

Must Sell in 5 Days!

17 High Grade Talking Machines.

I have received orders to go to Southern Oregon. Rather than go to the expense of staging my goods to the railroad, I will sell at the following reduced prices:

$40 Machines for $30
Including 6 records.

$35 Machines for $25

$25 Machines for $15

This includes all machines with the exception of contract goods.

Commercial Club meets to-night. Don't forget the Talking Machine sale at the Stayton Pharmacy.

Rev. J. P. Conder will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday as usual.

Word comes from Ralph Stamp that he is sick in a hospital in Mexico, but nothing serious.

Frank Lesley has added a large new range to the Stayton Hotel. It is an up-to-date affair, with two large baking ovens.

Mr. Nelson, of Nelson & Adams logging camp, near the Bass place, had his pelvis broken by getting between two logs, yesterday.

Wm. Follis has moved into the M. Streff house, opposite Hill Bros. Mr. Streff has made considerable improvement on this property lately.

The receipts of the Corvallis water works last year were $11,607.74, the disbursements $8,353.54, making an income from the plant of $3,254.20.

Miss Dort and Mr. Rollo Harold were baptized at Kingston Christian Church Sunday afternoon and took membership with that congregation.

J. H. Anderson and wife left yesterday afternoon for Albany. They expect before they return to visit friends also in Lebanon, Woodburn and Mt. Angel.

Frank Gehlen visited his mother and brothers in Stayton this week. He is now a fireman on the O. R. & N., running between Portland and The Dalles.

A new wooden gutter has been placed along the west side of Third Street. When the work is completed it is expected that not so much water will stand on the street.

F. Herrling, one of Stayton precincts most enterprising farmers, was an appreciated caller Wednesday. Mr. Herrling is one of his class who keeps well posted on present day conditions.

Willis Caldwell and wife returned yesterday from an extended visit. Mrs. Caldwell spent the time while away with her parents at Eugene. Mr. Caldwell visited numerous towns in California, spending two or three days in San Francisco.

M. E. Church Services.

There will be preaching at 11 a. m., Theme: "The Price of Power." Epworth League at 6:30. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Johnson, the fellow who is in jail at Albany on a charge of burglary at the home of Wm. Follis, near Kingston, is, according to the Democrat, anxious to leave his present place of abode. Last week he tried to fit a key to his cell lock, and Saturday he made a break for liberty while the sheriff had opened the door to empty ashes. Johnson got into the street and gave the sheriff a run, but was soon captured.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The meeting of the club held Friday night last was a good one and well attended.

The newly appointed members of the railroad committee asked for more time to complete their work, as did also the committee on cannery.

The cannery proposition will be taken up by the Club in earnest, and we believe their work will result in the building of a cannery. The members of the committee expect to visit Monmouth or some other town where a cannery is in operation and secure full information regarding cost, etc. The regular meeting night was changed to the last Friday in each month. This was made necessary in order to secure the Odd Fellows hall, where the Club will meet hereafter. The next meeting will be held tonight. All members are urgently requested to be present.

S. W. Jackson and wife, evangelists, will begin a series of meetings Thursday night, the 6th, at the Christian Church.

The body of Dr. Randolph C. Hunter, one of the founders of the Cooper Medical college, San Francisco, who died at Lexington, Jan. 23, was cremated yesterday afternoon, Rev. John Dawson officiating at the services. He leaves a widow and six children. They are Mrs. Elizabeth Smoother, Oakland; Harry Hunter, St. John; Mrs. John Goodman, St. John; Dr. Fred Hunter and Misses Pearl and Ruby Hunter, of Hoquiam.

Dr. Hunter came to this country 45 years ago from London, where he was born in 1834. He settled in San Francisco. At one time he was a deputy coroner of San Francisco. During the Crimean war Dr. Hunter served three years in the English army as a surgeon.—Portland Journal.

Dr. Hunter was for several years a resident of Stayton, leaving here about six years ago.

COUNCIL MEETS

on the first Thursday of each month. In order that the citizens may know what is being done, also what needs to be done, the Town Council invites all who are interested in the welfare of our town to attend these meetings regularly. Their presence and influence will be appreciated and will aid them in conducting the affairs of the town and to carry out the wishes of the people. We should all be interested in our town and help to improve it just as we do our own home. Let us make it our home, and manifest our interest by attending these meetings regularly, and help to improve our town and thereby improve our home. There will be something doing at every meeting. Come out. W. L. FRERES, Mayor.

The hobo fraternity is becoming altogether too numerous in this vicinity, and the farmers around Stayton are loading their shot-guns and if the tramps encroach on their premises are going to do them damage. One night last week hobos attempted to get into M. S. Titus' house, near Kingston, and considerably frightened Mr. and Mrs. Titus. Mr. Titus had a gun, but no shells, so was practically defenseless. The hobos stayed around the place for some time, before they took their leave. The home of J. B. Jeter was also called upon, and now J. B. is ready for the next callers of that kind.

Lloyd Brown, has during odd hours for several months past been making mission furniture, and is an expert at the work. Several pieces of his manufacture may be seen in the bank, in Dr. Beauchamp's office, and other places in town. His room, at the home of his grandfather, Lee Brown, is well supplied with several handsome pieces of his workmanship. His work is all well made and artistic in design.

The dance last Friday night was well attended—in fact the best in Stayton for some time. Supper for the dancers was served by the Catholic ladies at the Grand Central Hotel, and is spoken of by all who partook in the highest praise. Everything good to eat was served and in a neat and tasty manner.

Closing out at cost our Ladies and Childrens coats would be calling our prices now in force on the above items a very mild term.

We have made up our mind that they must go and go they do at any price. We have some odd and end Men's and Boy's Suits which we will sell at less than original cost. Great values for those that can find a fit.

We will also give away absolutely free one set of silverware, consisting of 26 pieces—knives, forks and spoons—one set to each customer. Call and we will explain how you can get this guaranteed silver set free.

Yours as ever for business,

W. F. KLECKER, Stayton.

P. S.—All persons indebted to me please call and make a settlement of their bills.

A new lot of Furniture just in.

Come in and see.

Remember Our Hardware Line is complete.

Fresh Bakery!

If you want anything in the baker's line call on us. We get goods three times a week, baked the same day received. We have

Butternut, Cream, Crimp, Graham, Rye and Pan Bread Cakes, Pies, Cookies, Doughnuts

Cheaper than you can make them. Give us a call.

W. E. THOMAS & SON.

Salem, Albany and Eugene newspapers enjoy a whack at each other. Here is a sample from the Democrat: "Eugene and Albany are dry and quiet," says the Salem Journal; but not dead like Salem. Business has been better in Eugene and Albany than ever before.
