

THE LOCAL FIELD

Horseshoe Camp Meets every 2d and 4th Monday night. Choppers welcome. E. B. WATERS, Clerk. O. V. Myers, C. C.

Oak wood for sale at the Chair Factory 49

R. L. Morton is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Tenney, of Mehama, died Thursday morning.

Call on Jac. Spaniol for tin-work and plumbing.

Workingmen can't expect soft jobs in hard times.

Delmer Caldwell is home from his visit at Dallas.

Milton people won many prizes at a Walla Walla poultry show.

Eor sale—Hand cream separator. Inquire of Henry J. Parker.

FOR SALE—Good wagon. 51 CLIFFORD HAROLD, Kingston.

A lot of grain was sown in Oregon previous to the late cold snap.

H. E. Wirth has purchased a new piano for the pleasure of his family.

FOR SALE—Barred Plymouth Rock eggs. JOS. HAMMON. Stayton, Ore.

HORSE FOR SALE—Good driving horse, cheap. Inquire at this office.

M. J. Spaniol and wife are the parents of a new daughter, born last week.

Miss Clarinda Rees was visiting friends in town this week. She now resides in Salem.

J. W. Apple was a caller Monday. His little girls, who were sick, are now completely recovered.

Now is the time to register for next election. Call on E. B. Watters, notary public, and register.

G. D. Trotter was at Portland several days this week on business connected with his store.

We just received a carload of buggies and wagons. 2t4 CHAS. WESELY, Scio, Ore.

FOR SALE—My residence property in Stayton, or part thereof. E FORRETTE.

Mrs. J. F. Potter and children, of Mill City, are visiting Mrs. Potter's parents, A. Hill and wife.

I have 20 head pure bred Shropshire ewes and some pure bred bucks for sale. B. E. FRESH, Shaw, Ore.

G. W. Murphy was at Salem this week in attendance on a meeting of road supervisors of Marion county.

Good hay for sale, for either horses or cows. Inquire of C. S. BOWNE, Aumsville, Ore.

Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, pleasant little pills. They are easy to take. Sold by Stayton Pharmacy.

When in Stayton leave your team at the Grand Central Feed Barn. JACK ALLEN.

Stayton Studio, R. B. Fish, proprietor. Plates and films developed and printed. Photographs and copying. Amateur supplies.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is best for cuts, burns, boils, bruises and scratches. It is especially good for piles. Sold by Stayton Pharmacy.

H. E. Wirth has finished hauling the dirt from the excavation for E. Roy's new store building, hauling over 300 loads. Mr. Roy has not definitely settled on his building, but it will probably be a double store, 50x60 feet.

The Revival meetings will continue all next week. The audience and interest is growing.

Chas. Wesely and Roger Cain prominent business men of Scio, were Stayton visitors yesterday.

E. G. Siegmund, of Klumb, attended the meeting of the county road supervisors at Salem, Wednesday.

Isaac C. Bates has purchased a place in Scio, known as the Henry Meyers place, and will move there March 1st.

The Mail learns through Griff King that the widow of Albert Cole received $1460 from the 2500, instead of $1000 as previously stated.

H. R. Powell, a pioneer of Linn county, died at his home in Brownsville Monday. He was a cousin of Judge Powell of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. John English and children have been on the sick list the past week, and Wm. English has also been under the doctor's care.

We have a full line of buggies, wagons and farming implements. Give us a call before you buy elsewhere. 2t4 CHAS. WESELY, Scio, Ore.

Dr. Carter, a druggist of Newport, was fined $350 for a violation of the local option law. This is the second time the Dr. has paid a fine for the same offence.

John Sandner, of Kingston precinct, was an appreciated caller Tuesday. Mr. Sandner tells us that the grain crop looks fine, the freeze not doing it any damage.

Evangelist S. W. Jackson will speak to women only on the subject of "Woman—Her Place and Power," Sunday at 3 p. m., Christian Church. Young, middle aged and old are invited.

J. E. Sloper is preparing to build an addition to his residence. The new part will be 22 feet long with a porch on two sides and will make a fine addition to Mr. Sloper's house.

H. J. Mutchler has begun work on his new blacksmith shop. The building will be 25x50, built of stone with a brick front. It will be a valuable addition to the appearance of Water Street.

The Thomas grocery, W. F. Klecker and Gehlen Bros., have purchased a carload of salt. By purchasing in this large quantity they secure better prices and will be able to give their patrons the benefit of the reduction.

F. and J. Pietrok have purchased a saw mill from the monks at Jordon and have started it running on their father's place near Kingston. They have a first-class outfit, and are turning out a large amount of lumber and ties each day.

The Southern Pacific the coming year will make a specialty of boosting Newport as a resort, and as well all other resorts in the valley. Some of the finest mountain resorts in the world are tributary to Albany. Breitenbush, Cascade, etc. Development and access are needed.—Albany Democrat.

