia, that was much appreciated.

Mr. Ellis and wife, of Portland, were guests the past couple of weeks of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Eisenhart, of Stayton, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fresh, of Shaw. Mr. Ellis and Mr. Eisenhart made this office a pleasant call Tuesday.

Louise F., wife of D. C. McCrory, died Thursday at the family home near Shaw, aged 66 years. The funeral service will be held at the house, at about 10 o'clock Saturday, and burial will be made in the Stayton cemetery.

There was a party at the home of J. R. Gardner Friday night last, given as a surprise to and in honor of Miss Norma Gardner, before her departure for Salem, where she will attend school. A very pleasant time is reported.

According to a poll taken by the Chicago Tribune, Taft is the first choice of 60 per cent of the republican voters; the first, second and third choice of 80 per cent, and the first choice of every state save the "favorite son" states.

No preventing providence there will be services in the Baptist Church next Sunday as follows: Sunday School, 10 a. m., preaching, 11 a. m., Young Peoples meeting, 6:45 and preaching at 7:30, subject, "Nobodies." Come and see if you are one of them.

George Koeneke, who closed out his butcher business in this city some six weeks or two months ago, has bought into the butcher business at Independence. He will move his shop fixtures this week, but the family will not move until spring.—Santiam News.

Wholesale prosecution of manipulators of blind pigs followed with conviction in each case has accomplished the purpose sought to be accomplished by the district attorney and the city officers. It has caused others who had internal revenue licenses to give them up, clear the places of liquor and promise by all that is good to never more indulge in violation of the local option law. The result is that Eugene today is as dry as a bone and the disposition is to maintain faithful obedience to the law.—Eugene Register.

Horseshoe Camp, W. O. W., of this place, at its meeting last Monday evening installed its officers and held an enthusiastic session after which the ladies invaded its sacred precincts and graced the banquet table. Vocal and instrumental music occupied the time 'till the wee small hours. The officers for the present term are as follows: O. V. Myers, Consul; A. L. Mack, Past Consul; Henry Siegmund, Advisor; E. B. Watters, Clerk; Charles Clow, Banker; W. F. Ware, Escort; Fred Frank, Watchman; Wm. H. Myers, Sentry. Managers, John Apple, Geo. Glover and John Street.

Dr. Kitchen and wife returned Wednesday from a visit of nearly three weeks in Southern Oregon. While away they visited their daughter, Mrs. Bowersox, in Ashland, also visiting friends in Grants Pass. On their return they spent a couple of days at Roseburg, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elder at the Soldiers Home. Dr. Kitchen is loud in his praises of the excellence of that institution. He says there are now 140 old veterans in the Home, and that Commandant Elder and his wife do everything in their power to make their life pleasant. The buildings are a model of cleanliness, the victuals are the best, and everything possible is done for the welfare of the ex-soldiers. The Dr. and his wife much enjoyed their visit at the Home and with Mr. Elder and family.

Lawrence W. Condit died Wednesday, the 15th, at his home near West Stayton, after a short illness from pneumonia. He was aged 46 years. The funeral was held Thursday at the church near his home and interment made in the cemetery there. Mr. Condit was a well known resident of this section, and had many friends who will sympathize with the sorrowing relatives in their loss.

M. S. Titus, of Kingston, was a caller Saturday. He says that tramps are becoming numerous along the railroad. One passed the school house one day last week just as the children were returning from school, and according to the tramp, the children made fun of him, which caused him to give them a piece of his mind. This frightened the children, who told Mr. Titus that the tramp had threatened them. He at once telephoned for Constable Cliff Harold, and the hobo was overtaken near Downing's. After an examination of the tramp, he was let go, and wandered on up the line. M. S. says there was considerable fun at the trial, Downing, Harold, Malone and himself being judge, jury, and attorneys.

Hauling.

Any one wishing hauling or teaming of any kind done, call on me. I also have fir and oak wood for sale.