The subject of the sermon at the Christian church to-night will be "What would happen if Stayton should come to Christ?" Saturday—"From the foothills to the summit." Sunday—11 a. m. "Lovest thou me?" 3 p. m. "Woman—her place and power." (women only) 7:30 p. m. "A glass railroad."

Next week the evangelist will take up a line of bible studies which will be extremely interesting.

RECEPTION.

A reception was given by the members of the Entre Nous Society on last Friday evening from 8 to 12. The reception was a brilliant success in every particular. A short program was rendered as follows:

- Music.....Ethel Mack.
- Solo—"I'm Dreaming of the Past".....Ethel Mack.
- "The Inquisitive Wife".....Ed Brucher
-and Etta Gentry
- Music.....Geo. H. Ramsey
- Recitation—"His First Sermon".....

The hours glided swiftly by. Many parlor games were in vogue, and "Conversation" occupied a prominent place in the social line. Miss Cornelius presided during the evening, assisted by the teachers.

At 10:45 the company were invited to partake of a delicious repast prepared by the boys and girls of the society. The tables were beautifully decorated by the decorating committee, and were served by the following: Laura Wimer, Mabel Gardner, Lizzie Cornelius, Harvey Beauchamp, Geo. Ramsey and Guy Sloper. Frank Alexander presided at the Punch Bowl. The punch was made by Miss Veva Gardner and Mrs. Gardner.

The hall was beautifully decorated by Roxey Stayton, Ethel Mack, Frances Foster, Geo. Ramsey, Nicholas Stehley and Everett Gardner.

The Society tendered a vote of thanks to the Thomas Grocery store, the Marking Furniture store and the Kerber Hardware store for courtesies extended.

The occasion will not soon be forgotten. All went home happy. Come, dear young comrades, you and I will pass a few hours in merriment and glee as the days go swiftly by.

PUMPKIN CENTER.

Weather is very changeable—hail, snow and rain at present. We'll have to all wait until the sun shines.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith enjoyed a very pleasant visit from their daughter Ella and son Frank. Mr. Smith is improving in health very rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Siegmund accompanied their children to Salem, where they will continue going to school.

Caroline and F. Siegmund have been attending the sick bed of Mr. and Mrs. English and family. It is hoped by their many friends and relatives that they will soon recover.

Messrs. Peter Freres, John Apple, Algie Moss and Charlie Apple made a business trip to Salem Saturday, returning Sunday.

There was no school last Wednesday on account of Miss Corrigan being sick.

Miss Grace Apple is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Freres.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Lake and family spent a very enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. Grant—Lake of Stayton, Sunday.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday school next Lord's Day at 10 o'clock a. m. and preaching at 11. The subject will be, "What is Man?" There will be no service in the evening. The young people have kindly been invited to hold a union meeting with the members of the Christian church at their usual hour, and young and old will attend the revival services which follow in the same church.

Mr. G. Koeneke and another gentleman from Scio, are arranging to open up a new meat market in the Nelson building on Main street. They expect to be ready for business about Feb. 1st.—Independence Town Talk.

W. A. Elder was circulating a paper this week to see how many names he could secure for the purpose of organizing a company of the Oregon National Guard. He had secured several names when we saw the list. Mr. Elder served for a time in the U. S. regular army, and is well up in military tactics.

The first of the week Paul Frank circulated a subscription paper about town, securing $54, to be used toward defraying the expenses of Arthur Bonsteel, who left Thursday for Salem, where he will enter a hospital and undergo an operation for cancer. Mr. Bonsteel and family desire through the MAIL to return their heartfelt thanks to those who subscribed.

We have now open for your inspection a new line of Shoes.

New nobby Hats, the very latest creations and prettiest designs that mankind can make.

New line of children's, boys, youths and young men's clothing in all the latest styles and shades, which are exclusive patterns only obtained through Ederheimer, Stein & Co., of Chicago.

New Notions of all kinds.

Call and see for yourself at Stayton's most popular and up to the notch Dry Goods Store.

Respectfully yours,

W. F. KLECKER.

A new lot of Furniture just in.

Come in and see.

Remember Our Hardware Line is complete.

Prices Always Right.

H. J. Marking.

Soap for Everybody!

We now have on our shelves thirty-six kinds of Soaps and Washing Powders. You can certainly find what you want among the list.

Fresh Bakery!

If you want anything in the baker's line call on us. We get goods three times a week, baked the same day received. We have

Butternut, Cream, Crimp, Graham, Rye and Pan Bread Cakes, Pies, Cookies, Doughnuts

Cheaper than you can make them. Give us a call.

W. E. THOMAS & SON.

We Don't Guess When We Fit Glasses.

We have the Scientific Instruments for determining and correcting any and all defects of vision, no matter the nature of the case.

WE FIT ANY THAT RES. PONDS to LIGHT

E. ROY, The Optician and Jeweler, Stayton, Or.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Anything you may need in the line of

Hardware, Tinware, Stoves, Etc.,

you can find at our store.

We can furnish anything in the machinery line from a sewing machine to a threshing machine.

We invite you to call and see our stock and we can convince you that we can save you money.

KERBER BROS.